CLIMAX IN THE HAINS CASE

2 BOSTON CHINAMEN ARE SHOT

Read for Profit
American 'Want Ads'
Use for Results

BOSTON AMERICAN

8 P.M. EDITION

VOL. 5—No. 294. 10 PAGES. Registered in U. S. Patent Office. BOSTON, TUESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1909. Copyright, 1909, by the New England Newspaper Publishing Company. 10 PAGES. PRICE ONE CENT.

CHINESE TONG WAR ON

Two Men Shot in Oxford Place Battle.

Three Chinamen engaged in a hand- to-hand fight this afternoon at No. 2 Oxford place. Razors, keen-edged chisels and a big revolver were used.

Two of the Chinamen are in the Relief Hospital. They have been terribly slashed and shot.

Another Chinaman, Yee Don Ging, is locked up in the Lagrange street station to await the result of their injuries.

Yee, who lives at No. 134 Oxford place, rushed to the place where the battle took place at about 1:15 this afternoon. A terrible scuffle took place and revolver shots were heard.

When the police rushed in Yee was master of the place.

When arrested Yee was a regular walking arsenal. The police took from a blood-covered forty-two calibre revolver, a razor blade which had been set in a long wooden handle and a chisel ten inches in length, sharp as a razor at the ends and on the two sides, which had been ground down, making it a murderous weapon. The long two-edged chisel was in a leather sheath suspended around Yee's waist by a wire cord.

The police of the La Grange street station are convinced that to-day's fight is an outbreak of the old war between the two tongs, or Chinese societies. In the last war between the Hep Sings and the On Leon Tongs, in which the Hep Sings shot up Chinatown, four men were slain, and Warry Charles, the leader of the Hep Sings, and eight of his conspirators were found guilty of murder.

The wounded men are Chi Suey Ing and Wi Ni Teao, both of No. 2 Oxford place, where the fight took place. Chi is fifty-one and Wo fifty-eight. They are members of the On Leong Tung. Yee Don Ging, who is under arrest, is now declared to be a New Bedford laundryman and the member of the Hep Sing Society.

Captain Cain of the LaGrange street station, who so successfully ran to earth the principals in the Oxford place shooting on Old Home Week in August of 1907, is questioning many of the Chinamen of the locality.

He has found that the old secret society war has again broken out and that ten strange Chinamen are in Boston to-day. After the affray several of them fled from Chinatown.

FATHER CALLS BABE A THIEF TO SAVE SELF

A pretty brown-eyed girl, five years old, was accused of shoplifting by her own father in the Police Court to-day in an effort to prove himself innocent of the same charge. The father, Arthur Davis, was charged with stealing $2.20 worth of goods from a department store. Most of the stolen property was found in his pockets. Confronted with this evidence, Davis said: "My little girl stole these things."

The case was being heard before Judge Murray. As Davis made this statement, the Judge asked for the child. As the trembling girl looked at Judge Murray, he rose from his seat and he almost shouted:

"What, you accuse this baby, your own flesh and blood, of stealing. I will not hear you."

Judge Murray then called for the mother. The mother, child and the Judge consulted for a few minutes. Judge Murray was heard to say, "What, you are pleading for this man. Woman, don't sympathize with him. He is not worth it."

Judge Murray continued the case until Thursday. Davis was held in $100. "I'll have this case investigated before I change my mind about hearing this man," he declared.

Mrs. Davis said, "I have fasted since my husband was arrested. We are destitute, but I will not eat until my husband is free."

SAILORS NEAR DEATH IN SEA

Three transatlantic liners, all reporting terrible weather, arrived this morning. They are the Wilson liner Buffalo from Hull, the British ship Lobelia from Leith, Scotland, and the Scandinavian liner Arkansaw from Christiania and Copenhagen.

The Buffalo and Lobelia crossed without accident, but the Arkansaw shipped a giant sea that washed several seamen overboard. They were rescued and had to go under a surgeon's care. Several small boats were smashed and ventilators dented.

FRACTURE BONES ON ICY SIDEWALKS

Mrs. George Haggett of No. 455 Oakdale street, Dedham, slipped on the icy sidewalk to-day in front of the residence of Daniel Beckford, No. 166 Oakdale avenue, and broke her right thigh. Mrs. Beckford, seeing Mrs. Haggett fall, rushed out to her assistance and fell, breaking her left wrist. Walter G. Coleman of Cambridge sustained a fractured hip in a fall.

COMING

Watch for the Announcement of the greatest serial — the strongest novel — ever offered to its readers by any newspaper in America. Offered to readers for the first time in the

Boston American

Rear Admiral 'Bob' Evans As He Looks in Boston Today

Snapshot Taken at Hotel Lenox by Boston American Staff Photographer.

EVANS URGES PUBLICITY IN NAVY AFFAIRS

Rear Admiral D. Evans who lectures at Symphony Hal lto-night for the benefit of the Children's Hospital, passed to-day receiving a multitude of old friends at the Hotel Lenox. He declared that one of the crying needs of the navy department and ships at sea is publicity.

"I don't criticise anybody," he said, "the people pay for the ships and support the navy and ought to know all about it. That's why I fought it out to have the newspaper men aboard when the fleet sailed around the Horn. Over in Germany they have the Naval League and it is being duplicated in this country. This will tend to put the people in touch with the navy and its needs.

Trip's Affect Abroad.

"The trip of the fleet will have a great affect abroad, principally in South American, where they never believed that a United States existed that could defend the hemisphere. When they saw the sixteen big pug-nosed fighting machines at their very doors they held up their hands in astonishment. They are such bluffers themselves they thought the United States was bluffing until their own eyes saw.

"There is something interesting about this lecturing business and it shows me that the people want to know about naval affairs though they have lacked the opportunities to get in touch. I like it so well I am going right through to the Pacific Coast and speak about fifty times I think on the trip. The Naval League, now consisting of 4,500 members, seems to think it will build up to fifty thousand in a year and I hope it does.

Navy Preventative of War.

"You ask about Reuterdahl's statements. Well some of his criticisms are childish. He insists that European war vessels have ports ten feet square, that their armament is two or three times as high as ours which would bring some of the guns to a level of the smoke stacks

"With a sufficient navy there would be no war. I have seen two wars, one the Civil War which could have been closed in a jiffy with a sufficient navy and 50,000 troops, and the Spanish War which would never have happened if we had an efficient naval power.

"So if we want peace have a navy and inversely if we sacrifice our navy then we must expect to have another war."

BIG PRICES FOR PAUL REVERE SILVERWARE

The sale of the personal effects and household goods of the late George F. Parkman, the millionaire philanthropist, was concluded to-day at his late residence, No. 33 Beacon street, with the usual large crowd of Back Bay men and women in the bidding. The interest centred on the silverware made by Paul Revere, of which there were a ladle, six silver desertspoons and a silver sugar tongs, all Revere's handiwork. The ladle was bought by Koopan & Co. for $400, the spoons by a "Mr. X. Smith" for $115 for the first choice, and $75 each for the other five; the tongs went to the same bidder for $160.

COURT IN TEARS AS LAWYER PLEADS

Dramatic Scene as McIntyre Defends Thornton Hains's Acts in the Annis Tragedy

FLUSHING, L. I., Jan. 12.—"Look up! Thornton Hains, look into the eyes of those twelve men, not one of whom believes you guilty! Look at them and let them look at you! You are going home as soon as they get the opportunity to deliberate. Let them see and realize the manner of man they are to give back his freedom."

In an intensity of silence in which the deep breathing of the spectators showed plainly the depth of their feelings, John F. McIntyre played his last card for the life of Thornton Hains. In an impassioned address McIntyre made a plea which worked on the emotions of the jury and spectators alike. McIntyre has never before been so eloquent, and when he reached the climax by turning to his client and demanding that he inspect the men who hold his fate in their hands, he had every man in the jury box leaning far forward to obey his command.

Several times, plainly overcome by the weight and force of his lawyer's eloquence, Thornton Hains sobbed audibly, and when McIntyre called the attention of the jury to the fact that a verdict of guilty would make his crippled daughter, Mollie, an orphan, the tears flowed down his face, while his usually florid countenance assumed a pallid cast.

charging that a conspiracy had been hatched to send an innocent man to the death chair, McIntyre delivered one of the most stinging addresses ever heard in a courtroom.

Bitterly arraigning the opposing counsel for their conduct of the case, hurling invectives against the leading State witnesses, and declaring that William E. Annis was killed by a madman for whom his brother was acting in guardian capacity, the famous lawyer thundered his defence of Thornton Hains at the spell-bound jury.

He scathingly denounced the members of the Bayside Yacht Club who had appeared as witnesses, as plotters for the defendant's death with the motive of revenge. He intimated that their testimony was perjured.

Every Woman in Courtroom Wept.

McIntyre was, at his best when he pleaded to the jury to give his client's life to the old soldier father, and his mother. As the speaker dwelt upon old General Hains's services to his country, the father of the Hains boys buried his face in his handkerchief and wept like a child. Every woman in the court was weeping.

Mr. McIntyre has been the star of many criminal cases. As counsel for the State he has sent many noted murderers to the gallows and death chair, and his individuality is impressed on the criminal court records of New York County. But never in his long career has he talked as he talked to-day for the life of Thornton Jenkins Hains. McIntyre realized that there was much in the evidence that seemed to need explanation, and he talked with an impressiveness that cannot have failed to have had its effect on the jurymen.

When court re-convened more interest was manifested by both jury and spectators than has been noticed for many days. The attendance was larger than it has been since the opening days of the trial.

Thornton Hains took his seat, as usual, at his counsel's table. He showed plainly the terrific strain under which he has been laboring for the past five weeks.

Immediately upon the opening of court Mr. McIntyre rose and addressed the court as follows:

Must Give Defendant Benefit of Doubt.

"With due submission to the court, Mr. Foreman, and each of you gentlemen of the jury, we are now about to close, and you

Continued on Page 2, Column 1.

STRIKERS IN RIOTS AT LYNN

Three men were pounded, stabbed and bruised in a pitched battle in Lynn to-day between Poles and Greeks, the trouble growing out of the strike at the Thomas A. Kelley morocco factory there.

The non-union men were going to their work to-day when they were attacked at Vivian place, Linden and Morris streets and in Western avenue. About fifty men, all told, were concerned.

Stones, knives and clubs were used in the various melees.

Dominick Petkinish was stabbed in one affray at the corner of Linden and Morris streets. Later the police arrested George Peters, who claimed that he was attacked by Petkinish and other strikebreakers and simply acted in self-defence. Petkinish identified Peters as the man who stabbed him.

Nicholas Pappas, a strikebreaker, boarding at No. 26 Vivian place, was set on by six men, beaten about the head badly and left unconscious in the street. He was sent to Lynn Hospital, where several stitches were taken in his scalp.

Peter Bett of No. 67 Neptune street, another strikebreaker, was attacked near his boarding house. He was taken to the hospital, where the surgeons say his skull may be fractured. He is in a serious condition.

BIG BLIZZARD ON WAY HERE

The blizzard which is sweeping the West it is believed is headed East and will soon strike Boston. The official prediction for Boston is: "Clearing and much colder to-night. Wednesday fair and colder; light to moderate northerly to easterly winds."

The forecaster looks for a minimum temperature of from 16 to 24 degrees.

The full force of the blizzard is now felt in the West extending from Texas to Montana. Yesterday all records for quick fall of temperature was recorded in Dallas. Snow fell all day and last night the temperature had fallen to 10.

Helena, Mont., recorded 20 degrees below zero and no railroad trains are running near schedule time. The railroads are bending their efforts to ship coal. In Chicago to-day the temperature has fallen rapidly and snow is falling.

SOUTHWEST SWEPT BY GREAT BLIZZARD

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 12.—The worst blizzard and blinding snowstorm in years is raging throughout the Southwest. St. Louis's leading street car lines are completely tied up. Special dispatches from points in Western Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Illinois and Missouri tell of suffering to live stock and rapid decline of temperature.

In Austin, Texas, people are sleighing for the first time in ten years.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

John P. Reynolds, forty years old, bail commissioner and lawyer, with offices at No. 60 Court street, was found dead today in his bed at No. 91 Worcester street, South End, by his wife. He had been ill for some time.

VERY LATEST NEWS

[illegible] HIT FOUR CHILDREN; HANGS HIMSELF.

[illegible]

SUFFRAGETTES THREATEN HARDIE RECEPTION.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Keir Hardie, M. P., will lecture this evening at Carnegie Hall on "A revolution in British politics and its lessons to America." It is said that the suffragettes [illegible]

OVERTURNED CANDLE STARTS $[illegible] FIRE.

[illegible]

[illegible] CLUES IN THEFT OF CASH AND JEWELS.

The detectives from Station 3 are to-day working on the mysterious robbery at No. 43 Mt. Vernon street, the home office of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, where [illegible] bank books, a sum of money and several articles of [illegible] taken from a room on the top floor.

SURRENDERS AS ARMY DESERTER.

[illegible], forty-two years old, surrendered to the United States Marshal in the Federal building to-day, saying that he [illegible] from the army. He will be held until word is received from the Pacific Coast.

WOMAN FLEES HOTEL AS MAN TAKES HIS LIFE

Great mystery surrounds the death, supposed by the police to have been suicide caused by shooting, of Samuel Stanley Roberts, No. 16A Norwood avenue, Somerville, early to-day in a bathroom in the Hotel Plaza, Columbus avenue. The police are hunting for a woman whom they think may know something. She disappeared before the body was found.

Roberts left the following note addressed to the Medical Examiner:

> I bear no ill-will against anybody, but I think this the easiest way out of it. I intended to take cyanide of potassium, but I think this is better.

Roberts, who the hotel people say came to the place yesterday evening at 5:45 and registered "Mr. and Mrs. Hammond of New York," was found by a chambermaid seated in a chair in the bathroom, a bullet wound in his head. The note was found in the room he had occupied.

When the man asked for a room he was assigned to No. 75 on the third floor. Nothing further was heard from him, and when the chambermaid went to the room to-day she found that the bed had not been occupied. The bathroom door was opened, and when she stepped in she made the startling discovery.

The man, who is from thirty-five to forty years of age, was fully clad in a dark suit of good make and fine texture. He was refined in appearance and wore a mustache.

The police are looking for the woman registered as "Mrs. B. Hammond," but have not been able to find any trace of her.

Samuel S. Roberts of No. 16A Norwood avenue, Somerville, lived in the upper flat of the house, which is in his wife's name. He was employed by Day & Co., straw hat manufacturers of Boston. His wife, who works for a firm in the same line of business, was at her work to-day when the discovery of Roberts's strange death was made.

He has a thirteen-year-old daughter who is a pupil in the Somerville High School. The daughter was also in school, oblivious to the fate of her father.

Neighbors say that Mr. Roberts has, more than once, been heard to say that he was tired and sick of life; that there was nothing in it for him.

Medical Examiner William G. Macdonald, who viewed the body, said:

"It looks like a case of suicide. Towels had been arranged about the head, apparently for the purpose of catching the blood. I think that if it was murder the towels would have been disarranged.

"The handwriting on the note left to the coroner, is, I should say, like that on the register. The man's watch and money were in his pockets."

THE WEATHER

Clearing and much colder to-night. Wednesday continued cold. Northwest winds.

High tide—3:10 a. m.; 3:22 p. m.
Sun rises—7:12 a. m.; sets—4:33 p. m.
Moon rises—10:31.

"LET HAINS LIVE," PLEADS M'INTYRE

WOMEN WEEP AT ELOQUENCE OF ATTORNEY

Continued from First Page.

are now going to hear me offer the last plea in behalf of an unfortunate man, around whom some circumstances have been woven, easy, however, of satisfactory explanation. They work toward innocence, but they may, by a stretch of the imagination, be tortured in the direction of guilt. But you will be told where declarations, acts and circumstances point in two directions with equal consistency, the moral construction must be given. In other words, the moral must always be presumed rather than the immoral.

"Before discussing with minuteness the evidence in this case, it is my duty to say to you that you are the tryers of the facts. You are the sole judges of the evidence. No one on earth can question your determination based upon the facts.

"No one can invade your province. No man, no judge, not even this judge, dare tell you what you should or ought to do on the proofs here. The judge has simply to deal with the law. He cannot, nor should he, attempt to influence your conclusions, to be derived from the evidence. He is supreme only upon the law. You are supreme upon all questions of fact.

"It is for you to say, and no one else, whether this defendant is guilty or not guilty. It is for you to say whether he shall live or die, and die he must if you say through your foreman the word 'Guilty.'

'Thornton Hains loved his brother, and for that it would appear that he prosecution seeks to condemn him.

"Thornton the Keeper of His Brother."

"Thornton was the keeper of his brother; for that, too, now he seems to be condemned. Thornton Hains only protected his brother from the wrath of an infuriated mob.

"Let me say right here, nature is far above the evil passions of man. He tried to save his brother, not tempt him to do murder. This defendant has encountered the pelting of a merciless storm from conspiracy hatched in that room yonder at the Bayside Yacht Club, and half of which has been born in some fertile mind, seeking notoriety at the expense of a human life.

"This prosecution has altogether partaken too much of the nature and character of a private proceeding. Mr. White and Mr. Dayton have agreed to take compensation to send a man to his doom. It looks to me like blood money—a retainer for blood.

"This county has a public prosecutor. Its people selected him to prosecute. It is a part of his sworn duty, and he should personally have done that duty.

"I will call things and persons by their right names. I may strike hard blows, but they shall be fair ones.

"Cain, the elder brother, slew Abel, who was gentle and loving, and when God asked, 'Where is thy brother?' Cain answered, 'Am I my brother's keeper.'

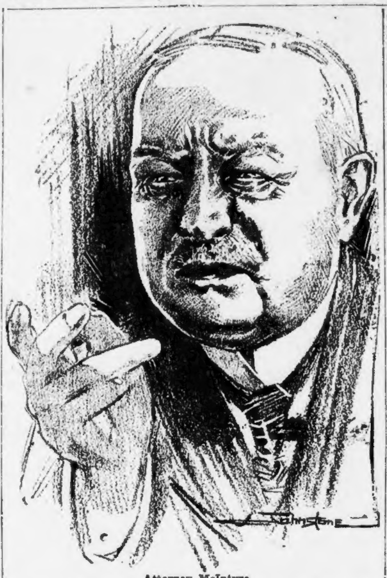
"How different is the situation in this case. The defendant is the paradox of Cain. He saved him from being slain. He loudly proclaimed he was the keeper of his brother.

Encaged in Steel Like a Ferocious Animal.

"It is for you to say, and no one else, whether this defendant is guilty or not guilty. It is for you to say whether he shall live or die. If you find him guilty, he must be led away, taken to a cage of steel, there encaged like a ferocious animal until his dread march begins to a chamber of horrors, a chamber of death, planned with the appliances used in legal atonement and then shocked and burned to death by an unseen agency, transforming one of God's creatures into an inanimate mass of seared and roasted flesh. Then follows too that dreadful autopsy in aid of science. The knife is drawn into a lifeless body. His heart will be taken from where nature placed it. His skull will be sawed, and then the brain will be sought for with vulture-like desire, and into its convolutions scientific inquiry will be made, and then all that there is left of what was once a man will be buried in mother earth.

"Thornton's aged father, his mother, too, have come to bring him home to his baby daughter, Mollie."

"Before discussing the evidence in detail, let me say that the killing of Annis was done by a madman. It was done by a man whose mind had been dismantled and dethroned by the conduct of a libertine. It was done by a man who was crazed when he learned that his home had been wrecked, ruined—his children deprived of the love and care of a mother. It was not prompted by Thornton—it was the impulsive act of a man crazed by grief.



Attorney McIntyre.
Sketched in Flushing Court by Artist Johnstone for the Boston American.

"We Demand That No Blood Be Drawn."

"You will be told by the State that Captain Hains was not insane. Now I tell you that the sight of his wife transformed him into another being. The prosecution will ask for the pound of flesh, but we in the name of God demand that no blood shall be drawn in this case, because no case has been made beyond a reasonable doubt. The people have tried to show he was rational. Do you believe that the recital of the frightful doings of Annis and Mrs. Hains was not sufficient to destroy the captain's mind? Melancholia seated herself beside the throne of reason, tainted and tortured his brain, accentuated his will and altered the emotions of his heart.

"When the captain was told of his wife's infidelity his eyeballs glowed with living fire, best described by the blind old man of the Iliad in his description of one of his heroes, and subsequently developing to an insane frency over which Captain Hains had no control.

"What man in this jury box, what man in this Commonwealth, after hearing the revolting revelations told in this trial, and what friend of Annis would be willing to raise him from the shadows below? Not one would, out of regard for the society in which we live. And while you jurors sit here as avengers of the death of that serpent, you would not restore him to life if you thought such could be done.

"How probable is the story of Andrews, Birchfield, Storms and others when under the sanctity of an oath they say they have no ill feeling to the defendant, when this defendant threatened to take their lives with an instrument of death, and when they say he acted with his brother in taking human life?"

"These same men confederated together and procured private counsel, meeting in this very courtroom, and all admitting they were bosom friends of the deceased. How improbable to say, as they do say, that down in the innermost recesses of their hearts no resentment lies. They are not frank when they say that they have no bias, and when they alone shade the facts one way or another.

"Birchfield does not hear the ominous words to Roberts. Andrews and Andrew's son do not hear a word said to the other or to any one else. Funke hears no declaration made by the defendant to any one, although he is there within a few feet of Thornton. Funke says he stepped back in his boat. Surely he did step backward, but in the natural way, and if he did his back was turned to the defendant and then he could see nothing behind him. When you come to consider the evidence in this case, you may ask yourselves this question:

"Glibness the Earmark of Perjured Testimony."

"Has there been framing; is there invention; has proof been manufactured? Was Andrews asked to forget the missing links? Andrews was a revengful man—vengeful as any witness I ever saw upon the stand. He was less frank than any. He testified, too, with an unmistakable glibness, and a gentleman by the name of Montague, writing his impressions of this trial, made what I regarded as a foreful comment, when he stated, 'Glibness is ever the earmark of perjured testimony.'

"I will now discuss the testimony which has been introduced in this case, and point out to you its improbabilities and uncertainties.

"The prosecution will say that Thornton Hains approved the killing of Annis. His approval forms no basis. Assuming for the purpose of this case that he merely mentally acquiesced in the killing of Annis. For that he is not guilty.

The Question of Unwritten Law.

It was with fine dramatic effect that Mr. McIntyre leaned forward over the counsel table, and pointing to each juror in turn, inquired if his brain would not succumb to stories such as the army officer had heard.

"It's not only the man in the South who believes in the sanctity of womanhood," thundered the lawyer, when he reached the question of the unwritten law.

"Men of the North believe in their women, and by your verdict, I ask you to show that belief," he continued. "Little did he think when at the command of his country, with the insignia of office on his breast; little did Captain Hains, the soldier, know as he went away, that Annis, the serpent, was creeping into his home."

Mr. McIntyre went on:

"Look up and into the eyes of each of the jurors," said the lawyer, turning to the defendant.

Thornton Hains raised his head. The tears welled to his eyes as he looked toward the men who will soon pass on the question of his guilt.

While Mr. McIntyre exclaimed to each juror, "Do you believe him guilty?" Thornton remained in this position.

"Witnesses Induced to Commit Perjury."

After an hour and a half, the lawyer got down to the evidence in the case. He began by finding flaws in Lawyer White's opening.

"If ever there was a piece of testimony with diabolical purpose—depriving a human being of the life God gave him—this is it. It was fiendish," almost shouted the lawyer, referring to parts of White's opening that had not been introduced in evidence.

"It was infamy, this introduction of the phrase, 'We've got him now,' as the brothers drove to the yacht club." Mr. McIntyre went on.

The lawyer grew red in the face and shook with emotion as he compared the highwayman and the burglar as high class men beside the lawyer who introduced such evidence.

He likened the case of the prosecution to a ship breaking up at sea, and declared that, to save it, the special assistants had brought in foreign matter.

"The story of Mrs. Annis is unqualifiedly false if the opening of Mr. White is true," he went on.

Proceeding to show that the opening declared that the widow rushed to the float only as Annis fell into the water, McIntyre read her testimony in which she said she started at the first shot.

Without mincing matters, McIntyre openly charged that Martin Skura, the hackman who drove the brothers to the club, had been induced to commit perjury by representatives of the State.

The lawyer worked himself up to a frenzy as he denounced the "manufacturing of evidence," as he termed it. He was in such a state that Justice Crane halted him before the regular hour for adjournment.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN BOSTON TO-NIGHT

Annual meeting Massachusetts Rifle Association at United States Hotel, 5.30 p. m.
Boston Jewellers' Club dinner at Young's, 6.30 p. m.
Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, U. S. N., lectures for the Infants' Hospital, Symphony Hall, 8 p. m.
Young Men's Catholic Association whist, Boston College Hall, 8 p. m.
Mrs. May Alden Ward on "Current Events," Women's Educational and Industrial Union, No. 264 Boylston street, 8 p. m.
Sacerdotal jubilee reception of Rev. Fr. Butler of St. Leo's Church, Dorchester, Intercolonial Hall, Roxbury, 8 p. m.
Montclair Social Club annual dancing party, Berkeley Hall, 8 p. m.
Hon Herbert Parker talks on "Administration of the Law," to Men's Club, Prospect Hill Congregational Church, Somerville, 8 p. m.
Annual banquet of Fitton Council, K. of C., Postoffice building, Central square, East Boston, 8 p. m.
Benefit concert for earthquake sufferers, by choir of St. Leonard of Port Maurice, Bennet Street School Hall, 8 p. m.
Prof. Charles E. Fay lectures on "The Explorations of the Duke of the Abruzzi," for Italy's earthquake sufferers, Y. M. C. A. Hall, No. 458 Boylston street, 8 p. m.
Congressman Frank Plumley of Vermont at Arlington Boat Club, 8 p. m.
Common Council, special meeting, 8 p. m.
Naomi Lodge annual dance, Paul Revere Hall, 8 p. m.
Ex-Governor John L. Bates and William B. de Las Casas address Melrose Club, Melrose City Hall, 8 p. m.
Boxing contests at Armory A. A., evening.
Dance for aid of Dorchester Free Home Consumptives, Institute Hall, East Cambridge, 8 p. m.
Francis Parkman Parents' Association meets, Patten street schoolhouse, Forest Hills, 8 p. m.
Colonel John E. Gilman speaks at "Lincoln service," Dudley Street Baptist Church, 8 p. m.
Homer V. Sullivan gives concert at Catholic Sailors' Club, Charlestown, 8 p. m.
Holy Name Society of Immaculate Conception Church meets Boston College Gymnasium to arrange for Holy Name parade, 8 p. m.
B. H. Clayton speaks on "Movements of the Atmosphere," Boston Scientific Society, Copley square, 8 p. m.
Home Club "Guest Night," Chapman School Hall, 8 p. m.
Master House Painters and Decorators give reception to ladies, American House, 8 p. m.
E. A. Thomas on "The San Francisco Quake" at Wells Memorial, 8 p. m.
Washington Lodge, N. E. O. P., installation at Rathbone Hall, 8 p. m.
Postal Clerks Union at Mechanics building, 8 p. m.
Desmond FitzGerald lectures on "Nature," illustrated, at Peirce Grammar school, Brookline, 8 p. m.
Women's Auxiliary, I. S. and E. M., dance at Catholic Union Hall, 9 p. m.

Good as Gold

Business is often so exacting that a man neglects his health to meet the strenuous demands of his calling. A confined, sedentary life is productive of constipation, stomach, bowel and liver troubles, with the attendant symptoms of sick headache, sour, bloated stomach, nausea, indigestion, tired feeling, sleeplessness, defective memory, want of ambition and despondence. If afflicted I earnestly appeal to you to go to your drugstore and get a 30 days' treatment of Dr. Burkhart's Vegetable Compound. If expected results do not follow forward me the empty box and I shall return the money, or, if you do not feel justified in making the outlay, treatment sent free. I ask only for the privilege to cure you—an opportunity afforded you with better security than if you purchased Government bonds, as it pays more than 500 per cent. dividends in good health. Dr. W. S. Burkhart, Station R, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

GOOD FOR ONE VOTE
BOSTON AMERICAN
BALLOT
EUROPEAN TOUR
NAME
ADDRESS
SUNDAY SCHOOL
VOTE

BIG SHAKE-UP OF LEADERS IN TOUR CONTEST

COUPON PARTIES.

TO-NIGHT—Subscription and coupon party at No. 11 Patterson street, Dorchester, for Ida M. Ebsary of Chelsea.
TO-MORROW NIGHT—Coupon and subscription party at Lyceum Hall, East Boston, for James F. Winston of East Boston.
JANUARY 20—Dancing party at Town Hall, Revere, for Margaret M. Better of Revere.
JANUARY 25—Whist party at Pythian Hall, Chelsea, for Anna Morley of Chelsea.
JANUARY 27—Subscription and coupon party at Marie Hall, Malden, for Maurice R. Flynn of Malden.
FEBRUARY 18—Dancing party at Grand Army Hall, Chelsea, for Ida M. Ebsary of Chelsea.

The fur flew in lively fashion yesterday in District No. 4—Malden, Medford and Melrose—in the BOSTON AMERICAN'S big European Tour Contest for Sunday school teachers.

It was a day of rapid-fire voting and many changes.

William Cooper of Universalist Church, Malden, who has been in the contest only two weeks, jumped from the bottom of his district to the ranks of the leaders, going well toward the top. Friends sent word to the European Tour Department that more would be heard from him in a few days.

Miles Greenwood of Melrose Congregational Church went ahead of Miss Mary Mahoney, a teacher in the Sunday School of the Sacred Heart Church, Malden.

Contests in Other Districts.

A. E. Scott of the Robinson M. E. Church, Malden, wrested seventh place in the district away from Miss Jennie Ivester of Melrose Highlands Baptist Church.

Miss Ernestine Atwood of the Unitarian Church, Melrose, polled within 400 votes of Miss Winifred Sawyer of the Highlands Congregational Church, the same place.

FORAKER HURLS NEW BROADSIDE AT ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—"Iniquitous and unholy work," is the way in which Senator Foraker characterizes the efforts of Herbert J. Browne and William G. Baldwin, the special detectives employed by the President to fasten the guilt of the "shooting up" of Brownsville upon the colored soldiers of the Twenty-fifth Infantry.

Senator Foraker in his speech in the Senate to-day not only denounced as "atrocious lies" the reports that these men had secured confessions from any of the discharged soldiers, but contended that their employment was in violation of law and that all payments to them, amounting to $15,000, were invalid.

The speech consisted mainly of an argument in favor of the discharged battalion, a charge that the President had no authority of law to discharge the soldiers, and an arraignment of the President for his action in the latter.

"Most Disgraceful Crime."

While not as full of scathing references to the chief executive as was that of Senator Tillman yesterday, the speech criticised President Roosevelt in severe terms.

Senator Foraker produced letters from several of the discharged soldiers saying that men had approached them, claiming to come from him, asking for the true facts about the Brownsville affair, and that, in the case of Boyd Conyers, they had "fabricated a story of confession and attempted suicide, which was a base falsehood from beginning to end, as has now been completely and fully shown."

"In all the history of crime and its detection, nothing more atrocious, disputable and disgraceful has ever been recorded," he declared.

Discussing the President's employment of the detectives, Mr. Foraker said that "it cannot be fittingly characterized without the use of language which, if employed, might appear to be disrespectful to the chief executive.

"Oblivious to Laws of Decency."

"It does not lessen the gravity of his (the President's) offence," he continued, "that it appears to be imperceptible to him; or if not so, he has become utterly oblivious to all the restraints of law, decency and propriety in his mad pursuit of these helpless victims of his ill considered action.

"I do not hesitate to say that in my opinion, aside from the question whether there has been a misappropriation of public funds, no precedent for anything so shocking can be found in all the history of American criminal jurisprudence.

"Because Browne and Baldwin induced the President to pay them money out of the public treasury upon the theory that they were rendering legitimate service when they were not," he said, "each and every payment to them seemingly constitutes a clear case of obtaining money under false pretences, and I call the attention of the law officers of the government to the fact as well as to the perjury that has been committed, in order that they may institute appropriate prosecutions."

ALDERMEN FAIL TO ELECT CHAIRMAN

The Board of Aldermen will make another attempt to-morrow night to elect a chairman, but none of the members has any expectation that the attempt will be any more successful than the attempt of yesterday, when they took ten ballots without any selection. An attempt to adopt rules which would allow the acting chairman to appoint committees was defeated.

HIBBARD WELCOMES MASTER PAINTERS

Members of the Society of Master House Painters and Decorators of Massachusetts assembled in the banquet hall of the American House to-day for the eighteenth annual convention. The convention was called to order to-day by President Milo D. Clay of Lowell. Mayor Hibbard extended the welcome. The election of officers takes place Thursday.

COURT OF CANADA AND UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—A court which will practically settle all disputes that may arise between this country and Canada is the result of the agreement that has jus been signed by Secretary Root for United States and Ambassador Bryce Great Britain. It is known as the "W ways Treaty" and the work of dra it up has taken many years.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
Only One "BROMO QUININE," that is Laxative Bromo Quinine
Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days
E. W. Grove on every box. 25c

Our 58th Birthday Sale
Continues All Day Wednesday
THE 951 LOTS
(Details of which were given in the papers of Monday evening and Tuesday morning)
Are Still Practically Intact
We consider the values in this sale the best we have ever offered in our fifty-eight years of business life.
Jordan Marsh Company

Dr. Greene's NERVURA BLOOD & NERVE REMEDY

Dejected Men

Has your strength given out? Are you nervous, discouraged, and dejected? Have you toiled to your limit until your work has become a burden? There is no need of suffering needlessly any longer when sure relief is at hand. If you have made one error do not make another by delaying to consult Dr. Greene, 34 Temple Place, Boston, Mass. His advice is free.

Dr. Greene is the well known medical lecturer and eminent specialist in the treatment of all nervous and chronic diseases. Remember that Dr. Greene himself receives and examines all patients who call at his office and answers all letters to those who write.

Dr. Greene is the proprietor of that well known remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura. It cures all diseases of the nervous system and all disorders arising from an impure and impoverished state of the blood. It cures that all run down condition, revitalizes the blood, builds strength and vigor and vital energy in man or woman. It restores sweet sleep and good appetite and makes life worth living.

Dr. Greene's Nervura is "the survival of the fittest" in blood and nerve medicines and stands preeminent as the one great cure before the public. It is sold by all druggists.

Dr. Greene's Nervura has an authentic record of thousands of cures of men, women and children all over the country.

Remember that you can consult Dr. Greene free personally at his office, 34 Temple Place, Boston, Mass., or by letter.

Soothe and Heal the Raw Surfaces Caused by Catarrh

Do not apply violent snuffs, sprays, douches—to irritate, smart and burn the inflamed mucous membrane. Remove the cause—the Catarrh germs which cannot live when Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly has been applied to the raw, affected surfaces—soothes, heals, prevents abnormal discharges—cures.

KONDON'S CATARRHAL JELLY

Brings instant relief from every catarrhal complication—Hay Fever, Asthma, Catarrhal Headache, Sore Throat, Deafness, Stomach Trouble, etc. It has cured millions. It will cure you. write today. Send for free sample of

Ask Your Druggist or Doctor and procure a 25c or 50c tube for constant use—a speedy, permanent and safe cure. 30,000 druggists sell it and recommend it because it cures and contains no harmful drug. If your dealer hasn't it, write to Kondon Mfg. Company Minneapolis, Minn.

25¢ and 50¢ Tubes

The Busiest Corner on Boston's Busiest Street
James A. Housto Company
P. H. Magrane, Pres. P. B. Magrane, Treas.
Annual Demonstration Sale —OF THE—
E. C. Skuffer
Children's, Misses' and Youths' Shoes

At ½ Price
A Complete Assortment and Every Pair Guaranteed Perfect.
Children's $1.75 and $2.00 Shoes in patent and vici, sizes, children's 6 to misses' 12. $1.00
Misses' and Youths' $2.00 and $2.50 Shoes in patent and gunmetal, all sizes up to 2. $1.25
$2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 High-cut Napoleon tan and patent, all sizes, children's 6 to misses' 2. $1.50
Line of Skuffer Samples, not all sizes in any one kind, but all sizes in the large variety.
Standard cut........$1.00
High cut........$1.50
The most important shopping events in Boston this week are at the James A. Houston Company in FURS, COATS, OSTRICH PLUMES and SMALLWARES, in addition to the extraordinary Clearance Sale of all Winter—1909—stocks.

A&P A&P
"EXTRA"
DOUBLE STAMPS
Every Day Until Noon at Our Two Down-Town Stores,
92 Court Street and 239 Tremont Street
50 Stamps Free with 50c Worth Tea or Coffee
Pure Leaf Lard, per lb....12c
Peanut Butter, "Heides," lb. 11c
A.&P. Corn Starch, 1-lb. pkg. .5c
We sell the Best Creamery Butter in the World, per lb., 30c
CHOICE EGGS AT COST
THE Gt. Atlantic & Pacific TEA CO.
Largest Tea, Coffee and Grocery House in the World.
325 Stores in the United States.

The Originator of the unique places in Boston to dine Maintains its prestige
RATHSKELLER
New American House

TO-NIGHT Cascarets
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP
10c 25c 50c. All Druggists

Double Legal Stamps will be given with every purchase mornings until 12 o'clock noon at Wolf's, "My Clothier," corner Hanover and Portland streets. Single stamps thereafter.

BEECHAM'S PILLS
For the Stomach's Sake

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

'JIM' DONOVAN PREDICTS 'BOSTON'S NEXT MAYOR WILL BE REAL DEMOCRAT'

Hon. James Donovan, elected president of the Democratic City Committee last night, says that the Democracy is sure to elect the next Mayor of Boston. He says that the next Mayor will be the choice of the voters who go to the primaries and that nobody can force a nomination that the rank and file don't want. He says that the next city administration will not only be by Democrats, but of the kind that will insure Home Rule for Boston.

Mr. Donovan talked about the party future to-day in his home at No. 71 Emerald street. It is a modest two-story frame house nearly opposite a schoolhouse. All around is a tenement house district. It is a neighborhood where he has lived all his life. When he got to be a big party leader he did not move away to a fashionable suburb or the Back Bay.

"Old Ward 9 is my home," said Donovan, "and there's no place like home to me, and there are no neighbors like those who were mine where I was a boy."

Donovan is now the head of the party organization. He has held the office before. When he was asked to-day by a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter about the political situation, he said:

"Voters Will Name Mayor."

"The city organization for this year is now in working order and in December a Democrat will be elected Mayor. Who he will be I don't know. I only know he will be the man who is nominated at the primaries. Nobody will name him except the voters.

"Any man who wants the nomination can go after it. If the majority of Democratic voters want him for the party candidate he will get the nomination.

"No candidate will get the nomination because he is picked by any one man or any clique of men. He will have to be the choice of the party. That is all there is to that.

"Ward leaders may have their preferences. They undoubtedly will have them. But there is not a leader in Boston to-day who can force a mayoralty candidate upon the rank and file of the party. They are the voters and the voters are supreme.

"I am sure that a Democrat will be the next mayor because Boston is a Democratic city. It is strongly Democratic. When the party is united no Republican or fusion candidate can be elected.

"Party Will Be United."

"The Democratic party will be united at the polls on the next city election day because the party will nominate the candidate that the majority of the voters really want.

"When the majority of the voters vote for a man no one faction and no district leader should repudiate the will of the party expressed at the polls. One of the fundamental principles of the Democracy is the will of the majority.

"Since the Democratic party has been the majority party in Boston no Republican has ever been elected Mayor twice in succession. At the next election history will repeat itself and a Democrat will be elected.

Best Administration.

"As president of the Democratic City Committee I am going to try to do my official duty for the benefit of the whole party. I am the executive head of an organization which represents the whole party and no faction of it. It is an office I have held before, and I am not new to it.

"It is an onerous position, and the man who holds it is under obligation to work unselfishly and untiringly for the good of the whole party. I intend to do this.

"The Democrats will elect the next Mayor and will give Boston the best administration it has ever known. It will not be an administration which makes goats out of humble city employes."

QUAKE STARTS VOLCANO, ROCKS PACIFIC COAST

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 12.—Efforts to re-establish communication with Nome, Dawson and Valdez, Alaska, are being made to-day by the telegraph cable companies to enable the government authorities to ascertain the amount of damage done there by the earthquake shocks which shook the Seirra Madre Mountains from Tacoma, Wash., to points in the far North.

With the shock in Washington State late yesterday came the reports from outlying districts that 800 miles of mountain ranges had heaved and rocked in three distinct quakes. Mount Baker, the tourists' landmark, belched fire and smoke. To-day the mountain gives forth acrid fumes and the crater of the century extinct volcano is full of red hot lava.

At Bellingham, Wash., the citizens were panic-stricken when the first shock occurred. Hundreds rushed into the streets. Walls cracked, chimneys toppled and tall towers swayed. At Blaine buildings of stone were rocked and in some cases badly cracked. At Port Townsend windows were shattered by the score, roofs fell in and a panic ensued. Troops from the fort helped quiet the screaming women. The seige guns mounted in the fortifications settled on their swivels. In Tacoma two distinct shocks were felt. At Everett reports state the shock lasted eleven seconds.

British Columbia felt the shock severely. In Victoria, people ran about the streets with the vivid pictures of the San Francisco earthquake still fresh in their memories.

At Vancouver, the fishing fleet in harbor for the Winter, was swept from its moorings and carried into the bay.

News from points further north was cut off when the Alaska cable went down at dark last night. Up to that time flashes told of damage by earthquake extending from Fairbanks through the interior country of lower Alaska.

Government instruments record two shocks extending for an area of 800 miles, longitudinally.

SOCIETY BELLE ARTIST'S BRIDE

FALL RIVER, Jan. 12.—Miss Diana Grenon, one of the most pretty and popular society girls of this city, and Marc Thuot, the well-known artist of this city, Newport and New York, are to-day being followed by the congratulations of hundreds of their friends upon their marriage, which took place yesterday in St. Ann's Church.

The wedding was one of the most fashionable events which have taken place here in years and the large church, which had been elaborately decorated for the occasion, was well filled with friends and relatives of the couple.

The bridesmaids were Misses Jeanie Crosson, Jeannette Grenon, Josephine Grenon and Blanche Pelletier. The ushers were Messrs. Romeo Tournier, Herman Boivin, Raymond Sartini and aJmes Parent.

PRODUCE MEN PROTEST NEW STREET RULES

Two hundred members of the Boston Fruit and Produce Exchange met to-day in their headquarters in Faneuil Hall Market to protest against certain sections in the new street traffic regulations. President Batchelder presided.

George A. Cochrane, a butter and eggs dealer, and Daniel Sweeney, a Clinton street produce merchant, indulged in some personalities, and a motion not to allow Sweeney to speak because he was not a member of the exchange failed. Cochrane called Sweeney "an interloper."

Sweeney favored immediate action and wanted the complaints brought before the Legislature rather than the street commissioner, while Cochrane, who scored him, advised moderation and delay and to let things go along a month and work themselves out.

Cochrane declared that many of the market men who were loudest in calling for a modification of the new rules were the worst offenders, and that they blockaded the market district with their wagons and interfered with thousands of people.

Finally it was voted that the chair appoint a committee of eight to wait on the street commissioner with the protest against certain regulations, notably among them the six-minute clause.

WANT L TRAINS IN OLD SUBWAY

To secure rapid transit for Boston, representative Scollay square business men perfected the organization of the Boston Public Transit Improvement Association, adopted resolutions calling on the Legislature to correct the defects in the present system and discussed a petition which will ask of the Legislature that the old subway be again used for "L" trains. Action on this petition was left to the executive committee, including Alexander McGregor, Henry Goodwin, A. F. Goodwin, George A. McLean and Charles E. Clift.

Henry C. Brine, who acted as chairman of the meeting, declared a very serious mistake was made in the attempt of the Elevated to solve the rapid transit problem. Thomas H. Dowd called the condition of the elevated system a disgrace to the community. "The system is a menace to the moral welfare of men and women," he said. John D. Bryant said the city is "subway crazy." Other speakers included ex-Senator John H. Colby, Henry Goodwin and Abram Bamber, who introduced resolutions calling for further action by the Legislature.

MAYOR TOM JOHNSON, 'BROKE,' IN $135 FLAT

CLEVELAND, Jan. 12.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson, who, two months ago, when his bank closed its doors, announced he 'was "broke," is in possession of a nine-room suite, with two baths, and an auto garage, in the Knickerbocker. The rental is $135 a month, and the Mayor's lease is for a year, with renewal option.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

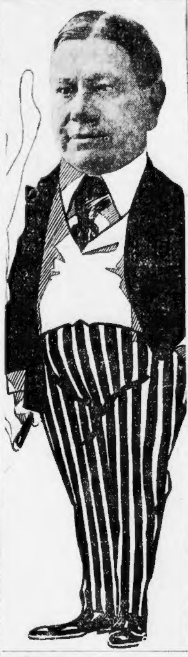
The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments, and endanger the health of Children—Experience against Experiment.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

James Donovan, Democratic City Committee Head



APPEAL PFAFF WILL CONTEST

Mrs. Christine Pfaff of London, England, is to make another attempt to get some of the $300,000 left by the late Henry Pfaff, Jr., to Mrs. Louise C. Pfaff and her two children in spite of the decision against her in the Probate Court of Cambridge.

To-day her lawyer, Frank Gaylord Cook, filed a notice declaring that he proposed to appeal from the decision of Judge Charles J. McIntyre, who decided against the London woman in her attempt to break the will.

Local Briefs

Mrs. James H. Doyle was thrown from a train at the Ocean Spray station of the Narrow Gauge Road as she attempted to alight and was painfully injured.

Walter Anderson, said to be a son of former Governor Hugh J. Anderson of Maine, was found unconscious in a doorway at No. 62 Commercial street. He had a cerebral hemorrhage and was taken to the Relief Hospital.

David J. Ranney, the Bowery evangelist, induced 150 young men to pledge themselves against "booze" at the Glendale Church, Everett.

Chief James R. Hopkins, who has served fifty years in the Somerville Fire Department, says he is willing to retire, but won't quit under fire. He is angered by the criticism of Mayor Woods.

The Supreme Court has handed down a decision that a man and a woman cannot mutually terminate their marriage. It is a contract for life not to be set aside.

A hundred operators of the G. A. Walton factory, Chelsea, have gone on strike. They want 20 per cent. increase in wages.

A double team driven by Angus Cameron and owned by the Neponset River Coal Company went through a plate glass window in Pemberton square, and it took 20 minutes to get them out.

Abbott F. Rose, a Pittsburg provision company bookkeeper, is arraigned in court to-day, charged with stealing $1,026 from his employers.

Judge Murray has sentenced Geo. Fee, a young expressman who stole packages from market district dealers, to two months on each of nine counts.

Roland Hobson of Merrimac, fifteen years old, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Hayes, on a charge of stealing $10 from the Merrimacport postoffice. He bought an air rifle with the money.

About People You Know

PRESIDENT-ELECT TAFT made an address in Georgia in which he spoke of the need of respect for the Supreme Court and the weight and importance people should give to its decisions.

CHARLES J. GLIDDEN gave a lecture for the benefit of the Burnap Home for Aged Women at the Hotel Somerset on "The World and the People as Seen from a Motor Car." About $1,000 was raised.

PRESIDENT WILLIAM W. HUNTINGTON of Boston University told his trustees that 150 out of 197 men enrolled in the School of Theology are college graduates. Other classes show increased attendance.

THE REV. FATHER JAMES J. CASSIDY has been made vicar-general for the diocese of Fall River by Bishop Feehan. It was his work largely which swung Fall River in the no-license column.

MRS. CUNEO IN LANCIA RACER SETS HOT PACE

By VIOLA RODGERS.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Joan Newton Cuneo of New York, who rushed her Lancia four-cylinder car into this city an hour and ten minutes ahead of schedule time in the women's two-day auto run from New York and return, to-day started back to the metropolis, followed by the fourteen other fair contestants, confident that she would again smash all women's records and maybe those of the men.

The game little woman with the famous Lancia which Hilliard drove when he won his Savannah race, went over the course yesterday with a whirl which kept the official and pace-making cars busy keeping up, and when this city was reached yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock everyone knew that a great race had been half won.

When she reached North Broad street Mrs. Cuneo deemed it advisable to wait for the others who followed, and it was half an hour later before the first car came in sight with Mrs. A. W. Seaman of Brooklyn in a chauffeur's seat in a Franklin car.

Then in lapses of five and ten minutes came the rest. Mrs. Alice H. Ramsey of Hackensack, driving a Maxwell, with her friend, Miss Hermine Johns; Mrs. Evelyn M. Buckman and a party of two ladies; Miss Milfred B. Schawlach and Miss Ida Goodell; Miss Bertha Rittwetzer of Huntington, L. I., in a Maxwell; Miss Alice D. Hayes of Brielle, N. J.; Mrs. J. G. Kirkman of Brooklyn in a Maxwell; Mrs. Anna C. Bach of Newark, also at a Maxwell wheel, and Miss Gresh of Morristown in the same make of car.

Yes, the Colonel with all his chivalry and gallantry prepared to save the bloom on his cheek by means of a closed car, while Mrs. Cuneo and the others required theirs in the clean sweet stretches of open country air.

"It only goes to show that men are either more vain of their looks than we are, or haven't our courage," pretty little Miss Ramsey, voted the "beauty" of the motorists, commented.

But the colonel didn't mind the chiding after getting through the wobbly stone- and remained under cover. The first stop, paved streets of Jersey City, was at Newark.

The route was taken over the old Harrison turnpike, which had merely put on its best bib and tucker, for its course was in prime condition.

Harry A. Fosdick of the Lancia cars commented that the road was never better, for he has been over the old turnpike ty or more times, he told me.

At Newark the first check-off was made, and everybody got out of their cars and were given the freedom of the New Jersey Automobile and Motor Club.

Here pretty little pennant badges were distributed to the motorists as souvenirs.

Mrs. Joan Cuneo, Who Is After Record in Ladies' Auto Race

TODAY'S CABLE NEWS From All the World Up to 5 O'Clock, London Time

Sultan Accepts Austria's $10,800,000.

LONDON.—Dispatches from Constantinople state that Grand Vizier Kiamil Pasha has notified Austrian Minister Pallavicini that Turkey accept Austria's indemnity offer of $10,800,000.

Sperry to Pay Visit to King.

ROME—Rear-Admiral Sperry will call on King Victor Emmanuel next Thursday. General Mazza, commander at Messina, wired to-day that health conditions there are improving.

Death or a Million, Warn Bandits.

BAKU, Russia—Unless a million ruble ransom is paid for the release of Mursa Tagejiff, a Tartar millionaire manufacturer, kidnapped by Persian bandits, the hostage will be killed, according to an anonymous communication received to-day by the police.

British Officer Weds Show Girl.

LONDON—The marriage of Reginald Bruce and Addie Lewis, a member of a musical comedy company, is announced. Bruce is a cousin of the Hon. Henry Bruce, heir of Lord Aberdare, who married Camille Clifford, an American actress.

Hepburn's Canal Hopes.

HAVANA—Congressman Hepburn, on his way home from the Panama Canal, stopped off here. He is optimistic about the big ditch and says it will be ready to pass ships from sea to sea if necessary within four years.

Japs Again Aroused.

TOKIO—The Japanese newspapers are again bitterly commenting on pending bills in the California Legislature barring their "children" from the public schools in that State and forbidding them to own land.

May Accept Austria's Offer.

CONSTANTINOPLE—The Turkish government has sent a reply to Austria on the offer of $10,000,000 to pay the Sultan's sovereign claims on Bosnia an Herzegovina. It is believed to be an acceptance.

$225,000,000 Loan for Russia.

PARIS—M. Davidoff, chief of the Russian government's department of credit operations, is here to complete the loans of $225,000,000 just authorized by the Duma.

Wright in Cherbourg.

CHERBOURG—Orville Wright and his sister, Miss Katherine Wright, have arrived here from America. Mr. Wright said he will not try any flights, but rather work to perfect his aerodromes.

Look Up Death Story.

LONDON—The lawyers for the family of Miss Violet Gordon Charlesworth, whose recent disappearance has caused unusual public interest, have issued a statement in which they say they have examined the young woman's sister, Miss Lillian Charlesworth, and her chauffeur at length and are convinced that they are telling the truth.

Seven Drown as Ships Crash.

SINGAPORE—The French liner Polynesian ran down and sank the Dutch steamship Djamdi at the wharf here to-day. Seven natives were drowned. The Polynesian proceeded on her way.

Promise Reform for Jews.

HELSINGFORS, Finland—A committee of the Senate is making efforts to bring about reform in the conditions under which Hebrews live in Finland.

Kick Over Pekin Telegraph Office.

PEKIN—The diplomatic corps has protested to the Chinese government the board of communications taking control of the Pekin telegraph office, which the government in 1901 agreed should be under foreign superintendence.

DEATH PENALTY DEBATE.

District-Attorney John J. Higgins of Middlesex county defeated James H. Vahey before an audience of the Tremont Temple Men's League in Lorimer Hall in a debate, in which Mr. Vahey advocated the abolition of the death penalty in Massachusetts.

Filene's
Washington and Winter Streets

Filene's
Washington and Winter Streets

Filene's
Washington and Winter Streets

Filene's
Washington and Winter Streets

A New Kind of Store

The New Tunnel Bargain Basement Now Open

Enter Tunnel Entrance direct from Tunnel Trains at Winter Street Station, or our Washington or Winter Street Entrances.

A New Kind of Store—Every article in every department every day an extraordinary bargain.

A New Kind of Store—With a new automatic system of low prices.

A New Kind of Store—In which everything is sold out quickly — or given away.

Women's, Misses', Girls' and Infants' Furnishings in the New Tunnel Bargain Basement went on sale Monday, January 4, for the first time, and will be on sale every day hereafter at the most extraordinary values that Boston has yet enjoyed; every day—week after week.

The First Price Will Probably Sell Out the Lot the First Day

By any chance should part of a lot remain unsold at the end of two weeks then begins the automatic reductions, as follows:

Beginning 3rd Week—¼ Reduction
Should any be left beginning 4th Week—½ Reduction
Should any be left beginning 5th Week—¾ Reduction
Should any be left beginning 6th Week—Given Away

This is the automatic price reduction.

Nothing can stay in this new store longer than five weeks.

☞ The chances are, however, that the first price will be so extraordinary there will be little left to reduce by this extreme method.

NOTE: Every sale ticket will be stamped with the date the article was received so that it will be very clear just what the proper reduction should be in every instance.

The Kind of Goods You Will Find Here:

Imported and American Models and Samples (from time to time)
Manufacturers' Surplus Stocks
Ends of Fine and Popular Materials made up into Filene Styles
Auction Lots
"Seconds" of well known qualities
High Grade Factory Clearances

Some big lots—some small lots—bought as the chances of trade may offer, making possible the most extraordinary kind of a store—as may be judged from this advertisement, because out of all the makers and factories—big and little—there are always a number who have left-over lots—cancelled orders, etc., which it pays to sell out quickly at any price they can get for cash.

The Tunnel Bargain Basement is ready every day to buy desirable merchandise for cash and to sell it in a few days at a small profit. If it doesn't sell in a few days at a small profit, then it must be sold at a loss—It must be sold quickly—That is the system of the new store. Your assurance that the first price will be an extraordinary one lies in the fact that we make a little profit by making it low enough to sell the article the first day it goes on sale, otherwise we take a loss.

Mark-Down Lots from Regular Departments—In addition to the New Purchases of special lots—odd pieces, models, discontinued numbers, etc.—will be sent to the Tunnel Bargain Basement Store after the Opening Days.

The Filene Guarantee—Notwithstanding the extraordinary price system, nothing will be bought for or sold in this new store that is not up to our standard. Every article, no matter how low the price, will carry the Filene guarantee of dependable quality.

No Other Store In the World Like This:

BECAUSE It is SOLELY and ENTIRELY a Bargain and Mark-Down Store, yet every article sold is warranted of dependable quality.

BECAUSE It is not a store of bargain odds and ends of everything — useless knickknacks—but it is a Strict Specialty store, selling only Bargains in Women's, Misses' and Infants' Clothing and Furnishings of reliable quality.

BECAUSE It handles nothing which is not SACRIFICED for some proper reason—such as manufacturer's surplus, a factory's clearance, a buyer's samples, a retailer's overstock, etc. Nothing but what is SACRIFICED.

BECAUSE It is the only store in Boston where the prices are AUTOMATIC! THEY REDUCE THEMSELVES! This policy means great losses unless the original prices are so low that every article can be sold within a fortnight.

BECAUSE It is in direct competition with our regular depts. It has its own staff of buyers. They buy exclusively for "FILENE'S TUNNEL BARGAIN BASEMENT." Their sole duty is to maintain a constant stream of BARGAINS coming and going every day in the year.

BECAUSE The lots will move VERY FAST. The first to come will have the pick. The last to come may find nothing left in some departments. Nowhere is immediate purchasing so imperative.

Bulletin for Wednesday, Jan. 13:

AMONG MANY OTHER LOTS NOT ADVERTISED

Women's 7.50 princess dresses, at 3.95
Women's 1.00 silk elastic belts (embossed), at 39c
Girls' 7.50 to 12.50 (of which more than ½ are 12.50 values) worsted, cheviot, and mixture coats, at 3.75
Children's 30c woolen leggins at 19c
Women's 1.50 corset covers, lace and embroidery trimmed, at 95c
Women's 1.00 drawers, embroidery trimmed, lace flounce, at 69c
Infants' 1.50 and 1.75 guimpe and hubbard dresses, at 95c
Women's 50c Swiss ribbed vests at 29c
Girls' 25c cashmere stockings, merino heel and toe, at 15c
Women's 1.00 velvet pendants at 29c

JOY FOR ALL IN FOLLOWING CHRIST'S WAY

A sense of inward joy repays one for the rebuffs that attend those who attempt to live as Jesus would. This is the conclusion of Miss Ada Ludick, private secretary of Frank Rockefeller, one of the 10,000 of the young people of Cleveland, who have pledged themselves to try and follow as closely as they may the footsteps of Christ.

Miss Ludick told the interesting story of the girl who expected to lose her position because she refused to tell a man over the 'phone that her employer was out, at his request, when he was in. The girl was not discharged. And, more than that, she was not ordered to tell a similar lie again. Miss Ludick said:

In Christ's Footsteps.

"While not professing to be any example at all of the saintly character that should be developed in every Christian, I do profess the faith of Jesus and ask to walk as nearly as I may in his footsteps. I fall many times, for the proper walk of a Christian is not an easy path.

"The two weeks' resolution is grand and those who started it are to be commended for their work. It is better still if it achieve its purpose—to lead all or even some to make it, as they should, a matter for eternity.

"Every true Christian, who, with conscientious effort, has endeavored recently to do as he believed Jesus would do, and who has striven to walk circumspectly in his steps, must have experienced a sense of inward joy; the joy springing from a heart filled with noble intentions, and from a mind concentrated on higher, holier thoughts and aspirations.

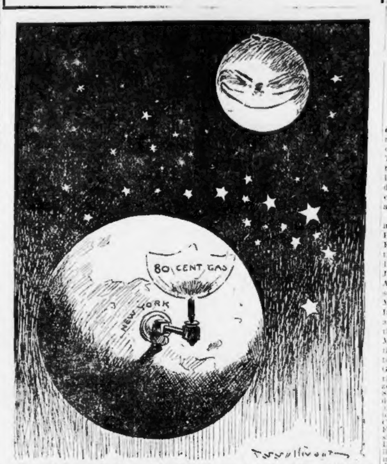
Refuse to Lie.

"A few days ago I noticed a comment on the experience of a young woman stenographer who had taken the pledge required in the 'Jesus movement,' and who had broken her vow through a sense of loyalty to her employer, he having instructed her to inform an inquirer over the telephone that he was 'not in.'

"The inference seemed to be that in business it is impossible to live the Christ life. I think the young woman made a serious mistake, to say the least, in telling the falsehood her employer required. Loyalty to one's employer is a good and commendable thing, but we who have taken on ourselves the name of the Master owe a higher allegiance, and 'first things first.' Far better that we lose our 'jobs' than that we lose our integrity of character. Let me tell you an incident which occurred in this city, in one of our big downtown office buildings:

"A stenographer was holding her first 'job,' had been at work only a few weeks, when, in answering the telephone for her employer one day, he said, 'Tell him I'm not in.' She declined to tell the inquirer the required lie. She expected to be discharged, but the dismissal did not come. Furthermore, she was never again asked to make a false statement."

AT LAST



New York has finally caught up with Boston in the matter of lighting. The long fight for eighty-cent gas has been won largely through the efforts of the New York American.

REQUIEM MASS FOR C. J. FORD

The funeral of Cornelius J. Ford, for twenty-six years a clerk in the Boston Postoffice, was held to-day from his home, No. 349 West Fourth street, South Boston. High mass of requiem was chanted at St. Vincent's Church. Rev. James B. Troy, pastor of the church, was the celebrant, Rev. John Lyons, deacon, and Rev. William Grant, sub-deacon. Vicar-General George J. Patterson, formerly pastor of St. Vincent's Church, and Rev. P. B. Murphy, rector of the Church of the Rosary, were in the sanctuary. The pall-bearers were Edward T. Galvin, S. P. Lucet, D. A. Hartwell, Edward Connors, Charles Carroll, James T. Coughlin, Joseph A. Lyons and Thomas Downs. Mr. Ford is survived by a widow and son, Attorney Francis J. Ford, the well-known track athlete of Harvard.

Interment was in Holyhood Cemetery, Brookline, where the Rev. William Grant read the prayers.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Have You Rheumatism, Kidney, Liver or Bladder Trouble?

To Prove what Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy, will do for YOU, all our Readers May Have a Sample Bottle Sent FREE by Mail.

Pain or dull ache in the back is evidence of kidney trouble. It is nature's timely warning to show you that the track of health is not clear.

Danger Signals.

If these danger signals are unheeded more serious results follow; Bright's disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble, may steal upon you.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable health restoring properties in the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine, you should have the best.

Lame Back.

Lame back is only one of many symptoms of kidney trouble. Other symptoms showing that you need Swamp-Root are, being obliged to pass water often during the day and to get up many times during the night.

Catarrh of the Bladder.

Inability to hold urine, smarting in passing, uric acid, headache, dizziness, indigestion, sleeplessness, nervousness, sometimes the heart acts badly, rheumatism, bloating, lack of ambition, maybe loss of flesh, sallow complexion.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalency of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physician, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

A Trial Will Convince Anyone.

In taking Swamp-Root you afford natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is a gentle healing vegetable compound—a specialist's prescription for a specific disease.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at all the drug stores. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., which you will find on every bottle.

SAMPLE BOTTLE FREE—To prove the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands of letters received from men and women who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy they needed. The value and success of Swamp-Root is so well known that you are advised to send for a sample bottle. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say you read this generous offer in the Boston Daily American.

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads. Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

INJUNCTIONS IN GAS FIGHT

NEW YORK, Jan. 12—Twelve injunctions were asked for by The American Gas Bureau against those gas companies which have shown a disposition to ignore the decision of the United States Supreme Court this morning. The defendant companies are the Standard, New York Mutual, Northern Union and Central Union.

In every case the company complained against threatened the consumers that if they did not pay the rate demanded, $1, their gas supply would be shut off, and they would not get it back until they had not only paid up the amount of the bill, but the extra cost of cutting out the supply and another charge for turning the gas on again.

Yesterday's mail brought two thousand coupons to the American's Gas Bureau through the mails, while hundreds of persons made personal application for the relief afforded them through the institution of this bureau.

There were besides thousands of letters asking personal advice. Many of these questions have been already answered in the American, and the bureau announced yesterday that in view of the great number of letters arriving to which definite answer was expected, some sort of a halt must be called upon this phase of the fight.

LABOR

At the mass meeting of Steam Fitters No. 22, held last night at No. 18 Kneeland street, Michael F. Garritt of Worcester, general organizer of the Steam Fitters of America, and International President Joseph J. Sullivan of St. Louis, both declared the greatest issue before the trades unionists of America is to formulate plans and work for legislation that will prevent the possibility of punishment of leaders like Samuel Gompers and his associate officers for exercising the right of free speech. President Sullivan spoke enthusiastically of the conditions of the building trades throughout the country, giving credit in large measure for this to the co-operation possible through the beneficial effect exercised by the American Federation of Labor. Their general officers are in Boston to aid in promoting good feeling among the craftsmen of the Hub.

LABOR NOTES.

International Vice-President Richard W. Garrity installed the following officers of Waiters No. 80, last night at No. 724 Washington street: President, Joseph E. Laycock; vice-presidents, Martin Mosher, Patrick Quinn; treasurer, Dennis Collins; recording secretary, John J. Kenney; business agent and financial secretary, James M. Lundy; chaplain, Frank O. Malley; inspector, Jeremiah Walsh; inside guard, Benjamin Baker; outside guard, John Casey; delegate to the local joint executive board, J. E. Laycock, J. J. Kearney, Patrick Quinn.

Street Cleaning Teamsters No. 149 have elected the following officers: President, William F. Greaney; vice-president, John Hurley; recording secretary, J. J. Burns; financial secretary, T. H. Green; treasurer, J. T. Kane, trustee for three years, Thomas Cahill; delegates to the Boston C. L. U., Messrs. Green, Hurley, Kane, Burns, P. Joyce, J. J. Mellen, Thomas Cahill, J. J. Kilduff, P. McKaren; to the joint council, Messrs. Greaney, Hurley, Kane, Burns, Cahill, Kilduff and Joyce.

Henry Sterling of Boston Typographical Union No. 13 will speak to-night before the members of the Hillside Club of the Winter Hill Congregational Church, Broadway and Central street, Somerville, on "Trade Unions."

Chandelier Workers No. 6 installed the following officers: President, John Spellman; vice-president, Arthur Thayer; financial secretary, John Hains; recording secretary, William Spratt; treasurer, Hugh Fitzpatrick; trustees, John Currie, Andrew Noble, Louis Adams; guardian, William Carey; delegate to the joint executive board, Messrs. Spratt, Spellman, Thayer, Adams and Malachi Flynn.

MEETINGS TO-NIGHT.

District Assembly No. 30, Incorporated, K. of L., at No. 228 Tremont street.

Executive Board of Stationary Engineers No. 16 at No. 514 Tremont street.

Plumbers No. 12 at No. 514 Tremont street.

Hoisting and Portable Engineers at No. 386 Harrison avenue.

Dorchester Carpenters No. 296 at Music Hall, Fields Corner.

Barbers No. 182 at No. 1125 Washington street.

East Boston Carpenters No. 218 at No. 18 Decatur street.

Carpenters No. 1096, Floorlayers, at No. 30 Hanover street.

Cloth Hat and Cap Makers No. 7 at No. 724 Washington street.

Custom Tailors at No. 164 Canal street.

Bricklayers No. 27 at No. 1066 Tremont street.

Cabinet and Millmen No. 1824 at No. 30 Hanover street.

Stationary Firemen No. 242 at No. 987 Washington street.

Grocery and Provision Clerks No. 539 at Fairview Hall, Roslindale.

Hyde Park Machinists No. 345 at Lyric Hall.

Piano and Organ Workers No. 19 at St. Andrew's Hall, No. 987 Washington street.

Street and Electric Employes No. 240 at No. 206 Broadway, Chelsea.

Boilermakers No. 512 at No. 23 Chelsea street, Charlestown.

Sewer Workers Assembly No. 1621 at No. 1061 Washington street.

Clothing Cutters and Trimmers at No. 18 Kneeland street.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.
PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded; 50c.

DOWD NAMES COMMITTEE ON RAPID TRANSIT

Thomas H. Dowd, chairman of the Faneuil Hall rapid transit mass meeting, this afternoon announced the names of nineteen of the members of the Committee of Twenty-five which is to fight for rapid transit for Boston by securing new legislation. The names as sent in by the individual improvement associations which called the Faneuil Hall protest meeting are as follows:

Chairman Faneuil Hall rapid transit meeting, Hon. Thomas H. Dowd; Jamaica Plain Citizens' Association, John A. McKim; Grove Hall Improvement Association, President John F. White; Harvard Improvement Association of Dorchester, James P. Magenis; South Boston Citizens' Association, Hon. Edward P. Barry; Neponset Improvement Association, President Matthew Cummings; Newton Upper Falls Improvement Association, President Thomas J. Sullivan; Citizens' Trade Association, East Boston, President James E. Maguire; Chelsea Manufacturers' Association, President William H. Gleason; Newton Centre Improvement Association, C. M. Goddard; West Roxbury Citizens' Association, Benjamin C. Lane; Roslindale Citizens' Association, President Arthur K. Spaulding; Chelsea Board of Trade, President Thomas J. Grey; Waltham Business Men's Association, R. B. Somers; Cambridge Business Men's Association, E. C. Clark; Boston Business Men's Association, Frank B. Jones; Dorchester Rapid Transit League, President William J. Paul; Dorchester Improvement Association, William J. Hennessey; West Roxbury, Germantown Improvement Association, President Wallace A. Gleason.

The other members will be named as their respective organizations submit the names of its representatives.

In response to a demand of the public that the Boston Elevated Railroad Company provide better cross-town traveling facilities, the road will to-morrow issue transfers from all cars which enter the subway at the Public Garden to cars that turn from Tremont street down Boylston for the South Station.

The announcement was made by the company to-day that when the change went into effect there would be a discontinuance of the Rowe's wharf cars between Massachusetts avenue by way of Huntington avenue, and these cars would hereafter run only from Park Square to Rowe's wharf.

Charles street cars are to be run via Tremont street and Boylston to the south station, and transfers may be had to and from them at the Touraine corner.

JAILED FOR STEALING 'QUAKE RELIEF FUND

Abraham Nessell, address unknown, was given two months in the House of Correction by Judge Murray to-day for robbing an Italian relief fund box. According to the police, Nessell approached one of the attendants at a relief box which was put out by the New England Dry Goods Association on Tremont street and told him that he had been sent to relieve him. The attendant surrendered the box. Nessell disappeared with the box and its contents.

LOAN AND TAX BILLS TO AID CHELSEA

To help Chelsea get on its feet again, the Board of Public Works of that city has filed with the Legislature two bills. One asks that the city be exempted from the provisions of the law limiting the tax rate to $12 in cities. The other asks that special loans for the city of Chelsea be excluded in determining the statutory debt limit of the city, and that at the maturity of these loans the city may refund them into a new or consolidated loan to be paid not later than December 31, 1924.

EASY MONEY! $200 IN GOLD FOR 25 WORDS

Some wise man (his name isn't important just now) said something one time about silence being golden. May be it is, in some cases, but in this particular case it isn't.

On the other hand, words are golden. For twenty-five words the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN will pay $200 in gold.

You can write these twenty-five words. You have the information to be expressed in these twenty-five words. And it is the information you have which the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN seeks.

Can you answer these questions—that is, can you answer either one of them or both of them, in twenty-five words?

1—What feature or department in the SUNDAY AMERICAN do you like best and why?

2—What feature or department (idea or suggestion) not now included in the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN would you like most to see regularly in the SUNDAY AMERICAN?

Open to Everybody.

Remember that you are to keep your answer within twenty-five words for each question, and when you send it to the Idea Editor don't forget to have your letter accompanied by the form which is printed with this explanation. Cut the blank out and write upon it, in the proper places, your name and address.

The BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN offers $100 to the man, woman or child who sends to this office the best idea told in twenty-five words.

The second prize is $50 in gold, and for the third best idea and letter $25 in gold will be given.

There are also five $5 prizes for the writers of the five next best letters.

Every resident of Greater Boston is eligible to enter the contest and there are no conditions or restrictions, except that you must live within that district and have been for sixty days a regular reader of the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN.

Easy Way to Win.

This is an Idea Contest. To win a prize you do not have to be a fine writer or possess literary style.

You have only got to have a good idea to win—if you have it you will get the money. A child can win, if he or she sends in the right one.

But remember, also, that if you have not been for sixty days a regular purchaser and reader of the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN, it is useless to enter the $200 Idea Contest, as there will be a rigid examination to exclude from the prizes any contestant who is only an occasional reader of the SUNDAY AMERICAN. The contest is designed for the double purpose of canvassing the wishes of the SUNDAY AMERICAN'S family of Greater Boston readers and at the same time securing a complete list of the names and addresses of that great family.

CONAN DOYLE UNDER THE KNIFE; RALLIES

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle underwent an operation yesterday at his residence at Crown Orough for a painful, but not serious intestinal affection. He is now progressing favorably, though he is still very weak.

$200 IDEA BLANK.

I am now and have been for more than sixty days a regular reader and purchaser of the Boston Sunday American.

My home address is.....................

....

(Name or place of dealer, boy or carrier from whom Sunday American is received)..........

....

Signature ....

Fill out this blank and mail or send it with your answer to:

THE IDEA EDITOR,
Boston Sunday American,
80 Summer St., Boston.

BROTHER OF SULTAN SLAIN?

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Following the news of the sudden death of Mulai Mohammed, brother of the Sultan and at one time pretender to the Moroccan throne, reports have been received here that he was the victim of a poison plot. A despatch from Tangier says his death was sudden. He was stricken while in the enjoyment of the best of health. He had the symptoms which might have followed poisoning.

FROZEN OUT, SAYS WOMAN IN DIVORCE SUIT

"I had to go to bed with my baby in the daytime in order to keep warm. My husband didn't give me one cent during the last four months that I lived with him."

This was part of the testimony of Clara Bird, a stylishly dressed woman of twenty-six, in the Suffolk County divorce court. She asked to be freed from her husband, Gerald, whom she has not seen for five years. She alleged desertion and failure to provide.

"I finally left him in March, 1903," she continued. "We had no coal or wood in the house and nothing to eat except what was there for the baby. I had hidden the condition of affairs from my folks, but when my mother saw how things were she made me get up and go to her home on Ferry street, Malden, where I have lived ever since.

"I was only eighteen when I was married. Three months after our marriage my husband took my diamond engagement ring and pawned it. He also pawned my watch and another ring.

"He was all right until about one month after we were married, when he threw up his position as an art decorator and began to drink heavily and to gamble. At that time he had been making $25 a week. The last I heard of him he was in New York."

Mrs. Bird asks for custody of her eight-year-old son, James.

[FROM NEW YORK WORLD, APRIL 8, '08]

LAST TWO MONTHS ENJOYED LIVING FOR FIRST TIME

The following statement was made by Mr. S. J. Simpson on Thursday afternoon in connection with the Cooper preparations, which have created a sensation throughout the West and now being widely discussed in New York.

Mr. Simpson, who lives at No. 979 President street, Brooklyn, said:

"According to my experience, this man Cooper is justified in his claims that his medicine will actually put the stomach in good condition. I have had chronic stomach trouble for several years past. My stomach seemed to give out completely in August, 1906, and I have been able to eat next to nothing since.

"I have not taken the slightest enjoyment in living. I have been so depressed by my condition. Neither physicians nor medicine helped me, and it was only by the most careful diet that I was able to retain any food whatever. For the past seven months I have not eaten a particle of meat. In the most skeptical frame of mind possible I called to see Mr. Cooper about two months ago, while he was in Brooklyn. I had not the smallest hope his medicine would help me, as I had given up hope during the past year. I obtained some of the medicine and began its use. To-day I am apparently as well as ever. I obtained relief so rapidly that it is positively wonderful. I am in good spirits, eat heartily, sleep well and am better in every way. I am convinced that the success this man is having in New York is richly deserved."

In a short interview Mr. Cooper said: "I have been in New York a little less than two months. So far as I can judge there are now about fifty thousand people taking my preparations. Before I leave there will be not less than one hundred thousand, as the number is increasing very rapidly and people are just beginning to learn what my preparation does. I expect to fully prove before I leave New York the claim I made when I arrived, namely—that stomach trouble is the great curse of the 20th century among highly civilized races and that it is responsible for ninety per cent. of all ill-health.

"My medicine does nothing but regulate the stomach, yet I have people come to me daily and tell me that it has relieved them of many and various ailments not generally recognized as due to stomach trouble.

"It is easy enough to verify this statement. An hour spent in listening to what people who call to see me are saying, who obtained my medicine some time ago, will prove what I say beyond a doubt."

Cooper's New Discovery is the medicine which made such a wonderful record in New York. It is on sale at leading druggists everywhere. Should your druggist not have it notify The Cooper Medicine Co., Dayton, Ohio.

Not a Once-a-Week Dish

Don't regard Van Camp's as a once-a-week dish, like your heavy home-baked beans. Van Camp's are delicious, nutritious and cheap. Serve them often

The habit of serving beans once a week grew out of the old-fashioned methods of baking them.

In the first place, it took one-sixth of a week to soak and boil and bake them.

Then the beans when done were mushy and broken. They were crisped on the top and half-baked in the middle. The dish was not very inviting.

The beans were also very hard to digest. They would ferment and form gas. Thus, in most homes, this choicest of foods came to be served once a week.

It's very different with Van Camp's.

These beans come to you fresh and savory, ready for instant serving. No work, no waiting.

They come to you nutty, mealy and whole. No beans are crisped, no skins are broken, for we don't bake in dry heat.

And Van Camp's are digestible. They don't ferment on the stomach. You get the whole of their food value.

Beans, to be digestible, must be baked in live steam, heated to 245 degrees.

They must be baked in small parcels, so that the full heat of the oven is applied to each bean.

Otherwise the particles will not be separated so the digestive juices can get to them.

Home ovens use dry heat. The top beans are crisped by it, but the beans farther down rarely are heated above 100 degrees. That's why the beans don't digest.

Van Camp's are baked as they should be—baked in live steam and in small parcels. The tomato sauce and the pork are baked with them.

Beans are 23% nitrogenous—84% nutriment. Even meat has a lesser food value, though it costs several times as much.

Beans form the ideal food when so baked that one gets the whole of their nutriment.

They are delicious and yet economical. People don't tire of them. When you serve Van Camp's you will find that your folks never get beans too often.

Van Camp's BAKED WITH TOMATO SAUCE
PORK AND BEANS

We pay $2.25 per bushel for beans, while some cost but 30 cents. Our tomato sauce costs us just five times what commonplace sauce would cost

We buy only the choicest Michigan beans. Then we pick out by hand the whitest, the plumpest, the fullest-grown. All but the best are discarded.

Our tomato sauce is made from whole, luscious tomatoes that were ripened on the vines.

Cheap sauce is made from tomatoes picked green. The cheapest is made of scraps from a canning factory. But such sauce lacks all our richness and zest.

So it is very important, in buying beans, that you insist on getting Van Camp's. No common brand will meet your expectations, after all we have said.

Three Sizes: 10, 15 and 20 cents per can.

Van Camp Packing Company, Established 1861 Indianapolis, Ind.

CRACKSMAN SHOT IN DUEL AT HOLLISTON

In a pistol duel with three cracksmen who broke open the postoffice at Holliston, twenty-eight miles from Boston on the Boston & Albany Railroad, one of the men is believed to have been shot and Police Officer Oscar Hart narrowly missed the same fate.

The three men escaped, and it is thought that they made their way toward Boston. The police of South Framingham and Boston, as well as other places between, have been notified to be on the lookout for the men.

The pistol fight in the dark took place at 1:45 o'clock this morning. Hart, who is an alert young man and the only uniformed man on the police force, caught sight of three men slouching toward the postoffice.

Smash in Rear Door.

Hart did not like their looks. He followed them. Finally they brought up in the rear of the postoffice. In a moment there was no doubt as to what they were up to. There was a crash and when Hart got closer he saw that they had broken the rear door of the building.

One of the men was on guard. He held a pistol in his right hand and when he saw the officer approaching he cried out:

"Halt or I'll shoot!"

But Hart didn't halt. He grabbed for his own weapon and ran right ahead. The revolver of the robber cracked and a bullet whizzed past Hart's face. It singed the skin.

Robber Falls at Shot.

Hart let go with his own pistol. There was a sharp cry and one of the trio fell.

One of the three men had started to run. The man with the pistol leaped to the side of his fallen companion, aimed at the policeman again and fired. The second bullet missed. The stranger stooped and lifted his fallen companion, and together they started on a run.

Hart fired one more shot, but does not think that it took effect. As the men disappeared one of them kept his revolver pointed backward at the officer and threatened to shoot if they were pursued.

"I feel sure," said Hart to-day, "that I hit one of the men. I heard him cry and he fell. But they got him away. This morning before I left duty I heard that there had been a break at the station. I do not know what they got.

JORDAN'S BIG BIRTHDAY SALE

The biggest birthday in Boston is being celebrated to-day and to-morrow by the Jordan Marsh Company, which is celebrating the fifty-eighth anniversary of its establishment. To help make the occasion memorable the firm has invited all of its patrons and the public of Greater Boston and New England to visit the great stores, where it is offering 951 extraordinary values as another thing to signalise the event.

The Jordan Marsh Company says that those who fail to take advantage of this offer will miss something well worth consideration as the birthday sale includes a large percentage of new goods.

The firm of Jordan & Marsh was formed in 1851 by Eben D. Jordan and Benjamin L. Marsh. The great store has kept pace with the growth of Boston. Eben D. Jordan came here from Danville, Me., his native town, when fourteen years of age. As the firm grew it added to its floor space until it occupies many acres to-day. The present store was occupied in November, 1880.

"Bunnie" Lawson, Whose Graduation Dress Was Stolen

Setoney Minatto, a former Japanese butler for Thomas W. Lawson, to-day pleaded guilty before Judge White in the Superior Court of having broken into and pillaged the Back Bay residence of Mr. Lawson on December 29. Minatto was secretly indicted by the Grand Jury last Saturday.

Among the articles that he stole was the graduation dress of Mr. Lawson's daughter, "Bunnie." The State street operator and author went to the Court House to-day and had a private talk with the young man for the purpose of finding out what he had done with the dress, as well as some of the other things that he carried away. Mr. Lawson recovered the dress from the police. Among the other things taken were a candlestick, other clothing valued at $400, and a clock valued at $97. The prisoner was held in $2,000 bail for sentence.

Obituary

MRS. SUSAN J. ROBINSON, one of Roxbury's oldest inhabitants, died last night at her home, No. 41 Alpine street at the age of eighty-one.

DR. CHARLES DENISON, a specialist in the treatment of tuberculosis, died last night in Denver. He was born at Royalston, Vermont, in 1845, and lived in Colorado since 1872.

CARLOS F. BALL, senior member of Conant, Ball & Co., manufacturers of chairs at Gardner and in this city, died last night at his home, No. 4 Earl street, Malden. He was born in Ackworth, N. H., in 1830.

OTIS EDDY WOOD, who took the first telegraph message by sound, is dead at his home in Ithaca, N. Y. He was seventy-seven years old.

WILLIAM F. BURRILL, died at his home in Brockton yesterday. He was organist at the Porter Congregational and First Universalist churches and director of music at the Church of the Unity.

JOSEPH WHARTON, a prominent resident of Philadelphia, and one of the largest individual iron manufacturers in the United States, is dead at the age of eighty-three years. He was stricken with paralysis last June.

SARAH HEADLEY DODGE, widow of the late William Earl Dodge, the metal merchant and philanthropist, is dead at her home, 262 Madison avenue, New York, in her seventy-seventh year. Mrs. Dodge was the daughter of David Headley, president of the Panama railroad.

WILLTONE UP YOUR STOMACH AND CURE ALL INDIGESTION PROMPTLY

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion and Stomach trouble is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Diapepsin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should eat Diapepsin after meals, and there will be no more Indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Vomiting, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after eating one Triangule of Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel life is worth living.

REAL ESTATE MARKET HAS LIVELY BOOM

The real estate market shows increasing activity as the transfers recorded in the Suffolk County Registry barometer. The mortgages, too, are increasing in number and amounts involved, all indicating an active building movement. New contracts are being let in increasing numbers, while the work on the buildings already started is being rushed with all speed. This is particularly true of the new building at Washington street and Temple place, where the builders are ahead of their schedule. The detail will be worked out in Gothic motives, and this style is rapidly finding favor for buildings of this type. The lower floors will be ready for the retail merchants who hold the leases in a few weeks. It is designed to use the floors above the fourth for wholesale and retail storerooms as well as offices, and several have been let for this purpose.

Bids for Haynes's Estate.

The John C. Haynes estate has received bids for its new building at High and Summer streets which will cover 4,000 square feet and be of six stories, so constructed that more may be added. Edward B. Stratton is the architect.

The property at No. 57 Dover street, South End, a three-story brick dwelling and 1,386 feet of land, assessed at $7,000, has been sold by George C. Appleton & Son to John L. Lochhead for investment.

The two-family house and 3,500 feet of land at No. 20 Jerome street, Dorchester, has been sold by Dr. H. C. Taggart to Mary A. Whitney. It is assessed for $6,100.

The Torrey Real Estate Trust has leased the large store and basement at Nos. 139-141 Federal street to A. G. Spalding & Bros., Inc., for a term of years. Extensive alterations are to be made.

North End Property Deal.

The property at Nos. 163-165 Salem street, North End, has been transferred to Annie Capone by Matilda Adolino. There are 995 feet of land assessed at $5,000 and a brick building assessed at $11,400.

A. S. Tucker has taken a long lease on the apartment house at No. 153 Huntington avenue from H. B. Stearns, trustee. The land measures 3,202 feet and the building is a four-story brick. The total assessment is on $28,800.

Elmer E. Wingate of Watertown has sold his estate in Walnut street, Reading, through the Breck Real Estate Agency, to the Rev. George F. Walker of Canton for a home. It is assessed at $3,000 and sold for more. There is a nine-room house and large lot of land.

Takes Apartment House.

Charles H. Tarjanian has taken title to No. 32 Essex street, a three-story apartment house, and 3,500 feet of land, valued at $7,700. Hjalmar P. L. Quarnstrom was the owner on the tax books.

John C. F. Slayton and others have sold as trustees the estate of Charles H. Bond at No. 130 Commonwealth avenue to Frances T. Goodwin. The land measures 3,237 square feet and is assessed at $22,700.

John V. N. Stults has sold to Mary Carbone and others and they to Felice Di Clerio the property in Snelling place, on Hull street, a brick house with 1,248 feet of land, total assessment on $6,700.

Patrick O'Hearn has paid $8,000 to the Continental National Bank for the lot at the corner of Washington avenue, Washington and Draper streets, a plot of 47,447 square feet assessed for $8,600.

Buys Six Lots.

Robert G. Jones has bought the six vacant lots owned by C. Henry Hetu, an area of 25,550 for improvement. The plot is assessed at $6,800.

Cecilia A. Byrne has sold three parcels in Woodside and Plummer avenues, Winthrop, to Agnes V. Lewis. There are two frame houses, a stable, 15,347 feet of land. The whole is taxed at $6,150, of which $2,150 is on the land.

The Kerans Leather plant in Liberty street, Danvers, has been sold at mortgagee's sale to the Proctor-Ellison Company of Boston for $28,000. The plant cost more than $50,000.

$670,000 GIVEN TO RED CROSS

To date the National Red Cross Society, whose headquarters are at Washington, has received a total of $670,000 for the relief of the sufferers from the earthquake at Messina. Of this amount $650,000 has already been forwarded to the sufferers. The amount received yesterday was $60,000.

The contributions in Massachusetts to all funds so far amount to $151,258.51. Of this amount $123,804.31 has been received by Lee, Higginson & Co. as treasurer of the Massachusetts Italian relief fund, and Gardiner M. Lane, treasurer of the Massachusetts branch of the National Red Cross Society, has received $27,454.20.

GIRL DEAD IN R. R. STATION FROM POISON

ORANGE, Jan. 12.—Mystery to-day surrounds the deth of a pretty unknown young woman who was found groaning and unconscious in the Boston & Maine Railroad station here and who died a few minutes later when she had been removed to the Waverley House by Dr. A. C. Leach. Dr. Leach believes that she died as the result of poison, though whether she took it herself or was the victim of a plot is not known yet.

The young woman was found in the women's waiting room of the station last night by H. T. Steadman, a traveling salesman. Steadman was sitting in the men's waiting room at the time, when he heard groans, and then the sound of a muffled fall.

He rushed into the adjoining room, and there saw a pretty woman lying on the floor in a heap. He called to Station Agent R. D. Crosby. The woman, who was between twenty-five and thirty years of age, was placed on a bench and Dr. Leach summoned. She was unconscious at the time.

Dr. Leach at once ordered her removal to the Waverley House nearby, where the young woman died without regaining consciousness. Dr. Leach declared that he thought she had died as the result of some poison. Medical Examiner J. S. Tenbroeck viewed the body and had it removed to the undertaking rooms of R. H. Rumsey where he will hold an autopsy on it to-day.

The young woman, who was a pretty brunette, five feet in height and weighing 130 pounds, was clad in a neat tailor-made traveling suit of dark brown. In her pocketbook nothing but a button and a five-cent piece were found.

PLAN BILL FOR REFERENDUM

Robert Treat Paine, Jr., announces that no "Public Opinion" bill will be presented to this year's Legislature by the Massachusetts Public Opinion League. Instead, the league will centre its efforts on Beacon Hill on an "initiative and referendum" bill.

It will provide simply that on petition of a certain number of voters the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall place on the ballot the question asked for in the petition. The bill will be filed next week.

No More PILES

No Matter How Bad Your Case Is or How Long You Have Had It, Pyramid Pile Cure Can Cure It.

Free Package Sent to Prove It.

Half of the suffering and torture of piles has never been told. Whether your particular case of piles is almost too excruciating for any mortal to bear, or if you are fearfully tantalized by unreachable itching and bleeding or whether you have only a moderate case of piles, there is positive relief, and quick, too, in Pyramid Pile Cure.

You need not take for granted all we say about our Pile Remedy. We want it to speak for itself.

That is why we say to every person suffering from piles or any form of rectal disease, send us your name and address and we will gladly send you a free trial package of the marvelous Pyramid Pile Cure. After using the trial you will hurry to your nearest druggist and get a 50 cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure, now admitted by thousands to be one of the most wonderful reliefs and cures for Piles ever known.

Instant relief can be gotten by using the marvelous Pyramid Pile Cure. It immediately reduces all congestion and swelling, heals all sores, ulcers and irritated parts. It renders an operation absolutely unnecessary.

Send your name and address to-day for free trial package to Pyramid Drug Co., 138 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Wednesday and Thursday Sale of 69c to 89c Imported All White

Viennese Orchestra — Restaurant, 5th Floor

HENRY SIEGEL CO.

WASHINGTON AND ESSEX STREETS, BOSTON, MASS.

ENAMELWARE 39c

39c for any piece or any size in this enormous purchase of high grade, pure white inside and outside, Imported Enamelware—the most astonishing bargain news our Basement has published for many a day.

Such bargains are RARE and should command your prompt attendance at this sale tomorrow or Thursday at the latest.

89c Tea Kettles, No. 6 Size, 39c

All White, Inside and Outside

89c Large, 10-Quart Dish Pans, 39c

Item	Price
Coffee Pots, with enamelled cover and handles; 1½ or 2 qt. sizes.	39c
Stewing Pans, with cover, flat bottom, straight sides; long handles; 4-qt. size.	39c
Berlin Covered Sauce Pots, enamelled cover; 3 and 4-qt. sizes.	39c
Water Pails, 10-quart size, wood bail handles, pure white lined.	39c
Berlin Covered Sauce Pans, enamelled cover; 3 or 4 quart size.	39c
Berlin Kettles with enamelled covers; extra deep; 3 or 4 quart size.	39c
Tea Pots, enamelled cover; 1½ or 2 quart size.	39c
Double Rice or Oatmeal Cookers, 1-qt. size, enamelled cover.	39c
Preserving Kettles; extra deep; 5 and 6 qt. sizes, wood bail handles.	39c
Water Pitchers, seamless body, enamelled handles; 2-quart size.	39c

THE DAYLIGHT STORE

GILCHRIST CO.

BOSTON'S FASTEST GROWING DEP'T STORE

WASHINGTON STREET THROUGH TO WINTER STREET

FINAL CLEARANCE SALE OF Women's Suits and Coats

The wonderful values in this January Clearing Sale will long establish the sales record of Boston. The latest fashions are represented in great variety, and there will be no trouble in securing a becoming Suit or Coat for a Half Less than the Regular Price.

$15.00 to $22.50 Coats

Made from choice broadcloths, light weight kerseys, cheviots and all-wool mixtures, lined with guaranteed satin, all sizes (like and similar to illustration). Sale Price,

$7.45

$20.00 to $25.00 Coats

All this season's choicest models to select from, in broadcloths, cheviots, etc., handsomely trimmed, lined with guaranteed satin, all sizes (like and similar to illustration). Sale Price,

$12.45

$38.75 to $45.00 Suits

All new models, made from choicest materials, cut in the most desirable lengths, lined with best of linings, neatly trimmed (like and similar to illustration). Sale Price,

$22.45

$32.50 to $37.50 Suits

Several handsome styles to select from, in the desirable lengths, made from good all-wool broadcloths, worsteds, cheviots, etc. (like and similar to illustration). Sale Price,

$16.45

Women's Tailored Suits, made from all-wool worsteds, choice broadcloths, fancy cheviots, coats 36 to 38 inches long, trimmed with Skinner's satin, large pockets, fancy buttons and ornaments, straight and arrow fronts, slashed and plain backs, lined with Skinner's and Belding's guaranteed satin, skirts cut in the latest effects and trimmed with bands and fold, in all the latest colors. Value $25.00. Sale Price......... 12.45

Women's Coats, made from choice broadcloths, light weight kerseys and cheviots, handsomely trimmed, lined with guaranteed satin. Value $20.00. Sale Price 9.95

Women's Coats, made from fine quality caracul fur cloth, also heavy broadcloth, lined throughout and finished with large fur collar, neatly trimmed with silk, braid, velvet, etc. Regular price $25.00 to $30.00. Sale Price........................ 14.95

Lace Curtains, Rugs and Upholsteries

SPECIAL PURCHASES AT REDUCED PRICES

Item	Price
Scotch Lace Curtains. Worth $1.25. Sale Price	75c
Scotch Lace Curtains. Value $2.00. Sale Price	1.19
Scotch Lace Curtains. Value $2.25. Sale Price	1.39
Renaissance Lace Curtains (6 designs). Value $5.00, pair	3.98
Arabian Lace Curtains. Value $5.00 and $6.00. Sale Price	3.98
Cluny Lace Curtains, white and arab. Value $3.00. Sale Price	2.39
Irish Point Lace Curtains. Value $5.00. Sale Price	3.95
Irish Point Lace Curtains. Value $6.50. Sale Price	4.69
Lace Bed Sets, made on cable net with renaissance motifs in center of spread and sham. Value $5.00. Sale Price	2.49
Muslin Curtains, plain and Farwell stripe, with plain ruffle. Value 40c and 50c pair. Sale Price	19c
Bobbinet Lace Curtains, renaissance edge and insertion, with large corner piece. Worth $2.00. Sale Price	1.25
Japanese Straw Mattings. Regular carpet designs, in colors and plain white. Worth $12.50 roll of 40 yards. Sale Price	7.50
Portieres, all plain colors, the popular kind. Regular $6.00 and $7.50. Sale Price, a pair	4.69
Tapestry Couch Covers, regular price $3.25. Sale Price	2.50
Figured Silkoline, manufacturers' strike off pieces. Value 12½c. Sale Price, a yard	7c
High-Grade Brussels Rugs, 9 ftx12 ft. and 8.3x10.6. Regular price $27.50 and $25. Sale Price,	19.50
Tapestry Brussels Rugs, 9x12. Regular price $19.50. Sale Price	14.95
Oil Cloths, for floor. Worth 30c and 40c square yard. Sale Price	25c

500 Pairs Fine Muslin Curtains — Made up in different styles. Regular price $1.00 a pair. Sale Price............... 59c

Genuine ½ Price Corset Sale

Two entire factory lots, together with our stock of odd and discontinued styles, including all makes that have become soiled through window or counter display—all new up-to-date models, priced.................... 1.25 to 6.00

Girdles and Corsets—Several styles, plain or brocaded, in white, pink or blue; also short, medium and long models (not every size in each style, but all sizes in some styles), worth $1.25 and $1.50 each, at, choice.................. 69c

Reduso Corsets—For stout figures only, in three lengths—short, medium and long—sizes 22 to 36 (we cannot guarantee to have all sizes and all lengths after Thursday). Regular price $3.00. Sale price.................. 1.50

Item	Reduced to
$6.00 P. D. Fine Coutil Corsets, Reduced to	$3.00
$5.50 P. D. French Coutil Corsets, Reduced to	$2.75
$3.00 P. D. Coutil Corsets, Reduced to	$1.50
$7.00 La Lily Coutil Corsets, Reduced to	$3.50
$3.50 C. B. Batiste Corsets, Reduced to	$1.75
$1.50 C. B. Batiste Corsets, Reduced to	75¢
$1.50 C. B. Drab Coutil Corsets, Reduced to	75¢
$2.50 Thompson Glove Fitting Corsets, Reduced to	$1.25
$1.00 Royal Worcester Corsets, Reduced to	50¢
$2.00 W. B. Special Long Length Corsets, Reduced to	$1.00
$3.50 Nemo Festoon Corsets, Reduced to	$1.75
$3.00 Nemo Incurve Waist Style Corset, Reduced to	$1.50

Double Stamps Every Forenoon

JOE KELLEY FEARS HE IS UP AGAINST IT

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS

NELSON TELLS OF RALPH ROSE'S HITTING POWERS

John L. Sullivan's Column

I don't much like to have to go to other fellows for quotations, but I've got to give it to my crooked-mouth little friend Georgie Cohan, the same fellow who does his best to welsh on his birthplace of Providence, R. I. Something he said hits me exactly to-day: "Gee! But I'm glad to be home again."

Friends, I am glad to be back in this town. I'm a Boston booster, and I've always been one. It pleases the old fellow greatly to get down to business right here in the old town that I love so well.

I'm here, as you all know. In no city in the whole country have I ever had such a splendid crowd of young Americans paying me the compliment of following me as I had yesterday at the Old Howard.

It surprised me for the main reason that of all the callers who sent their cards into my dressing room the foremost were the sporting reporters from the Boston papers. And me myself a sporting editor of the BOSTON AMERICAN. I venture to say that I am the only sporting editor of any paper who was ever so eagerly sought after by the sporting editors of other papers.

I've got to stop here and pass it to this fellow, Fred Doherty, of the Old Howard Theatre. He got so busy he handed me all in a bunch every sporting writer in this good old town.

Well, they are all good fellows, every one of them, and I was glad to see them all. Every one had that square, shoulder-to-shoulder sportsman spirit in coming to see me, a sporting editor of the BOSTON AMERICAN.

I am going to be just as fair a sport as they were to me and if you want to know what they think about me and my views of the fight game as it stands at present, you might read the other papers to-day.

I am sure those fellows will give me a fair deal.

But I cannot help from observing again that I hope my old Roxbury pals and the other fellows who knew me when I was the real "Boston Boy" will forgive me for the conceit which I have to own up to when I say I am the only sporting editor that they all came to see.

I am under some obligation to my booking agent for sending me just now to Boston. It gives me a chance to say a whole lot of things which otherwise might not have been timely. This was a thought which occurred to me yesterday afternoon when I went on the stage of the Old Howard for the little monologue I was called on to make just before the sparring act with my old friend and enemy, Jake Kilrain.

As I stood on that old stage so familiar to me, all of my mind went back to the day thirty years ago when I smacked George Rourke on the jaw and put him down for the time being. That was one of the first knock-downs I ever had.

Well, as I tell you fellows, I had that incident in mind when I remembered that I had to deal with 1909. Naturally the big thought of this new year is the coon champion, Johnson, and all his claims to the title which I was once so proud to bear.

Now, I don't like to repeat what I said from the stage yesterday—and what I said from the stage yesterday was only repeating what I have said in my column in the BOSTON AMERICAN.

But take it from me, I don't see anybody to fight the coon.

If a fight is arranged with Jeffries or Corbett or Fitzsimmons or anybody else, I don't care who, it's going to be a funny fight.

What is more natural than for Corbett or any other man selected to fight the nigger to say to him:

"Johnson, without me you couldn't get a match. You ain't worth a cent as a drawing card without me. Now there is a big purse hung up and I am to get the hog's end of it. Let's split it."

There is the answer to all this talk about big purses and this grand come-back to the ring of the past topnotchers.

If you'll take my word for it that $50,000 purse offered to Jeffries will be $100,000 before the fight promoters are done with it. Much as it galls me to admit it, I guess the nigger is champion for a while.

Some guy in the audience yesterday afternoon bellowed out a question to me. I didn't quite get what he was after, and if I had I wouldn't have answered him. Any man who has sense enough to come to me for a referee's opinion ought to have brains enough to know that I am too busy to answer questions on the stage, though I will answer any question properly put to me through the sporting columns of the BOSTON AMERICAN.

Some fellow has just asked me about Corbett ever being able to train back sufficiently to fight this black fellow, Johnson. While I don't want to go on record as answering that question, although I have my own opinion about it, I am reminded of a physical marvel who doesn't know what training is.

I mean Tom Longboat. That Indian doesn't know what training is, but I'll make book and give long odds that the Comanche, or whatever he is, can outhoof any human being that ever trod the Marathon pike. I hate to say this after the game race Fowler put up in the BOSTON AMERICAN'S charity run Saturday, but I'm honest about it, and I won't conceal it.

There is going to be a fight to-night—the usual Tuesday night go in Boston clubdom. I haven't had a chance to look over these youngsters who are going to hit it off to-night, but from what I hear there will be something doing.

If I am wrong about to-night's fights I'll admit my mistakes in my column in to-morrow's BOSTON AMERICAN.

I am glad to see my old friend, Lew Dockstader, here at the Globe Theatre. He had a curious mix up some time ago when a colored prizefighter took his name and made it appear as if Lew had gone back to his youth and started into pugilism. I heard also that Lew had a race horse named after him. Neither the horse nor the prize fighter ever won a contest, so I suppose Lew doesn't regard it as any help to his already great publicity.

John L. Sullivan:
Dear Sir—How many rounds did Fitzsimmons and Corbett fight in Carson City? How old is Jack Johnson? Did Johnson fight Fitz in Philadelphia?
C. W. T.

Fitz defeated Corbett in the fourteenth round. Johnson was born March 31, 1878. He defeated Fitz in two rounds at Philadelphia, July 17, 1907.

John L. Sullivan:
Dear Sir—How many times have Corbett and McCoy met in the ring?
A. W. E.

They met only once, Corbett winning in the fifth round (August 30, 1900, at Madison Square Garden, N. Y.).

John L. Sullivan:
Dear Sir—Was Longboat in the Marathon that Hayes won at the Olympic games?
H. B.

Longboat started in this race, but dropped out of it.

John L. Sullivan:
Dear Sir—Will you kindly state in your column if Tommy Quill of Brockton ever won over Young Donohue?
FRIENDS.
Marlboro.

Quill got a decision over Young Donohue in a twelve-round bout at Boston on November 28, 1907.

John L. Sullivan:
Dear Sir—Did Sam McLean ever fight as a heavyweight?
C. F. C.
Waltham.

I do not recall this party.

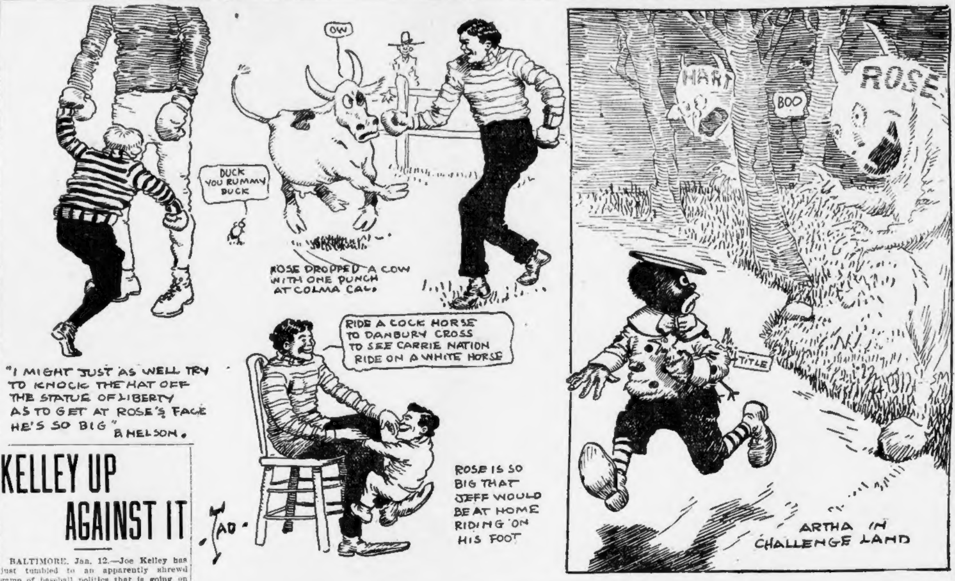
John L. Sullivan:
Dear Sir—Was Jack Twin Sullivan ever knocked out by Charley O'Rourke?
READER.
Cambridge.

Yes; in eight rounds in 1901.

John L. Sullivan:
Dear Sir:—Will you please decide the following bet on the last six-day race at Park square. A bet that the race on Thursday night of the last six-day race stopped at 10:30 p. m. B bet that the race did not stop at 10:30 p. m. Who wins?
Roxbury.
W. P. SAWTELLE.

On Thursday the teams got away at 12:30 p. m. and rode ten hours, finishing at 10:30 o'clock. On Friday the teams rode from 3 p. m. until 1 a. m.

RALPH ROSE'S FEATS OF GIANT STRENGTH—By Tad.



OW
DUCK YOU RUMMY DUCK
ROSE DROPPED A COW WITH ONE PUNCH AT COLMA CAL.
HART
BOO
ROSE
TITLE
"I MIGHT JUST AS WELL TRY TO KNOCK THE HAT OFF THE STATUE OF LIBERTY AS TO GET AT ROSE'S FACE HE'S SO BIG" B. NELSON.
RIDE A COCK HORSE TO DANBURY CROSS TO SEE CARRIE NATION RIDE ON A WHITE HORSE
ROSE IS SO BIG THAT JEFF WOULD BEAT HOME RIDING 'ON HIS FOOT
TAD
ARTHA IN CHALLENGE LAND

KELLEY UP AGAINST IT

BALTIMORE, Jan. 12.—Joe Kelley has just tumbled to an apparently shrewd game of baseball politics that is going on in regard to his case with President Dovey of the Boston National League Club. The conclusion he has reached is that both Dovey and the National Commission are holding off, under the expectation that Kelley will be forced in a very short time to sign a contract with Toronto, and by that act cause his suit for damages against the Boston Nationals and Dovey, to fall to the ground, on the plea that he cannot show damages to the civil court and that under baseball rules he has no redress because he cannot be under contract to two clubs at the same time.

Kelley wrote to August Herrmann, as president of the National Commission, stating that he wished to bring the attention of the National Commission to his case, and asking what formal steps were necessary to carry out his desire. President Herrman replied, asking Joe to forward his contract with the Boston Nationals. A certified copy was prepared under the direction of Kelley's attorney and President Herrmann was notified that his attorney had been instructed not to press the civil suit against Dovey until the National Commission had acted.

But the case apparently did not come before the National Commission at all. It was certainly not passed upon, and it has transpired that the National Commission practically refused to consider it as long as he has a case pendingin the civil court.

Joe is undoubtedly in a hole. He expected the National Commission to act, settling the question and thus leaving him free to do business with Toronto. He knows that a civil suit, if pressed, can be made to hang on indefinitely and that as soon as he signs with Toronto his side of the argument is handicapped.

He announced to-day that he will make another effort to get the commission to act, but it looks as though he is strictly up against it and that the commission is not unwilling to give Dovey the benefit of all situations that may arise. Dovey, by the way, has not replied to any of the letters written him by Jo'es attorney, and is evidently "on" to the game.

OLD CY IN LINE AGAIN

Hub fans will be pleased to learn that Old Cy Young has turned in his contract signed to the Boston American League Club and is getting ready to move on to Hot Springs.

"I am in pretty good shape already," the veteran writes. "I am just a trifle over weight, but you can bank on my being down fairly fine by the twenty-fourth of February. I have kept in great shape all Winter with my chores, cutting and hauling lumber, looking after the stock and doing the hundred and one other things that the maintenance of a big farm entails.

"I have done a little pitching when the weather conditions were favorable, and neither my speed nor accuracy has gone back on me. I think that I will be able to burn them over as fast as I ever did."

BOWLING ALLEY GOSSIP

Eddie Greene, the Medford strong boy with the pins, made his debut in the Suburban League with the Boulevard team against Auditorium, and with his help the five rolled 1,412, getting four points.

G. Fair of the Natick K. of C. team is holding his own with the best in the league. His average is 96 for 33 games, and that is some bubbles—yes—and how he can finish in the last boxes.

It is Timmy Burns who holds the individual string record to date for the Elks with 132, the statement that "Pee Wee" has it being wrong, though the latter is leading in the season's average with 96.

Monday night there is hot doing at Adams Square alleys, when Batstow and Poisfer, champions of the Produce Market, roll M. O'Keefe's boyers, headed by "Bill" Mack. This is for the suppers and what goes with it.

Everett challenged Jack Sheafe to a game the other evening, but before it was over admitted that he was rather up against it, as after dallying with the pins for a couple of strings around the hundred notch Sheafe got after them for a total of 149.

Secretary John Dolan of the K. of C. is a busy man looking after the thirty teams in the league, the three divisions bowling three nights of each week. However, there is a report that next season the league intends raising his salary, a commendable idea.

Friends of Tom McCarthy are after him to bowl more, as they are afraid he is taking on too much fat. Tom doesn't want to get a fatty heart.

Wildey had to take its medicine from Elite. This is in the right order of affairs, as Wildey were cinching the led by too big a margin.

Boylston has the league record with 1,570, while Murphy of Noddle has superseded Galway's string mark of 148 with one of 159.

In the first couple of strings between Waltham and Allston the excitement was enough to keep all awake. The former were successful in taking the first by ten and the next by only four pins.

Johnny Ward of the Elks and K. of C. leagues is counted among the leaders in getting the pins, but the other evening he nearly struck his match when challenged by one of the women school teachers in Boston. It was decided over the new Boston alleys, and her strings read 88, 89, 102, total 279. Ward got 116 in the final string, but it was a couple of likely spares that brought victory to him at that.

BAY STATE A. A. IS FLOURISHING

BY J. C. KERRISON.

At no time in its history has the Bay State Automobile Association been in a stronger or more promising condition than it is at the present time, thanks to the board of officers which retired at the annual meeting. Installed into office a year ago this board set to work with a determination to clean up the indebtedness of between $6,000 and $7,000 which hung like a pall over the organization. How well this was accomplished is shown by the treasurer's report at the last annual meeting and likewise by the circular just issued by Secretary Fortescue, which says the club "is now practically out of debt." The treasurer's report showed that the assets of the association are greater than the liabilities, whereas a year ago just the reverse was the condition.

The retiring board is entitled to consideration in this work and there is no question but what the present board will endeavor to continue the policy of the past year and make the organization the most substantial motoring organization in New England.

Finest Set of Rooms.

Possessing as it does the finest set of rooms owned by a motoring club anywhere in this country, with live energetic men on its board of officers, and with the year before it there is really no reason why the club should not grow greater and stronger with each succeeding week.

The giving up of the old quarters on Dartmouth street, and the securing of the present home in the Hotel Carleton was one of the best moves that could possibly have been accomplished and has saved considerable money in running expenses for the organization.

But four members of the old board desired to again assume reins of office and they will prove valuable to the present board owing to their familiarity with the affairs of the organization. These gentlemen were Messrs Fortescue, Hathaway, Whipple and McNear. The re-elected head of the club, Lewis R. Speare, is by no means a stranger, he having held that office for three years, being the first president of the club. Harlan Whipple retains the position of vice-president, and James Fortescue that of secretary.

A New Treasurer.

J. S. Hathaway, who assumes the office of treasurer, is a fitting sucessor to Harry W. Knights. In the retirement of Mr. Knights the club loses one of its most energetic and painstaking officers, a man who worked for the best interests of the club from start to finish. Strong efforts were made to induce him to accept the position of president, but without avail, even though the present incumbent of that office united his voice and effort to induce Mr. Knights to remain in club activity.

The new board of officers is one that should prove eminently successful, comprising as it does business men of ability and standing, including Arthur Hinchcliffe, Kenneth Blake, Dr. Julius F. Hovestadt, C. F. Whitney and George W. McNear.

The retiring officers leave behind them an excellent record and should feel well satisfied with the work they have performed.

HOT SPRINGS WILL HAVE NO BOXING

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 12.—With plans already announced for grand revival of the boxing game in this city, consternation was caused in the camp of promoters here yesterday by the announcement of the police that all bouts would be suppressed. The lid will be down tight, it is said, owing to the farce following the meeting between Brooklyn Tommy Sullivan and the Australian, McNeil. Two clubs had been formed to conduct what was announced to be "scientific exhibitions, not prize fighting." The retiring Governor is believed to have been not opposed to the bouts. The Governor-elect is said to be the real power behind the new order of affairs.

LINCOLN A. A. IN HARD GAME

The Lincoln A. C. will meet the strong East Boston Centrals to-night at Lincoln House Gymnasium, and a fast game is looked for. The lineup for the Lincoln A. C. will be L. Sullivan and Coppell, forwards; Mahoney, centre, O'Donnell, Di Natali and J. Sullivan will take care of the backfield.

SPORTING MISCELLANY

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Joe Stein had a shade the best of Al Schumacher in their ten-round bout at the Dry Dock A. C.

The N. E. A. A. A. U. wrestling championships will be held by the Armory A. A. at the clubhouse, Friday evening, January 22.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Yusif Mahmout defeated Charles Olsen of St. Louis in two straight falls in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling match.

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 12.—Spike Sullivan won the championship of Fort Preble at the Pastime Club by defeating Jim Rippin in the fourth round.

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., Jan. 12.—In a fierce fight Bill Hurley of this city and Ed Steele of Chicago fought a six-round draw at the Casino A. C.

TROY, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Tommy Carey of Philadelphia defeated Harry Catch of New York in a ten-round bout. Carey was the aggressor throughout.

ROLLER POLO RESULTS—At Lynn—Lynn 3, Brockton 2. At Fall River—Fall River 7, Pawtucket 4. At Providence—Providence 10, Worcester 5.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—Young Erne of this city made Mickey Gannon, the Pittsburg slugger, look like a novice in the six-round wind-up at the Washington Sporting Club.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 12.—Charles Pruiett, member of the Boston American's pitching staff in 1907 and 1908, was to-day sold by Cleveland to New Orleans of the Southern League.

Alfred DeOro, the world champion pool player, defeated John T. McHale in the first game of a series at Miah Murray's billiard rooms in the fourteenth frame, the score being 125 to 77.

Van Dyke won his first Class A game in the fifth game of the Class A tournament at the Hub Palace. Van Dyke defeated Nerran by the score of 300 to 168. To-night Engstrom will meet Van Dyke.

SCRANTON, Penn., Jan. 12.—"Bill" Coughlin made positive denial today that he has been sold to the Albany baseball team and declares that he is negotiating with the management of a much stronger team.

Jack Hoey is not going either to Baltimore or Providence. The Red Sox management accepted the offer made by the St. Paul club and the old Holy Cross boy will perform this season on a Western diamond.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—George Dovey of the Boston National League Club spent several hours in consultation with President Pulliam. It is known that the case of Joe Kelley vs. the Boston Club was the subject of their discussion.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 12.—Dorando Pietri won a Marathon race against Percy Smallwood of Philadelphia, who quit the race after covering 12 miles and 8 laps because his left leg hurt him. Dorando's time was 2 hours 41 minutes and 32 2-5 seconds—10 seconds slower than the world's indoor record.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 12.—Tom Flanagan has severed all connection with Longboat. Flanagan unexpectedly returned home from New York on Saturday, where he had gone to manage Longboat for his coming race with Shrubb. He has turned the contract over to Pat Powers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Calvin Demarest, the billiardist, played here against local professional players, the games being at 250 points at 18.2 balk line. In the first game he was beaten by W. H. Spinks, 250 to 199, and in the second contest he defeated Tom Gallagher, 250 to 209.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 12.—Tommy Lowe of Washington beat Dummy Decker of Baltimore in fifteen rounds. Young Clifford of Boston, who said he came here to meet Terry Martin, had a six-round go with Billy Whistler. Whistler made Clifford look very cheap.

At the Young Men's A. C. in Salem George Murray of Lynn was substituted for Eddie Ryan of Pawtucket in the main bout with Jimmie Hanlon of Chelsea. Murray came back strong near the end, earning a draw. Jimmie Dunn of Swampscott and Billy Dingle of Boston also went to a draw. Jack Lee lost to Young Daley of Boston in four rounds.

At the annual meeting of the Gentlemen's Driving Club of Boston yesterday, the following directors and officers were elected: Directors, A. S. Bigelow, Henry C. Jackson, John Shepard, Charles Whittemore, Louis Robeson, George F. Leonard, Justin Edwards, Benjamin Pope, T. L. Quimby, Frank G. Hall, Arnold Lawson, A. C. Daley, Charles Sanders; treasurer, Louis Robeson; secretary, T. L. Quimby.

BOXING BITS OF NEWS

The whole police force of Essington attended the Goodman-Corbett fight. He sat at the ringside.

The proposed bout between Young Otto and Bert Keyes at New Haven has been postponed for the present.

Tommy Ryan, the former middleweight champion, may get old Joe Choynski's position as instructor of the Illinois A. C.

George Gunther is still waiting to hear from any man his weight. He would like to take part in a longer bout that six rounds.

Martin Hart is still on the warpath. He wants a chance at Kaufman, Schreck or any other heavyweight, his ultimate aim being Johnson and the world's title.

Marvin Hart has now joined the ranks of the color line brigade. He was offered a match with Langford on the Coast, but declined, saying he would not fight Langford or any other colored boxer. What is to become of poor Sam?

Another Englishman is coming here to get some of the easy money that is lying around loose. This time it is a middleweight named Tom Thomas, and he is said to be the equal of any of the "middles" in this country—at least Owen Moran thinks so.

Frank Chance of the Cubs is out with a statement that he will bet $25,000 in cash on Jeffries if Jim will agree to fight Johnson. Following this a syndicate in San Francisco has agreed to wager $200,000 on Jeffries. Jeff says he won't fight, so the money looks safe.

For January 20 the star attraction of the Fairmont Club, New York, will be a ten-round bout between the two East Side rivals, Leach Cross and Young Otto. Otto's showing against the slow moving Paddy Sullivan was not a brilliant one, but with Cross he will have a chance to "run to his best form."

BASEBALL NEWS AND NOTES

Denver is trying to land Lave Cross at manager.

Arthur Devlin has bought a seventy-acre farm at Odenton, Md., twenty-two miles distant from Washington, D. C.

The Detroit Club practically got a year's work out of Thomas for nothing. Navin paid Farrell $2,200 for Ira. He sold him to Mack for $4,000.

Cleveland's Eastern League captures don't look to amount to much. Barger won 13 and lost 13 for Rochester, and Stanley won 11 and lost 21 for Montreal.

Pitcher Doc Hillebrand, owned by the New York Americans, says he will not play as long as Ban Johnson is president. Better fire Ban, as the Highlanders need good pitchers.

Cleveland critics believe that Bobby Wallace is the greatest shortstop in the American League, but are undecided who is second to the St. Louis star, McBride of the Washingtons or Wagner of Boston.

Joe Cantillon is as stubborn in his refusal to trade Jim Delehanty as Charles Ebbetts is in holding on to Hummell. Cantillon thinks Delehanty has just come to his own as a ball player, and is too valuable to trade.

Hugh Jennings says he will take Bill Coughlin South with the Detroit and if he shows his 1907 form will retain him. Coughlin is working hard in a gymnasium at Scranton with the idea of holding down his job with the Tigers.

Mathewson and Dr. Coakley, who were the opposing pitchers in one of the greatest battles between the Giants and the Athletics in 1905, cross ones almost every day in McGraw's. Andy is a Chicago Cub now, but McGraw doesn't bar him.

Bresnahan is negotiating with McGraw for the release of Arthur Fletcher, whom the Giants' manager paid Joe Gardner of Dallas $1,500 for last Fall. Fletcher is an infielder and played the most sensational fielding game at short on the Dallas team last season ever seen in the Texas League.

It will be interesting to note how much Jac Knight has improved during his stay in the Eastern League after his experience with the Athletics and Boston Americans. Stallings believes New York has secured a good man in the youngster and he had a good chance to size him up.

President Ban Johnson and Secretary Bob McRay of the American League laugh at Wild Bill Donovan's statement that he is the real pitching leader of the organization. They looked the official records over for the second time and still find Ed Walsh the topnotcher.

"Rube" Marquard insists that he must have a part of his purchase money before he reports to the New York team. Two years ago Rube offered to play for nothing in the big league. His name fit him then, but we would suggest that another nickname be given Mr. Marquard.

Waddell is tiding over the Winter comfortably owing to an arrangement made last Spring with President Hedges by which $500 was held out of his salary for payment after the season in instalments of $50 every two weeks.

ROGERS VS. BURNS.

Manager Farren of the Columbia Theatre has signed "Yankee" Rogers, the well-known New England heavyweight wrestler, to meet "Cyclone" Burns at his playhouse to-morrow evening in a handicap catch-as-catch-can match, when Rogers will undertake to throw Burns twice in an hour.

HORSE NEWS TRACK GOSSIP

The Eel took the free-for-all pacers into camp very easily at the Canadian ice races.

It is thought that the good game trotter Dr. Strong (2:05¾) is hopelessly broken down.

Windsor, Ont., is to have a big meeting next July, probably the week before Detroit.

Blue Peter (2:16), by Peter the Great (2:07¼), is likely to be sold for export to Europe.

Manette, the dam of Arion (2:07¾), is still a pensioner at Palo Alto farm. She is thirty years old.

It looks as though the amateur horsemen of Cleveland are to have a new speedway as good as the best.

The futurity stake that has been opened for the produce of mares bred in 1908 is one of the most liberal that has yet been opened.

The annual meeting of the Metropolitan Driving Club will be held at the Charles River clubhouse on Wednesday evening.

The owner of Zombro (2:11 states that the great son of McKinney (2:11¼) will not return to California after leaving for Kentucky.

H. P. Gallup of the Dorchester Driving Club thinks that in Judge Green (2:09) he has a trotter that will make them all step on the speedway.

Louise Volland, who took a three-year-old record of 2:18¾ the past season, is said to have shown a half in 1:03 and a quarter in 31 seconds.

Many improvements are to be made at the Brunot's Island plant, Pittsburg. The track itself is to be relayed, which should make it one of the fastest in the country.

Millard Saunders thinks that Ruth Dillon (2:06¼) will take the measure of Hamilton Belle (2:04¾) and Jack Leyburn (2:04½) in the 2:05 classes the coming season.

The Frank Smith who was reported to have committed murder and suicide at Detroit was not Frank G. Smith, the starting judge and turf writer. The press dispatches got mixed.

Colonel A. C. Drinkwater thinks that his brood mare Castanea, the dam of Cochato (2:11¼), is surely with foal by Sir Todd.

It is said that the Cleveland trotter Harry McKerron (2:24¼), may be the only American trotter to compete in the big international race to take place in St. Petersburg, Russia, in February.

It is not surprising that C. K. G. Billings finds Tempus Fugit (2:07¼) a good saddle horse after but little experience. The grand-dam of the gelding was a mare that was used for saddle purposes for years.

It is said that the queen of trotters, Lou Dillon (1:58½), will be bred this year to either Bingen (2:06¼) or Peter the Great (2:07¼). She has had two foals by John A. McKerron (2.04½) and is again with foal by that stallion.

FAST BOUT FOR LOCAL FANS

Tommy Quill vs. Young Loughrey. Those who saw these two fighting machines in their last two encounters know what is coming off when the pair meet to-night in the ring at the Armory A. A. in their twelve-round journey for the third time.

It's no easy problem to pick the winner. It's too even. Loughrey is liked by some because he got a draw the first time the two battled, and the second time got the decision. According to the dope, he should be the favorite. But the Brockton boy has trained especially to redeem himself and has centred all his prospects in the ring on the result of the bout to-night.

Loughrey, feeling the confidence of his last victory, can't see where the local boy has a chance, but Quill will not lack for the support of his townsmen, who will back him as they have so often done before with favorable results.

Quill has reported that he has learned his lesson from experience in the previous contests and has his cue how to beat the Quaker on this occasion.

As Loughrey is the toughest proposition who ever came over from Slowtown, and they raise some pretty hard nuts in the fighting line over there, it will be all the Quill's credit if he can get away with the verdict.

It's a matter of make or break with Quill. Should he lose his ring reputation will suffer a rupture that it will take years to overcome, and he has everything at stake in the encounter. For that reason the fans will see Tommy striving to overcome an opponent and will bring out all the best that is in him.

The preliminaries are of the 14-karet variety. Two new champions will combat with local lads. Mike Cunningham, the best lightweight in Maine, takes on the demon from Pawtucket, Kid Manning. Tommy Bergen, the top featherweight of Maine, with the Terry McGovern style, is to measure biffs with Eddie Carr.

GETS MAUD S. SHOE.

The famous Maud S. horseshoe that for over twenty years had hung in the great hall at the Glenville track, Cleveland, has been presented to Mrs. William Edwards, widow of Colonel Edwards, the president of the Cleveland Driving Park Company for many years, and who gave Maud S. the word "Go!" when she trotted her world-famous mile in 2:08¾ there July 30, 1885.

About That California Trip

The Overland Limited is the preferred train for first-class travel to California. Carries standard sleepers only. Its route is via Omaha and Ogden. Leaves Chicago 6:05 p. m. daily via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry.

Another train via this route at 10:10 p. m. daily. Carries both standard and tourist sleepers. $7 for double berth in tourist sleeper from Chicago to California. Personally conducted tourist car parties to California via Kansas City leave Chicago 10:10 p. m. Wednesdays and Fridays.

COMPLETE INFORMATION FREE.

W. W. HALL,
New England Agent,
368 Washington Street, - Boston, Mass.

NELSON SAYS ROSE WILL BE GREAT BOXER

BY TAD.

Battling Nelson is going on record now as saying that Ralph Rose, the giant shot putter, will be heard from soon in the squared circle.

Rose, as was mentioned in the SUNDAY AMERICAN on this page, is training to enter the ring and fight Jack Johnson.

"You fellows probably laugh at the idea of Rose boxing, eh?" declared Battling Nelson when he read the article. "Now I happen to know something about that guy and if he ever learns to hit they'll have an awful time stopping him. He came out to my training quarters at Colma when I was working for my fight with Britt and, on the level, he surprised us. He's only a big kid, you know, twenty-three years old, but say, he's as high up as a house. Oh, what a reach!

"He put on the gloves with me one afternoon and I can usually get into any of them in the mix, but I might just as well have tried to hit the Statue of Liberty.

"Rose just loves to box. He told me that he was boxing all of the time in college, but that he hurt his thumbs a lot. See, that's it. These big fellows go in and slug with one another and hit with the thumb instead of their knuckles. Rose would break his hands in two rounds unless he was taught to hit right.

"He can bump you like a cannon ball with a jab, but when the going gets hot he slams any old way in order to hit you and that's where the hands go bad again.

"Say, if you think he can't hit I'll tell you what I saw him do. One of the sports out there that afternoon bet $50 that he couldn't drop a cow with a punch, and Rose took him up. He bound his right hand an inch thick with tape and then put a punching bag glove on it. We had to tear the glove at that to get it on, and then went over to the pasture near Millet's roadhouse and picked out a big burly cow.

"Rose took his hat off and walked up to the cow and belted it right between the eyes with his right. The cow folded up a little, like an accordion, shook for a fraction of a second and tumbled down. We thought it was dead, but after about five minutes it got up again. They tell me that Jeff killed a bear with a punch. I'll bet money Rose can hit harder than Jeff and Johnson combined."

BAT JOHNSON IS PUT AWAY

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12.—After three and one-half rounds of terrific fighting, Ralph Galloway of Redlands knocked out Battling Johnson of Los Angeles in a scheduled twenty-round contest before the Bay City Athletic Club at San Diego.

In the fourth round Galloway knocked Johnson to the floor eight times. Johnson was absolutely helpless, though he gamely staggered to his feet and wanted to continue the fight. The police, however, prevented the contest continuing.

"GOAT" ANDERSON SIGNS.

"Goat" Anderson, the Cleveland boy, who shone as a member of the Pittsburg team for a short time, will be with Rochester in the Eastern League this year. For a time Anderson was mentioned as the possible manager of the Terre Haute team.

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

OLD CROW RYE

Delicious flavor. Sold only in our registered bottles. Never sold in bulk.

All Dealers

H. B. KIRK & CO., Sole Bottlers, N. Y.

Want to Hire Men?

A small ad. in the AMERICAN Male Help Column will get you all the men you want for any kind of work.

10c for 7 Words

PHONE YOUR AD—5180 Main

Free premiums of table china and useful gifts to all want ad vertisers in SUNDAY AMERICAN

HURLED BOOKS AT DAUGHTER

Mrs. Josephine W. Taylor, daughter of the late Mrs. Caroline E. Johnson of New York and Newport, and contestant of her will, will again be called to the witness stand in the Probate Court to-day before Judge George. On the stand yesterday Mrs. Taylor said that there was a great change in the mental condition of her mother after the driving accident in Lenox in 1881, and she was subject to attacks of ungovernable temper.

Any illness caused by a lack of blood will be benefited by a course of treatment with

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

They increase the red matter in the blood and enable it to carry to every organ and tissue an increased supply of oxygen, the great supporter of life.

Send today for booklet of information and cures.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

RYE
FULL QUART
G.O. BLAKE'S
BLEND WHISKY
Adams, Taylor & Co.
PROPRIETORS
BOSTON, MASS.
REGISTERED

The Subtile Aroma, Savory Flavor, and Superior Quality

OF GOOD OLD BLAKE

ARE THE Inseparable Characteristics AND THE Insuperable Obstacles To Rivalry.

In FULL Quarts.

Rye or Bourbon.

See that our signature is branded on the cork.

Adams, Taylor & Co., 193-195 State St., Boston.

TODAY

MECHANICS BUILDING

10 A. M. TO 10 P. M.

POULTRY

Every variety, including POLISH FOWLS, ANDALUSIANS, ORPINGTONS and GAMES.

Turkeys, Geese and Pheasants

PIGEONS

All varieties, and the greatest show of FANTAILS and JACOBINS ever seen.

PET STOCK

RABBITS, GUINEA PIGS and MICE

CAGE BIRDS

JANUARY 12 TO 16

CATS

Nearly 300. Many champions on exhibition.

JANUARY 14 TO 16

10 A. M. TO 10 P. M.

To reach Wolf's "My Clothier," cor. Hanover and Portland streets, by the Washington street tunnel, passengers going south should leave at Friend st. exit; those going north at Union st.

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

NEW FEATURES AT THE THEATRES

Judging by the uproarious welcome he has received on his return engagement in Boston, one would think that Bostonians had never seen Harry Lauder, the Scotch singer and comedian, before. For one even hour he held the stage at the Orpheum Theatre last night. When he finally ceased to come out it was in spite of insistent and continued applause by an audience that jammed the floor and balcony, the boxes, an extra row of chairs in the orchestra pit and which lined the back rail as deep as it could stand and see.

Lauder was escorted to and from the theatre by the Highland Military Band in full Scottish regalia. The house was decorated with British and American flags in his honor. President Alexander MacGregor of the Scots Charitable Society had one box party, General Joseph Whitney of the State police and party were in another box, and former Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., was the central figure in another box. General Guild received a tumultuous welcome from the house, to which he bowed his acknowledgement.

Lauder began with "The Wedding O' Sandy McNabb," following this with "Hi, Donald." Then the orchestra played the opening strain of "For She's Ma Daisy" and the audience applauded even before the comedian began, to say nothing of the encores given when he came to the song.

The longest number and one which seemed to appeal most to the human interest of the audience was "The Safest of the Family," in which Lauder's art, homely but irresistibly natural, was given fullest play. Through his impersonation of the pathetic half-witted lad, Lauder had the audience with a tear in one eye and a smile in the other, as it were.

"Mary, My Scotch Bluebell," with its melodious lilting chorus, was sung again and again in answer to encores. The whole hour was another Boston triumph for the singer, who will be at the Orpheum this week and next.

The rest of the bill, distinctly good, included Ed Foster and his dog "Wise Mike," Smirl and Kessner, the Quaker City Four, W. S. Harvey and Adamini and Taylor, Mlle. Louise and her monkeys and Maude Morris.

Lively Bill at Keith's.

"The Naked Truth," a skit, presented by Harry Davenport and Phyllis Rankin, the old-time Boston favorites, leads the bill at Keith's this week. The story is of a Scotch laddie and a pretty maid of Normandy, who in their wooing dally with the truth. At each lie some article of their clothing mysteriously disappears. The girl's father appears at the psychological moment and prevents the title of the playlet from becoming a realized fact.

The third "Mag Haggerty" sketch by Thomas J. Ryan, Smith and Campbell, Fred Sosman, Kremka Brothers, Joe and Sadie Briton are excellent features. "Weaving the Net," a detective sketch in which Lisle Leigh and her company appear, is brimful of emotional acting. El Cota, Kelly and Ashby, "the bounding billiardists," and Bonnie Beverly and Vincent Van Dyck complete the offering.

The Sicilian Players.

Mimi Aguglia and a company of talented Sicilian actors appeared yesterday afternoon for the first time here at the Majestic Theatre in the Italian drama "Malia," or "Sorcery." While the lines of the entire play are in the dialect of Southern Italy the situations were so compelling and vivid as to make the performance notable.

Luigi Capuana, an Italian poet and novelist, is the author of the drama.

The struggles of Jana, the part taken by Mimi Aguglia, against her love for Cola, Salvatore la Turco, her sister's husband, and her final pathetic yielding are vivid indeed, and the rage of Nino, the deceived sweetheart and his duel with Cola are dramatic and artistic, although to the ordinary observer much of the play is to be followed by the pantomime.

"Malia" will be performed again this afternoon, while at the matinee on Thursday the drama will be V. Guineral's "La Peccatrice," and on Friday afternoon "Cavaleria Rusticana" and Alfredo Oriani's "I Carbunara."

"Circus Girl" Popular.

John Craig and his stock company at the Castle Square Theatre are in the third week of "The Circus Girl." The production began its present run Christmas Eve. Judging from yesterday's reception by two crowded houses, the piece might easily run indefinitely. "The Circus Girl" is an English production. It is one of the most popular of all the plays that have been brought here from the other side of the Atlantic.

Tremont Theatre.

"The Follies of 1908" is drawing to the Tremont Theatre audiences which tax the capacity of the house and proving the claim of the management that it is the best musical revue of its kind which Mr. Ziegfeld has yet offered. Miss Nora Bayes has achieved a very distinct triumph in this production, and there are others in the company who are very deserving of praise.

Park Theatre.

Frank Daniels in "Hook of Holland" will leave the Park Theatre at the close of the present week, after one of the most successful runs that house has known in years. The theatre has been crowded for eight weeks by this musical comedy, the fun-making star and his most excellent supporting company. There is not a dull moment. Laughter is continuous, and the music of a very catchy order.

Majestic Theatre.

"Girls," by Clyde Fitch, is a comedy which has served to fill the Majestic Theatre at every performance since it began there last week. It will not be the bill longer than this week. It is worth everybody's while, and is quite a novelty.

Bowdoin Square Theatre.

"Garry Owen" is the play which the popular stock company is giving at the Bowdoin Square Theatre this week. It is a lively Irish drama, full of smiles and tears, and one scene is a representation of the famous Donnybrook Fair. Hal Clarendon plays the title role. The moving pictures were as good as ever.

Globe Theatre.

Lew Dockstader and his minstrels are giving at the Globe Theatre the kind of a show it is hard to equal in days when novelty in the burnt cork line is seldom encountered. But the Dockstader show is a departure from beaten paths. The singing is of a high character and the fun wholesome and infectious. Mr. Dockstader is at his best, his stories are delightfully funny and his whole act unctuous with humor. His local jokes made a very pronounced hit.

Boston Theatre.

One of the most taking stage acts now to be seen in Boston, is that given at the Boston Theatre by Franz Ranier's Tyrolians. But there are other features of excellence, including Punch and Judy and pictures.

"The Outlaw's Christmas"

An appreciative audience at the Grand Opera House last night saw "The Outlaw's Christmas," Theodore Kremer's latest creation. The play fairly is alive with interesting and exciting scenes and climaxes. The plot begins in New York, from where all are transported to the gold mines of Alaska, back to Colorado, and then to the metropolis.

The leading role of Jack Foster was admirably portrayed by E. A. Turner. Gertrude Dion Magill scored a triumph as Kate Foster, the heroine. Others deserving of praise were W. M. Cavanaugh, Virginia Howell and May Henderson.

Columbia Theatre.

Sam T. Jack's Burlesquers are at the Columbia Theatre this week and are making the big hit which the talent of the aggregation deserves. Edgar Bixley is the leading comedian and a great local favorite. Hilda Hawthorne, another leading member of the company, has a fine voice and is endowed with beauty besides. The ballroom dancers will appear to-night.

Colonial Theatre.

"Polly of the Circus," with beautiful and winsome Mabel Taliaferro as star, is still at the Colonial Theatre, and this dramatic story, with a tender setting, has won great favor in the hearts of Bostonese. It is a delightful play and the star is a charming actress. It is a drama much out of the ordinary, and Miss Taliaferro portrays the heroine with a sympathic understanding that makes her performances quite irresistible.

Gaiety Theatre.

Fred Irwin's Majestics came to the Gaiety Theatre yesterday and convinced the big audiences which greeted them that as entertainers they are right up in the front rank. There are sixty-five people in the company, and the musical score was especially composed for this production. Gus Fay and Joe Hollander are leading comedians and the fair members of the organization include Marie Hartman and Evelyn Walker.

John L. at the Howard.

John L. Sullivan, the champion of champions, is the mammoth headliner at the Howard this week. His side partner in this engagement is Jake Kilrain, who fought him for the belt in '89 for seventy-five rounds and failed to beat the Boston boy. There were pictures of the Corbett-McCoy fight shown and the Miss New York, Jr., Company furnished the burlesque. It is a bang up show.

Hollis Street Theatre.

John Drew began another week last evening at the Hollis Street Theatre in his new comedy, "Jack Straw," which is the first play by W. Somerset Maugham ever given in Boston. He is a dramatist with a great London vogue. It is said of Mr. Drew that he has never been seen in a role which he appeared to more thoroughly enjoy playing. The theatre has been packed by his delighted admirers.

Palace Theatre.

Phil Sheridan's City Sports opened the week at the Palace Theatre, an entertainment which caught on from the start. The company appeared in two travesties which made the crowd laugh to repletion. One is known as "The Tenderfoot Dance," and the other as "Maids of Siam." The olio performers were all fine.

Austin & Stone's.

Randion, the armless and legless wonder; the Aztec twins, the girls with the orange beads, and the human enigma, the blue man of Persia, held chief place on the curio hall boards at Austin & Stone's Museum yesterday. Bonnette, the aerial artist, did amazing stunts in midair; Vellecco gave a lively exhibition of scientific bag punching, and there were many other attractions.

In the theatre the Manhattan Girls made a big hit. Powell and Steele furnished a laugh in "A Job for Everybody." The Arthurs, Nelson and Perkins, Tom Bullock, Fagan and Merriam and a fine assortment of the latest moving pictures complete the bill.

Moving Picture Houses.

The bill at the Star Theatre, Tremont Row, is excellent. Professor Hammond's lecture on "A Florida Feud" clearly describes thrilling scenes of modern tragedy. "Ted and His Sister," "The Worm Will Turn" and "The Tenderfoot" make a great hit. Some new and catchy illustrated songs are sung.

Good humor, splendid comedy and excellent music are found in the entertainment presented at the Scenic Temple, corner Berkeley street and Warren avenue, this week. The olio is exceptionally good and the several numbers are right up to date, including a monologist, protean artists and vocal and instrumental specialties, and also a clever comedy skit. Variety is the slogan at the Hub Theatre, where twentieth century vaudeville, Miles Brothers' moving pictures and illustrated songs are the attractions. Included in the vaudeville bill are That Misfit Trio, composed of Taneau, Felix and Claxton, St. Clair Brothers and Marie Davis, comedienne.

FAIR WARNING

Be Careful Not to Put Secret Preparations on Your Hair.

The day is going, and going fast, and going forever, when unscrupulous men can openly humbug and defraud the public with fake preparations for the hair. The day is close at hand when no sane man or woman will put anything on their hair or head unless they know exactly what it is. People are realizing more and more that hair and scalp troubles generally are overcome by simply keeping the head clean. Dandruff, as a rule, is a condition arising from neglect to cleanse the scalp regularly with the proper cleanser. From the pores of the scalp there comes an oily secretion, together with used-up cells and other waste matter that Nature is through with and throws off. The oily secretion is intended to keep the scalp soft and the hair lustrous. But the trouble is that dust, dirt and disease germs float around in the air and settle on this oily matter, which holds them fast. In a short time scales or dandruff form on the scalp and the pores become clogged. The hair roots do not receive the proper nourishment and soon the hair falls out, sometimes so badly that baldness is only a little way off. You resort to hair "tonics," "invigorators" and "growers," but the trouble remains just the same. In time you try everything of the sort you hear of, and in the end you realize that your money has been thrown away. Soaps and shampoos generally do not help you, because they remove the oily secretions, leave the scalp and hair dry, and rob them of the very thing Nature intended to soften the scalp and give lustre to the hair. There is sold in the drug stores a preparation called Birt's Head Wash that is widely favored because the ingredients of which it is made are printed on each package. They are as follows: Refined Soap, Glycerin, White of Eggs, Salicylic Acid and Cochin Cocoanut Oil. Be sure and show this formula to your doctor or druggist, and ask his opinion of it. The Cochin Cocoanut Oil in Birt's Head Wash takes the place of the oily secretion supplied by Nature. When you are through using this Head Wash, your Hair will be lustrous and your scalp soft, smooth and clean. Follow this rule: Don't put a drop of anything on your head unless you know exactly what it is, and your hair troubles will be a thing of the past. Price 50 cents.

You prove the matchless quality of "Salada" Tea the first time you drink it. Get a 10c trial packet from your grocer.

"The Busiest Corner on Boston's Busiest Street."

James A. Houston Company

P. H. Magrane, Pres. P. B. Magrane, Treas.

4th ANNUAL JANUARY SALE OF

Ostrich Plumes

Below Manufacturer's Cost

NOTE—Comparative values used by many stores in advertising sales of Ostrich Plumes during the past season have been so grossly exaggerated and misleading that we have decided to quote only the exact lengths and sale prices. We state most emphatically and positively that these are the best Ostrich Plume values this store has ever offered.

French Curl Plumes

13-inch black Plumes.....95c
14-inch black Plumes.....1.45
15 9-16-inch black and white.....1.98
16 ½-inch black Plumes.....2.95

Extra Wide Plumes

15-inch black Plumes.....2.45
15 7-10-inch black Plumes.....2.95
16 1-10-inch black Plumes.....3.95
16 1-5-inch black Plumes.....4.98

Hand-Knotted Willow Plumes

12 11-16-inch black Plumes.....2.95
14-inch black Plumes.....3.95
15 1-5-inch black Plumes.....4.95
16-inch black Plumes.....5.95
16 6-8-inch black Plumes.....6.95
18 1-10-inch black Plumes.....7.95
Blk. Head Tips, 3 to bch.....1.98, 2.95

GOVERNOR'S SON DYING IN POVERTY

Relief Hospital physicians say that Walter Anderson, son of the late ex-Governor Hugh J. Anderson of Maine, suffering from a cerebral hemorrhage, cannot live through the night. He was found early yesterday unconscious in a doorway of Commercial wharf.

For six years and known by longshoremen as "Monkey" Anderson, he has earned enough money there to give him such scant food as he needed, and occasionally the luxury of a bed. For years, it is said, he has barely existed.

A friend said to-day that Anderson had a falling out with the folks at home in Belfast, Me., when he was twenty-one and went to sea. They never heard of him again until six years ago. He is now sixty-two years old. His father, who was Governor of Maine as a Whig Democrat from 1844 to 1848, long since died, and his ship chandler's business at Belfast is owned by others. Two sisters are living in Maine and a brother lives on Mt. Desert Island.

WOMAN LOSES IN WILL CASE FIGHT

The Supreme Court has dismissed the petition of Mrs. Oscalena A. Coe against Arthur D. Hill et al, trustees, to determine a trust in her favor by the will of her father Timothy E. Stewart of Newton on grounds that she is permanently separated from her husband. Both live in England. The court held that the will meant divorce, or death of her husband, and that in the English law, there is nothing to prevent the resumption of marriage relations.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

SANFORD'S GINGER NOG

Beat one egg in a tumbler with two teaspoonfuls sugar and one of Sanford's Ginger. Fill the tumbler with boiling milk and grate nutmeg on top. A delicious digestive nutrient. Always healthful.

$25,000.00

As a guarantee that the story of Father John's Medicine is absolutely true, the sum of $25,000 will be given to any charitable institution if it can be shown otherwise.

Half a century ago, when the late Father John O'Brien of Lowell, Mass., recommended to his parishoners and friends the prescription that had restored him to health and strength, the people named it Father John's Medicine.

Its power to make strength and build up the body explains why it cures colds and all Throat and Lung Troubles.

Exchange Trust Company

We welcome new accounts—the amount is not a consideration—and we assure you of every courtesy and accommodation consistent with safe banking principles. Out-of-town merchants and individual depositors are invited to acquaint themselves with our facilities and means of accommodation.

A Progressive, Conservative Bank.

Interest allowed from date of opening your account.
Special rate of interest allowed for Trust Funds.
Privileges of banking rooms extended to all depositors.

33 State St., Boston.

Calendar for 1909 ready.

THEATRES. THEATRES.

Castle Sq. Mats. Daily at 2 Evenings at 8
The John Craig Stock Company in The Circus Girl
POSITIVELY LAST WEEK
Downtown Ticket Office, 11 Temple Place
Next Week—THE BELLS OF HASLEMERE.

COLONIAL THEATRE
TONIGHT AT 8:15—SECOND WEEK
FREDERIC THOMPSON Presents
Mabel Taliaferro
In the Distinctively American Play,
POLLY of the CIRCUS
By MARGARET MAYO.
MATS. WED. & SAT. AT 2:15

SCENIC TEMPLE
BERKELEY ST. & WARREN AV.
Mats. daily 2.30. Eve. continuous from 7. Saturday continuous from 2.30

GRAND OPERA HOUSE
Eve'gs at 8: 20c, 35c, 50c, 75c
Mats. Tues., Thurs., Sat. at 2. Mats. 1500 reserved 25c
Children under 14, 10c, 15c
OUTLAW'S CHRISTMAS
FRIDAY NIGHT AMATEURS
Next Week—THE COWBOY GIRL

BOWDOIN SQUARE THEATRE
THE GREAT IRISH DRAMA AT 2 & 8.
GARRY OWEN
including Moving Pictures 1:30 to 2 and 7:30 to 8; also between the acts. Any seat in the house 25c. Next week, "Stowaway."

GAIETY DAILY AT 2.15 & 8 P. M.
THE MAJESTICS
Res. Orch. Seats 25c-50. Tel. Oxford 89.

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

Goodyear RAINCOAT COMPANY — 16 Summer St. BOSTON

5 DAY SALE

Of All Kinds of

WATERPROOF GARMENTS

At Terrific Reductions! Stupendous Sacrifices! Stunning Underpricing!

ABOUT HALF PRICE

Will be the rule. We must absolutely sell all the contents of our 16 Summer St. Store, owing to the expiration of lease and the short renewal allowed us. Nothing will be carried to our new store—everything here will be sold here.

BOYS AND GIRLS

Youths' Raincoats, $10.50 values.....4.98
Boys' $6 Cravenettes.....2.98
Girls' $5 Hood-Capes.....2.48
Girls' $3 Capes.....1.25

MEN'S RAINCOATS

$12 values.....5.98
$15 values.....6.98
$18 Priestley Cravenettes.....8.98
$25 Priestley Cravenettes.....12.48
$28 Cravenette-Overcoats.....13.98
$40 Cravenette-Overcoats.....19.98

WOMEN'S RAINPROOF COATS

$10 Rainproof Coats.....4.98
$12 Rainproof Coats.....5.98
$12 Cravenettes.....5.98
$15 Cravenettes.....7.48
$15 Rubber-Silk Coats.....7.48
$15 Moires.....7.48
$18 Priestley Cravenettes.....8.98

$20, $22.50, $25, $30, $32.50, $35 Rubberized-Silk Coats, Silk-Moire Coats, Priestley Cravenettes and Cloudburst Raincoats for Women

HALF PRICE

With absolutely no reserve on any garment in the store at these or higher prices.

SHOP EARLY

Goodyear RAINCOAT COMPANY — 16 Summer St. BOSTON

THE.TRES. THEATRES.

GREAT

This is the word that hits the nail on the head when speaking of John L. Sullivan. His mighty wallop in the old days was the thing that brought honor and glory to his native city and had much to do with putting Boston on the map, so far as real sport is concerned.

JOHN L.

Besides being a solar plexus expert is also the Sporting Editor of the Boston American and his fight gossip is a knockout in itself. John will hand his monologue spiel and also entertain his friends with his old time opponent, Jake Kilrain, this week at the Old

HOWARD

Always Something Doing From 1 Till 11.
Smoking Allowed.

"THE NAKED TRUTH"
Sidney Drew's great production of Edward A. Paulton's comic operetta, with Harry Davenport, Phyllis Rankin and a company of 25, is a sensational hit
AT KEITH'S
The current program also includes Thomas J. Ryan-Richfield Company in "Mag Haggerty's Reception"; Smith and Campbell; Lisle Leigh and Company in "Weaving the Net"; Kremka Brothers; Fred Sosman; The Brittons; El Cota; Kelly and Ashby; Beverly and Van Dyck, and The Kinetograph

ORPHEUM
TUNNEL TO DOOR
At Summer-Winter Sts.
Daily Mats. 2 P. M. Evenings 8 P. M.
Triumphant Return of the Famous Scotch Comedian
Scotland's Idol HARRY LAUDER England's Pet
Most Remarkable Entertainer on the Stage
Positively HIS LAST Appearance in Boston
Quaker City Quartet, Adamini & Taylor, W. S. Harvey & Co.
Biggest Show Ever Seen in Boston

MAJESTIC MAT. WED. LAST WEEK
Clyde Fitch's Comedy GIRLS
SPECIAL MATINEE TODAY MALIA
THE FAMOUS TRAGEDIENNE
MIMI AGUGLIA
And Her Company of 60 Sicilian Players.
Thurs. Mat., PECCATRICE
Fri. Mat., CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA and CARBUNNER
NEXT WEEK—SEATS THURSDAY
LOUISE GUNNING
in PIXLEY & LUDER'S OPERETTA MARCELLE
ALL STAR SUNDAY CONCERT

GLOBE Mat. Wed. 25-50 Eve'gs 25-35-50-75-$1
LEW SECOND BIG WEEK Come Early and Get In DOCKSTADER AND HIS MINSTRELS
70—BURNT CORK STARS—70
Every Sunday Night—Popular 25-50 Concert

COLUMBIA
DANCE CONTEST — TONIGHT —
List of Entries:
Charles Morrison.....South End
Jabber Mahoney.....Roxbury
Ike Allen.....Dorchester
Chicken Fox.....Roxbury Jack Russell.....Roxbury
Joe Shaughnessy.....Dorchester
And Their Lady Partners.
Daily Mat. SAM T. JACK'S OWN CO.

HOLLIS ST. THEATRE
LAST 7 TIMES
Evgs. at 8:15. Mats. Wed. & Sat. at 2:15.
Charles Frohman Presents
JOHN DREW
In the Season's Best Comedy
JACK STRAW
NEXT WEEK—"THE DEVIL," With Edwin Stevens

TREMONT THEATRE
Tonight at 8. Wednesday Mat. at 2
"TOWN TALK"
ZIEGFELD'S
Latest Musical Revue
FOLLIES of 1908
With NORA BAYES

PARK THEATRE LAST 5 NIGHTS at 8 MAT. SAT. at 2
CHARLES FROHMAN PRESENTS
FRANK DANIELS
In the Dutch Musical Incident
Hook of Holland
NEXT WEEK FANNIE WARD In THE NEW LADY BANTOCK

PALACE
City Sports Burlesquers
Smoking Allowed
Amateurs Friday Night

HUB THEATRE Dover and Washington Sts
THAT MISFIT TRIO
Taneau, Felix and Clayton

AMUSEMENTS.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE
For the Benefit of
ITALY'S EARTHQUAKE SUFFERERS
"The EXPLORATIONS of the DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI."
By Prof. Charles E. Fay, at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, 458 Boylston St., on Tuesday, Jan. 12, 8 P. M. The entire receipts will be given to the Massachusetts Italian relief fund. Under the auspices of the Boston Italian Club. Tickets at $1, 75c. and 50c., at Herrick's, Cusumano's, 292 Boylston St., and at the Association Hall.

PROVIDENCE JOY LINE
$2.40 TO NEW YORK
Via Rail and Boat
DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY
Ticket Office, 214 Washington St.

THE AMERICANS MAGAZINE PAGE

"Samson"

A novelization of the play by Henri Bernstein, author of "The Thief" and "Israel," published by permission of Charles Frohman.

By JOSEPH O'BRIEN.

CHAPTER XXI.

The Collapse of Egyptian Copper.

BRACHARD was confident that his plans could not miscarry, and he was on the point of revealing his purpose to Govain; of gloating over his ruin, when the interruption came. It was Deveaux who had come to tell him, not that his orders had been carried out, but that there had been a hitch. Brachard had expected that he would be able to break the market in Egyptian Copper, with but slight loss to himself. He had not thought it might be necessary for him to suffer financially while he killed his rival's fortune. But that was the news brought to him by Deveaux.

"I rushed here on the most serious business," Deveaux said as he entered the apartment, out of breath.

"Hush; don't talk so loudly. Has it reached 600?"

"No," Deveaux exclaimed wildly.

"Speak low," Brachard admonished, shaking his business agent by the shoulder. "Where is it?"

"Seven hundred and fifty."

"What! It hasn't fallen a hundred? What right had you to leave the exchange?" Brachard demanded furiously.

"But, sir"——

Brachard had his hand on the broker's collar and was shaking him. He was in a rage.

"I gave orders that you were not to leave until it had gone to 600," he said.

"Will you listen to me, sir?" Deveaux implored.

"Yes. Speak."

"It opened at 805. London reported a drop of 40."

"Is that all?"

"Yes. We began to sell immediately, and I can tell you we had trouble knocking it down."

"Did you fix a limit?" Brachard demanded furiously. "If necessary you should have thrown 200,000 shares on the market. You should have obeyed my orders."

"If we had done that you would have been ruined. But there was an intervention," Deveaux explained.

"An intervention? What do you mean by that?"

"This is official," Deveaux went on hurriedly. "Baron Hart has interfered."

"We are on the best of terms," Brachard interrupted.

"Yes; that may be so, but the Baron told me that he would put a stop to the fall at 500 francs. The Baron is devoted to you, but naturally he feared that such a fall in copper would demoralize the whole market."

"He's wrong," Brachard exclaimed. "The other stocks would not be affected. Rush to the Baron, Deveaux, and try to"——

"You know how useless that would be," Deveaux exclaimed.

Brachard paced angrily up and down the floor. Deveaux went on:

"Under such conditions my duty was clear, it seemed to me. I stopped the panic and here I am. Had I continued and followed your instructions blindly what would have happened? Copper would have gone down to 600; yes, but you would have wiped out a vast number of fortunes. To-morrow those poor people would have been forced to sell everything. That made the Baron come forward, and had I continued to sell the stock under his support would have rebounded and you would have been left behind with your entire fortune gone. I tell you, sir, I know what I am talking about."

Resolves to Sacrifice All.

Deveaux was very much in earnest, and Brachard saw that the situation was more critical than he had expected. He walked angrily up and down the room, torn between the desire to avenge the dishonour that Govain had brought upon him and the prospect of losing his own fortune. It was then that there came to him the Bible story of Samson, the man who grappled in his mighty arms the pillars of the temple in which his enemies were gathered and brought it down in ruins upon them, sacrificing his own life in the effort. His own temple was one of gold, which he had built up by hard toil, by constant battle, and the pillars were under his hands. Should he break them and bring his temple down to overwhelm him the while it killed his enemy?

Deveaux watched him as he paced the floor.

"I think it is lucky the Baron warned us," he said. "I will go back to the Exchange now and do whatever you say. I await your orders."

Brachard stopped and braced himself as if for a shock, looking at the broker.

"My orders are the same," he said. "Sell copper until it reaches 600."

"No, no!" Deveaux exclaimed. "This is serious. Do not persist."

"I've listened to you cheerfully; you don't understand the situation," Brachard said in explanation.

"Good heavens! there is only one possible outcome," Deveaux cried. "You will be ruined."

"I have my own views on the subject," Brachard said calmly.

"But you will lose, Mr. Brachard; you will lose!" Deveaux cried. "You have one of the richest men in the world pitted against you. And what is more incredible to me is that I realize that you, too, are sure that you will lose. It is incredible that such intelligence as yours——"

"We are wasting valuable time," Brachard interrupted.

"This thing has turned your head," Deveaux exclaimed. "I believe your strength has made you mad. You are no longer satisfied to predict events. You wish to mould them."

Knew Course Meant Ruin

Deveaux was trying with all his strength to turn Brachard from what he regarded as a course that would lead to financial suicide. The millionaire realized as clearly as his broker that his course meant ruin, but he persisted. He turned angrily now to Deveaux.

"There's nothing I dislike so much as useless words, Deveaux," he said, angrily. "Are you prepared to execute my orders? Say yes or no."

Deveaux knew that his fight was hopeless.

"I owe everything to you, sir," he said, humbly. "You made my fortune for me. I will stand by you."

He looked at his watch and uttered an exclamation of dismay.

"There is no longer time for us to work in the dark," he said. "We must show our hands now. Does that suit you?"

"That suits me perfectly," Brachard exclaimed.

"Very well, then," Deveaux exclaimed resignedly. "If I am lynched by the stockholders of Egyptian Copper before the closing of the market, Egyptian Copper will fall to 600. But when 3 o'clock comes, Monsieur, you can say to yourself that Jacques Brachard, worth $30,000,000 this morning, is a pauper because he was not willing to acknowledge for once in his life that he was wrong."

Deveaux looked at his patron earnestly, still hoping for some sign that he relented.

"You are going to do this?" he asked. "You are determined?"

"Sell copper," Brachard replied.

The broker turned and dashed out of the door, shouting a "Goodby" as he disappeared down the hall. Brachard walked over to the door leading into the other room and threw it open.

Startling News!

"Govain! Govain! Come here," he called.

Govain emerged sleepily, rubbing his eyes and yawning.

"Deuce take it, what a hurry you're in," he said. "I've had such a bully nap, but you have a perfect mania for rousing people out of sleep. That's twice you've done it to me to-day."

"I've some startling news, Jerome," Brachard said.

"Well, rattle away; what is it?"

Brachard looked at him musingly before he spoke. He watched carefully the effect of his words.

"You're a rascal, Jerome," he said, tapping Govain on the shoulder.

His action was peculiar. Govain thought him suddenly demented.

"You seem upset, Brachard," he said. "What's wrong with you?"

"Not at all," Brachard cried lightly. "Would you like to know where Egyptian Copper is? It is now at 750."

"Eight hundred and fifty you mean," said Govain.

"Seven hundred and fifty," Brachard repeated. "It has fallen 100 points, Jerome le Govain."

"What's the matter with you? Have you been drinking while I was asleep?" Govain demanded, growing indignant. "Are you drunk?"

"And in an hour it will fall to 600, Jerome le Govain," Brachard declared, speaking monotonously and looking at Govain under his bent brows.

Govain drew away from him. He reached for his hat and cane. Brachard had been idly playing with the cane a minute earlier and was startled to discover that it was the sheath of a small rapier.

"I'm right; you're drunk," Govain said. "I'll go and let you get over it."

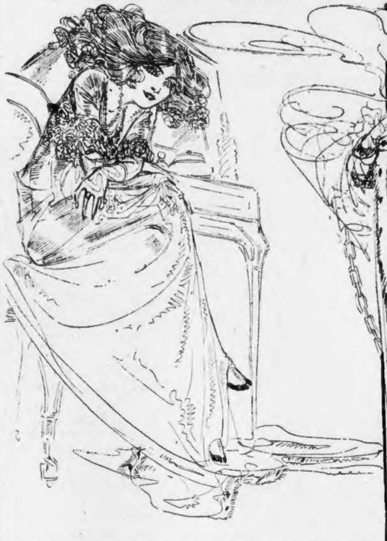
He started toward the door, but Brachard interposed himself and said:

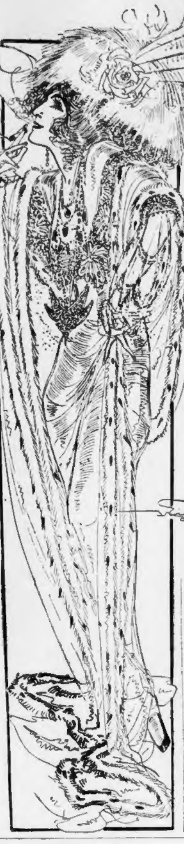
"Just a minute."

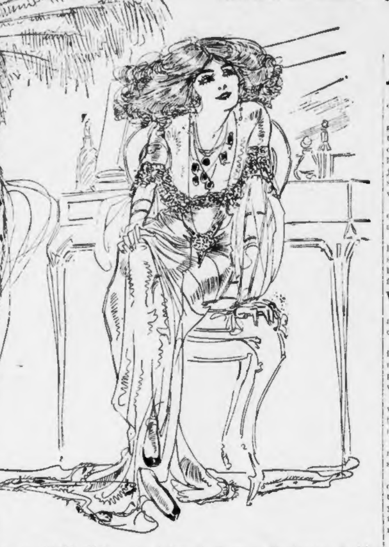
To Be Continued To-morrow.

"Mrs. Cora Brown-Potter Is Slim Like a Flower Stalk"

By NELL BRINKLEY







In the Two Sitting Poses, Mrs. Cora Brown-Potter Is Shown as She Sat in Her Dressing Room.

In the Middle Picture the Actress Is Shown as She Appears Reciting "My Cane-Bottomed Chair."

CORA BROWN POTTER, a rose of the English music halls, who holds them in thrall with "Heart Proverbs" oddly enough over the vaudeville footlights, one of those eternally young women of the world, is telling rhymed tales over them here.

Half talk, half chants, they are, with the monotone of Ethelbert Nevin's always fay-like music singing along underneath her voic.

"My Cane-Bottomed Chair," with the slow smoke of a cigarette curling and drifting above her head, is perhaps the Field's tender little "Boy Blue" touched some woman into hysterday touched some women into hysterical sobbing far back among the shadowed people. Maybe she had one time a little "Boy Blue" and hasn't him now; and her heart was sore.

Cora Brown Potter is still slim and straight like a flower stalk. Her throat and breast are thick with dull green stones, and she lifted the broad, diamond-crusted humming bird swinging loose among the lace at her girdle, and smiling, showed me the gold-tipped cigarettes tucked away there.

Her eyes are very humid and full of light. Maybe they are hazel. I couldn't tell. They changed. Sometimes they were golden, and then away from the light they deepened to black. Her face is lineless, save for the little laughing wrinkles that mark her smiles. And even the very young have them; so they are nothing.

Her hair is brown, lightening to red around her face and ears. It puzzled me a lot. But it is very, very rich under the white fur of her hat.

I watched her long and well, and these are the only—the very only things that were not Youth, in all of her: A queer, delicate shriveling of the flesh at the root of her throat, like chiffon sinking where the body under it falls away; and her elbows. Youth's elbows are smooth-skinned and padded with flesh. Even when they are thin, there is grace and soft flesh in them.

But what little things these two are! For she has Youth in her eyes and voice, and the adroit erectness of her body.

NELL BRINKLEY.

Humanisms

A TRAIN of thought is the real thing in rapid transit.

Those who dodge work are apt to be dodged by the reward.

Marrying for money is better than dying in poverty—sometimes.

It isn't the straight and narrow path for the man who is carrying a jag.

The man who is afraid of doing more than his share is the last to get promoted.

Many a man thinks he is wise because he has no children to expose his ignorance.

A woman merely points out the way for a man to make a fool of himself and he does the rest.

Probably more people attend funerals than weddings because they are not expected to give presents.

When a Girl's in Love, Parents Know Best

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

A GIRL committed suicide the other day because her parents refused consent to her marriage. They did not approve of the man.

I know quite well that when a young girl falls in love she considers herself the only fair judge of the man of her choice! Poor child! If she did but know it, she is the one least capable of judging him. She loves him so that she is quite blind to his faults, and his virtues she exaggerates.

Her parents, the ones most interested in her happiness, she looks upon as monsters of prejudice.

If the poor little girl who took her life had only had the patience to wait, she undoubtedly would have lived to be supremely grateful to her parents for having forbidden the marriage.

Why Die for a Worthless Man?

But she immediately concluded that all happiness was over for her, and decided that life was not worth living.

Just remember this, girls—that, while it is a splendid thing to live for a good man and make him happy, it is a pretty poor sort of thing to die for a man who is not worth loving.

And also bear in mind that there are very few parents who are not pleased to see their daughters make a suitable marriage.

By suitable I do not mean that the man need be wealthy; I mean that he should be good.

Your parents are infinitely better qualified to judge of a man's character than you are, and, in any case, it is your duty to consult them. They have taken care of you all your life. You must not ignore them now.

It is better to have a small heartache now than to be a miserable, heart-broken woman all the rest of your life.

Don't Add to Others' Burdens

If you marry a man who will ill-treat you and cannot support you, you will have to go back home and be a burden on your father. Not many women care to occupy that humiliating position, but that is all that is left for the helpless woman with several small children dependent on her.

Those are the things that you must reckon with when you are headstrong and go against your parents' advice.

When you marry a man because he is good looking, or amusing, or to help him to reform, you run the risk of great unhappiness in the future.

Suicide is a cowardly way out of your difficulties, no matter what they may be. It means that you simply step out of everything, and cast your burden on the shoulders of others.

Be a woman, or man, as the case may be, and shoulder your sorrows bravely. Other people have suffered and survived. You can do the same.

A NEW VERSION

Breathes there a girl on earth to-day, with hair that's slowly turning gray, who in the mirror scans her head and ne'er unto herself hath said, as she lets out a soulful sigh: "I really think I ought to dye!"

The Stenographer

She Offers a Few Remarks About the Way Men Talk to Their Wives

By Dorothy Dix

"I SEE," said the Stenographer, "that a man out West gave a neighbor woman some back talk the other day that was real sassy, and she had him run in for it. When the case came up for trial the man explained to the judge that he had only talked to the lady in the way he was in the habit of speaking to his wife, and he thought he could treat any woman like he treated his wife."

"That's where he fell down with a dull, sickening thud," responded the Bookkeeper. "There's mighty little family conversation that is fit to be handed out in company."

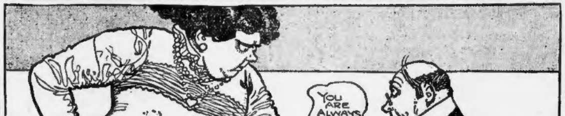
"You are on," agreed the Stenographer, "and I am wise to this—if the average husband talked to any other woman who has an able-bodied brother in the way he does to his wife, he would get swatted within an inch of his life.

"Most men know that, and this Western guy is the first one that has ever been batty enough to think that a strange woman would stand for the same line of talk that the wife of his bosom does. Other men know better, and the conversation they keep for home consumption, and the kind they hand out in company, are no more alike than a buzz saw is like soft soap oozing out of the bunghole of a barrel."

"Oh, well, a man can't always be paying his wife compliments, or reeling off a heated monologue for her benefit," put in the Bookkeeper.

"Cut out the hot air," responded the Stenographer. "Nine wives out of ten would drop dead with surprise, anyway, if their husbands should pay them compliments, so we can eliminate that cause of mortality.

"What I am calling your attention to is the different way a man talks to a strange woman and the partner of his bosom. Did you ever notice how a man acts when two women try to tell funny stories, if one of them happens to be his wife?



YOU ARE ALWAYS RIGHT, MY DEAR.
MERLE JOHNSON

'Nothing Makes for politeness in a husband like having a wife who can do him up with one hand tied behind her'

"He listens with an absorbed expressiin on his face while the strange woman reels off an interminable yarn, and when she finishes he bursts his suspenders laughing, and makes her believe that as a raconteur she has got Simeon Ford and Chauncey Depew nailed to their chairs.

"But let wife essay a humorous selection, and she gets the whole ice chest. 'For heaven's sake, forget it,' he cries if they are alone and she is unprotected. 'You are about as humorous as a hunk of Swiss cheese. Besides, that story had whiskers on it in the Ark.'

"Or, maybe it is some political question or public matter that is under discussion He is all deferential courtesy while the strange woman speaks, and you would think by the way he listened that he was sitting at the feet of a seeress drinking in wisdom; but let his wife venture an opinion, and he's out with the hook before you can say 'Scat.'

"And, say, did you ever hear a perfect gentleman's remarks when he had made a date with his wife and she was a few minutes late? 'Where in the blankety-blank have you been? Why in the billy-billy can't you ever do anything on time? Think I haven't got anything to do but hang around this junk shop waiting for you, when you might know, if you weren't a congenital pin head, that I have a million things to see to, and my time is worth a billion dollars a second? But it's just like you! I knew it would happen! Of all the miserable, measly, incompetent female woman persons I ever saw, you are the human limit.'

"Does he make similar remarks in the same tone of voice to another woman who keeps him waiting? Ah, no! No, verily! The other lady saunters in two hours late and finds a smiling gentleman understudying Patience on a Monument.

"'I fear I have kept you waiting,' she coos sweetly.

"'Not at all,' he answers amiably; 'I have only been here for four hours, and have really enjoyed watching the people passing.'"

"Why does a man talk to his wife in a way he wouldn't dare to speak to any other woman in the world" inquired the Bookkeeper.

"Because," responded the Senographer, "his wife is generally in the featherweight class, while he is in the welterweight. I have noticed that nothing makes for politeness in a husband like having a wife who can do him up with one hand tied behind her."

DOROTHY DIX.

By a Woman Hater

AN engagement ring is a girl's idea of a band of hope.

Some men make money and some women make alimony.

When lovers elope it's also a get-away for common sense.

Adam had cause to remember his first New Year's Eve for many a day.

The average husband is a silent partner in the domestic firm.

If a girl is pretty her knowledge of the fact is apt to spoil the effect.

When a woman is in a speechless rage she simply won't stand for a man's silly talk.

Only when a man offers an apology is a woman willing to let him have the last word.

Once in a great while you meet a married man who actually seems proud of his condition.

A woman's interest in a divorced man never lets up until she discovers why he was divorced.

Possibly the hold-up man takes to the highways in order to raise sufficient coin to enable his wife to take to the byways.

Probably nothing pleases a woman more than her ability to look younger than some other woman who is the same age.

If a woman is unwilling to take in washing and scrubbing to support the family she has no business to marry a man to reform him.

Tomorrow's Best Bargains

Money-Savers for Thrifty Shoppers Selected by an Expert

EIGHTEEN SMART HAND bags, of fine black seal grain leather, that would be splendid value at $2.50, will be offered to early customers Wednesday for $1.49 each, at Vorenberg's Novelty Shop. Each bag is nicely lined with leather, fitted with coin and card case, has a twelve-inch over-lapping frame, with new gilt or gun metal lock and heavy leather handles.

A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY FOR you to purchase a heavy Japan tin cake or bread box at a saving will be offered by The Jordan Marsh Company to-morrow. For one day their boxes that have been selling for $1.15 each may be had at 69 cents. These boxes are 11x12 inches and 10½ inches deep, with ventilated sides.

ASK TO SEE THE JACK HORNER felt hats for children from 4 years to 8 years of age that have just been marked to 69 cents at Filene's, as they are bargains, reduced from $1.95. Only 48 in the lot, containing red, navy, green, black and brown, each hat in a fancy pasteboard drum box, with drumsticks attached.

A BARGAIN FOR THE THRIFTY housekeeper well worth inspection will be offered at China Hall, the new specialty shop on Summer street, to-morrow. A kitchen set, consisting of an ebonized rack, with a soup ladle, skimmer, cleaner, salad chop, paring knife, cake turner, vegetable fork, perforated spoon, can opener and ice pick, all for the small cost of 80 cents. Just 50 sets will be placed on sale.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE special lot of ladies' fine black hosiery that is to be offered at 18 cents a pair, or three pairs for 50 cents, at Gilchrist's to-morrow. All full-fashioned, double sole goods of fine silk lisle thread that would ordinarily sell for 35 cents a pair, but reduced on account of very slight imperfections, such as a double stitch. All sizes.

WHITE LAWN GUIMPES OF VERY fine quality, with rows of fine hamburg and dainty lace trimmings, that were formerly sold for $2 and $2.50, have just been marked to 79 cents each at A. Shuman's, as they are slightly mussed. The sizes run from 4 years up to 14 years. In the same department ask to see the small lot of beautiful little silk bonnets with fine hand embroidery, just reduced from $2.50 to 95 cents.

THE SHEPARD NORWELL COMPANY have forty beautifully made corset covers that were priced at $1 up to $1.75 each, every one to be marked to 60 cents each for quick clearance on Wednesday, as they are slightly soiled from handling. Sizes range from 34 to 40, but about half of them are small sizes—all fine nainsooks with deep yokes of dainty lace and hamburgs.

Folks who look like this:
May now look like this Mail Coupon to-day

Thin Folks Made Fat Free

Simple home treatment that works wonders in making scrawny, ill-developed men and women plump and attractive.

50 Cent Package Free To Any Thin Person.

Thin persons, particularly those from ten to thirty pounds underweight, will be interested in a simple home treatment which puts on flesh at the rate of a pound a day in many instances, rounds out the figure and makes thin folks fat up even if they have been scrawny for years.

Don't shut your eyes and say "impossible." Put this new treatment to the test. The test is free (see coupon below) and surely the test will tell. It is no sign that you must remain skinny and cadaverous the rest of your life even if you have tried every "fattener" you ever heard of.

This new discovery calls for no diet stunts; no detention from business. You go about as usual, eat what you like. It is harmless to the most delicate system, and contains no oils, emulsions nor alcohol. Just a concentrated tabloid which can be taken privately. Your nearest friends need not know what you are doing until you astonish them with a visible and pleasing increase in weight.

Excessive thinness is very mortifying. Thin men never look like "real money." They are pushed aside in the race for success. Bony women are seldom very popular. Dress will not hide skin and bones. All men admire fine figures. Get out of the featherweight class.

Mail the Coupon today. Send your name and full address to The Sargol Co., 43 Herald Bldg., Binghamton, N. Y. Pin the coupon to your letter and enclose 10 cents to help defray distribution expenses. They will send at once the 50 cent package of Sargol, and will write and show you why you have remained thin, and how Sargol puts on firm flesh in a natural way. There is no longer any necessity for you to remain skinny and ill developed.

COUPON

This Certificate entitles the holder to one fifty-cent package of Sargol, the home treatment which makes thin folks plump and attractive. Issued for account of The Boston American.

Good for ten days only.

Enclose 10 cents to help pay distribution expenses.

THE SARGOL CO., 43 HERALD BLDG., BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

Dr. Hallock's

Famous Remedies

CURE TO STAY CURED

All Diseases and Weaknesses of Men

Expert specialists, oldest in years, largest in experience; acute and chronic diseases and weaknesses from whatever cause arising, nervous debility, exhausted vitality, melancholy, dark rings under the eyes, weak back, blood poison, ulcers or sores, falling hair, rheumatic pains, urinary and kidney complaints. Skin diseases cured to stay cured. Office especially equipped with modern appliances for the cure of chronic and difficult cases. Our time-tried remedies cure after others fail. A written guarantee given to cure all curable cases for a stipulated fee, payable as patient is able.

No loss of time. Our medical book should be read by every man. Sent sealed by mail free, with question sheet. Call or write to-day. Consultation is free. Hours 9 to 9; Sundays, 10 to 1.

DR. HALLOCK CO.,
114 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Office located 60 years at the same old stand, Court and Stoddard streets. Oldest and most reliable in the country.

Drs. A. & S. Hargrove

Expert English Specialists.

WE CURE MEN

20 years at 1243 Washington st., with hundreds of cures, should give confidence. A Permanent Cure. We Cure all Diseases and Weaknesses, Kidney, Bladder, Exhausted Vitality, Loss of Memory, Melancholy, Nervous Debility and Blood Diseases. Hours 9 to 8. Sundays 10 to 3.

Advice Free.

1243 Washington St., Boston, Near Dover Sta. L Road

CONSULT THIS SPECIALIST

Dr. Joseph Grady

LATE OF VIENNA, BERLIN, PARIS AND LONDON

on the cure of all blood, nervous and chronic diseases. Those suffering from rheumatism, piles, sores, ulcers, cancers, tumors, or any form of skin or scalp disease should visit him at once. Remember, consultation, advice and services absolutely free to all who apply this month.

MEDICAL OFFICES, 238 Tremont St. Boston

Hours 10-12, 2-5, 7-8. Sun. 10-12. Advice free.

I CURE MEN

MY METHODS are STRICTLY MODERN, not ancient nor obsolete. I keep abreast of the times in SKILL, as well as EQUIPMENT, and I am an EXPERT in curing Nervous Debility, Nervous Dyspepsia, Piles, Fistula, Rupture and Blood Diseases.

Hours, Daily 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.; 3 to 8 p. m. Sundays 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

DR. WEINSTEIN
218 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.
Next Hotel Touraine.

Every Woman

is interested and should know about the wonderful MARVEL Whirling Spray The new Vaginal Syringe. Best—Most convenient. It cleanses instantly.

Ask your druggist for it. If he cannot supply the MARVEL, accept no other, but send stamp for illustrated book—sealed. It gives full particulars and directions invaluable to ladies. MARVEL CO. 44 East 23d Street, NEW YORK.

For sale by Riker-Jaynes Drug Stores. 7 in Boston. Mail orders solicited.

DR. ROTHFUCHS

(Grad. Harvard Med. School)

MEN COME TO ME

I Cure to Stay Cured Blood Poison, Nervous Debility, Urinary and Bladder Disease. I give my personal attention to every case from start to finish. No pain, no detention from business. My methods are the latest and most approved. Pay me when cured. I furnish all medicines, privacy thus assured. Consultation, examination and an honest opinion of your case free.

7 PARK SQUARE, Near Boylston Street Hours 9-8. Sun. 10-1

GoatLymph Double Strength Tablets

Nature's own remedy for the rejuvenation of weak, nervous, wasted, debilitated systems. Restore vitality, whether lost by disease or otherwise. Cure Neurasthenia, Insomnia and Nervous Debility, $2 per box, containing one month's treatment. Prepared by Abilene Laboratories, 14 Lexington av., New York. Sold in Boston only by 7 Riker-Jaynes Drug Stores.

Dr. KILLORY

CURES MEN

91A Court St., nr. Crawford Hse. I Charge for Cures, not merely for treatment. Expert medical service within reach of all men. Ordinary treatment $2. Exhausted Vitality, Blood Poison, Kidney and Bladder Troubles. Advice free. $2

PHYSICIAN, SURGEON Specialist, 26 years' experience. 228 Tremont st. Expert treatment all diseases of Adults. (No children.) Terms low. Cons. free. Hrs. 10 to 5. TREMONT MEDICAL CLINIC.

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL SPECIALIST Advice Free
All diseases of men and women (lady assistant); long experience, satisfaction guaranteed. 614 Columbus av.; near Mass. av.; hours, 10 to 8.

DR. J. BLACKMER, Medical and Surgical Specialist. Advice Free
All diseases of Men and Women (lady assistant), 29 years' experience; satisfaction guaranteed. Hours 10-5; Sunday 2-5. 1,688 Washington st.

INFORMATION WANTED.

IF MRS. THOMAS E. GLYNN will send address she will hear something to her advantage. Address E 41, Boston American.

THE BOSTON AMERICAN

Published Daily and Sunday at 80 and 82 Summer Street, Boston, Mass.

NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING CO.

Entered as second class matter, June 1, 1907, at the postoffice at Boston, Mass.

Price: Daily, One Cent; Sunday, Five Cents.
Terms: Postage included for the United States (outside of Boston) and Mexico:

Daily only:
One year	$3.00
Six months	1.50
One month	.25
Sunday only:
One year	2.50
Six months	1.25
Daily and Sunday:
One year	5.00
Six months	2.75
One month	.50

On foreign subscriptions add postage at rate of 6 cents per copy daily and 5 cents per copy Sunday.

PIANOS AND ORGANS.

Clearance Sale Upright Pianos

The big anti-Piano Trust sale which ended Saturday left us with a few new upright pianos of the best makes on hand. These, together with several more which came into the storage salesrooms from the accounts, have been marked down again and will be closed out as quickly as possible. If you have been thinking of buying a piano, but have been putting it off because you thought it a luxury, we have this to say to you: Come up at once. We pay carfares anywhere. Get one of these excellent high-class pianos and we will arrange terms to suit you. You make the price.

$5 Down $1 A Week

☞ FREE Delivery Anywhere in Unmarked Wagons

BARGAINS IN THE WORLD'S BEST PIANOS

CHICKERING UPRIGHT	$60	MASON & HAMLIN Upright	$70
EMERSON UPRIGHT	$55	KNABE UPRIGHT	$100
EVERETT UPRIGHT	$65	McPHAIL UPRIGHT	$85
HAINES BROS.' UPRIGHT	$60	MERRILL UPRIGHT	$90
HALLET & DAVIS UPRIGHT	$65	STEINWAY UPRIGHT	$75
HUNTINGTON UPRIGHT	$65	SOHMER UPRIGHT	$100
IVERS & POND UPRIGHT	$80	STEINHART UPRIGHT	$90
JACOB BROS.' UPRIGHT	$70	VOSE UPRIGHT	$65
KRANICH & BACH UPRIGHT	$95	WM. BOURNE	$65
MARTIN BROS.' UPRIGHT	$60	WEBBER UPRIGHT	$100

ROXBURY STORAGE SALESROOMS, Incorporated
2111 Washington St., Roxbury, Cor. Williams St., Boston, Mass.
Open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday till 9.
Take any Washington street car going up Washington to Williams street, cor. Williams.

AT THE
HENRY F. MILLER
PIANO WAREROOMS
395 Boylston St.

We must make room for new goods and offer the following second-hand Pianos at greatly reduced prices:

Knabe	Grand	$550
Steinway	Grand	500
Chickering	Grand	250
Knabe	Upright	265
Hallet & Davis	Upright	225
Hallet & Davis	Upright	200
Stieff	Upright	185
Bluthner	Upright	175
Haines	Upright	175
Chickering	Upright	175
Prescott	Upright	175
Leckerling	Upright	170
Hallet & Davis	Upright	165
Haines Bros.	Upright	165
Crowninshield	Upright	165
Knabe	Upright	150
Singer	Upright	150
Lawrence	Upright	140
Pease	Upright	138
Decker & Son	Upright	135
Gabler	Upright	125
Swick & Kelso	Upright	115
Hull	Upright	75

Any of the above upright Pianos at $10 down and $5 per month.

Henry F. Miller & Sons Piano Co.

MONEY TO LOAN

Solid, 12½c. a line. Display, 20c. a line.

MONEY LOANED.
To salaried people or persons keeping house on their plain note without security.
A Reliable Firm to Deal With
If you need ready money quickly, we do not tie you to weekly or monthly payments, but arrange repayment in each case to suit the customer's convenience.
BOSTON FINANCE CO.,
42 COURT ST. ROOM 1.
Write, Call or phone Main 4651

EVER NEED MONEY?
WE ARE STILL LENDING
ON any security of value, at legal rates. Eighteen years of fair dealing accounts for our being here. The new law on interest rates and charges, Chap. 605, Acts of 1908, took effect Sept. 1st. Glad to give copies on request. We live up to it. We do business according to contract, in good faith and strictly according to the law.
Dexter Loan Co., 47 Court St., Room 12

LOANS MADE WHILE YOU WAIT
to all employes, regardless of salary.

CITY LOAN CO
THE [illegible] BANK
406 WASHINGTON ST.
The Patronage of Ladies Asked.

WHAT'S THE USE?
DOES IT PAY to try and scrape along when all you have to do is to come in and sign a note, get your money and walk out, nobody the wiser? Money loaned on SALARIES, HORSES, TEAMS, FURNITURE and personal property of all kinds at the lowest rate in Boston.
WAGE EARNERS' LOAN ASSN.
10 State st., room A.

LOANS ON FURNITURE, pianos, teams, offices, stores, machinery, autos, Collateral Loan tickets; confidential; lowest rates. H. VAN DAM, 1 Beacon st.

MONEY loaned to reliable people, any amount, on furniture, piano, salaries, etc., at low rates. HUB LOAN CO., 43 Tremont st., room 1101.

BUSINESS MEN can borrow on their note; private party. Room 1003, 161 Devonshire st.

DIAMONDS AND JEWELRY.

DIAMONDS WATCHES JEWELRY | $1.00 PER WEEK
"Different from the rest." PEOPLE'S CREDIT CO., 433 Washington st., cor. Winter; up 1 flight.

MAINSPRINGS, 25c., put in while waiting, warranted 2 years; watches cleaned 50c. ALBERTS, 749 Washington st.

MAINSPRINGS 25c, watches $1 a week. ROBINSON'S, 229 Tremont st., near Majestic Theatre.

ALARM CLOCKS, 55c.; cash paid for diamonds. H. A. BOWDLEAR, 73 Devonshire st.

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Silver bag, with keys, on Worcester st. or Columbus av; reward. 144 Worcester st., suite 8.

LOST—Sunday eve., on Worcester st. or Columbus av., German silver bag and keys. Reward if returned to 144 Worcester st., suite 8.

LOST—Gold beads, Dec. 13 or 14; please return them to 9 Park st., room 16, and receive reward.

MACHINERY AND TOOLS.

SAFES and machinery moved; all orders executed promptly and carefully. C. BOWEN, 3 Bowker st., tel. Hay. 221.

FOR SALE—Wire straightening machine, drill, lathe, shaper, planer. M., 812 6th st., South Boston.

TYPEWRITERS.

LARGEST STOCK—Repaired, rented and sold; easy terms. Rebuilt machines. Tel. 168 Main. TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE, 38 Bromfield st.

$1 GETS latest brand new Wellington; balance to suit. WELLINGTON VISIBLE TYPEWRITER CO., 309-311 Washington st. (opp. Old South.)

PICTURE FRAMES.

HUB MOULDING CO., 59 Haverhill st. Largest assortment of pictures, frames and moulding in city; frames made to order; retail at wholesale prices.

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

25 USED UPRIGHTS at low figures: Hoffman, $75; Ivers & Pond, $75; Doll, $90; Miller, $100; Briggs, $150; Haines Brothers, $165; Cambridge, $120; Leckerling, $140; Howard, $125; LaBargue, $130; Cote, $85; Kimball, $125; Guild, $110. All in fancy woods; fully warranted. BLAKE'S, 564 Washington st., established 1869, elevator.

McPHAIL SQUARE, carved legs, $20; Bourne, $10; Estey and Sterling organs, $10 and $15; some for $3. We need room and prices make them move. Our 3 year approval and exchange plan prevents loss. BLAKE'S, 564 Washington st., elevator. Established 1869.

NEW PLAYER PIANOS, $450; fully warranted 5 years; every improvement; changeable tracker; lock keys and accent buttons; old piano taken in exchange. BLAKE'S, 564 Washington st., elevator. Established 1869.

BOARD AND ROOMS

Solid, 12½c. a line. Display, 20c. a line.

VISITORS TO BOSTON.
TAKE ROOMS AT HOTEL WATERSTON, 8 Bulfinch pl., over hill from State House, or 3 minutes from Scollay sq.; rooms only; clean, quiet, h. and c. water, baths, elevators; $1 day double, 50c., 75c. single, $2 to $4.50 wk.

APPLETON ST., 52—Well cared for rooms, by the day or week.

AT 192 W. SPRINGFIELD ST.—Front parlor with piano; sunny sq. room, bath floor.

FURNISHED housekeeping room, on first floor, $2; side room, one flight. 1064 Washington st.

JAMAICA PLAIN, 409 Centre st.—Two furnished rooms; heated, hot and cold water; tel.

RETIRED NURSE takes confinements; best care. MRS. H., South Milford. Tel. 157-8; steam heat.

TO THE LANDLADY—Do you wish to rent your rooms quick? If so, send us full description of your rooms and price. P. E. RICHARDSON, 538 Tremont st., tel. 21957 Tre.

WANTED—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping in vicinity of Back Bay sta. J 242, Boston American.

5 CONCORD SQ.—Neat, side room, one flight, bed couch, $1.50.

48 APPLETON ST.—Sq. and side rooms, h. and c. water, all con., by day or week. Tel. 1528-4 Tre.

54 WALTHAM ST.—Large, furnished, front square; also attic, housekeeping, gas, water, stove; also side.

75 WARREN AV.—Good rooms by the day; landlady formerly of 50 Appleton st.

89 WARREN AV.—Parties visiting Boston will find first-class rooms, $1 per day.

94 APPLETON ST., Boston, Mass.—Rooms to let, hot and cold water, by day or week.

113 WORCESTER ST.—Front, side room, with closet, $1.50.

612 AND 626 TREMONT ST.—Elegant for front rooms (piano), sides, warm house, $1.50 to $5.

848 5TH ST., SO. BOSTON—Matron M. A. Brown; board and room for ladies before and during confinement.

APARTMENTS

Solid, 12½c. a line. Display, 20c. a line.

APARTMENTS—New 2 and 3 beautiful light rooms, rent $2 and $2.25 week, no children; big inducements if taken at once. 24 Stone st., Charlestown; take Bunker Hill car, get off at Marion st.

APARTMENTS—New 2 and 3 beautiful light rooms, rent $2 and $2.25 week, no children; big inducements if taken at once. 24 Stone st., Charlestown; take Bunker Hill car, get off at Marion st.

CONVENIENT—Furnished housekeeping suites, 2 to 4 rooms, near electrics, fine location, $14, $16 and $20 per month. 13 Everett av., near Upham's Corner, Dorchester; tel. 1662-1 Dor.; J. PESLEY.

DORCHESTER Meeting House Hill, 6 rooms, 19 Hendry st., all modern improvements, best location in Dorchester, granolithic walks, large piazza, 1 minute from electrics, 4 minutes from r. r. station, rent $23. Apply 21 Hendry st.

REVERE BEACH—Sunny flats of 5 and 6 rooms, all improvements, one minute of trains and electric cars. Apply J. E. SHORT, 106 Kimball av., Revere.

TO LET—Steam-heated dining room, with exclusive use of kitchen, furnished throughout for housekeeping. Call Sunday. SNELL, 84 West Rutland sq., city. Also steam-heated parlor, $4.

TO LET—At 33 Newcastle rd., Brighton, apt. of 7 rooms, bath, set tubs, gas, furnace, range, everything up to date. Apply to BENJ. F. BADGER, 846 Tremont Bldg., Boston.

WHY WEAR YOURSELF OUT?—Let me find your apartment. Send number of rooms, price and location desired to ROBERT LLOYD BRIGGS, 15 School st., Boston.

237 BOSTON ST., Dorchester—A house of 11 rooms, all improvements, rent low. J. J. LUCAS, 524 Dudley st., Rox.

HOUSES TO LET.

EVERETT—Fine lower apartment, 5 rooms, bath, all improvements; nice location; rent low. OWNER, 32 Summit av.

STORES, OFFICES, ETC.

STORE TO LET

ONE of the best locations in Newspaper Row, near Globe and Journal offices, in one of the most modern office buildings in Boston; rent reasonable; grand spot for quick lunch, shoe store or haberdasher; will be pleased to state particulars and show store to any party that may desire; for any additional information write, M 272, Boston American.

SEWING MACHINES.

IMPROVED SINGER, perfect order, attachments, $5. 28A Warren st., Roxbury.

$60 SINGER, good as new, for $5, at 86 Warren st., Roxbury, next to Hunt's lunch room.

FOR ADOPTION.

WHO WILL ADOPT boy 7 months or girl 6 weeks? Apply M. GOLDIE, General Delivery, Boston, Mass.

STORAGE.

HUB Storage Co., 849 Wash. st.; stores furniture, pianos, mdse., etc.; lowest rates; write, phone.

FOR SALE.

KINDLING WOOD—12 bushels $1. E. M. WOOD YARD, 65 W. Dedham st., tel. Tre. 735-1.

WINES AND LIQUORS.

ABSOLUTELY STRAIGHT 2-stamp Kentucky whiskey, gin and rum, 100 proof, $2 full gal. jug. THOMAS SNOW & SON, 59 N. Market st. Est. 1813

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

HELP WANTED.

Set solid, 10c. per line; displayed, 20c. per line.

MALE

FOLDING PAPER BOXES.
AN EXPERIENCED feeder on cutting and creasing press. Apply 32 Green st., Boston.

A BOSTON FIRM wishes to communicate with a gentleman of taste who can devote several hours daily to light artistic work at home. Address L 45, Boston American.

ANY intelligent person may earn good income corresponding for newspapers; experience unnecessary; no canvassing; send for particulars. PRESS SYNDICATE, Box 715, Lockport, N. Y.

BROWN'S SHOE SCHOOL, 725 Washington st., Lynn; Goodyear rounding or stitching, $75; cutting, rumpling, edge trimming or setting, $35; plain stitching, $10; lasting, $15; jobs guaranteed.

BOYS wanted to sell Saturday Evening Post and Ladies' Home Journal. L. KRIGER, 18 Tremont st., Boston.

CANVASSERS wanted for advertising and introducing our new family soap assortments; permanent; good wages; big opportunity. MOORE BROS., 1230 Washington st.

ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN—Over 2,100 men obtained licenses through this school; why not you? Most practical and thorough in New England, low cost, pay in instalments; instruction individual by Thos. Hawley, many years State Examiner of Engineers; day or evening; complete practical electricity course. Send for free prospectus. HAWLEY SCHOOL, 113 Huntington av., Boston.

ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN instructed for license at the only recognized and reliable school, free catalogue. STATE STEAM ENGINEERING SCHOOL, 121 Haverhill st., Boston. Always open. James Coyne, M. E., instructor.

HERE'S A POSITION—100 men wanted to learn barber trade, can earn $10 to $20 weekly, $4 Saturdays; room, board, tools furnished. HALL'S BARBER SCHOOLS, 814 Washington st., Boston.

I MADE $50,000 in two years in the mail order business; began with $5; any one can do the work at home in spare time; send for my free booklet; tells how to get started. HEACOCK, Box 726, Lockport, N. Y.

MEN WANTED, under 30, physically perfect, for good paying, permanent steam railroad positions; experience unnecessary; promotions for good men. RAILWAY ASSOCIATION, 221 South Station, Dewey sq. entrance.

MEN—Learn to drive automobiles; $15; largest and best school. EASTERN AUTOMOBILE EXCHANGE, 41 Columbus av.

MEN—Learn to repair automobiles; $15; largest and best school. EASTERN AUTOMOBILE EXCHANGE, 42 Warren av.

MEN WANTED at once to learn to drive and repair automobiles; positions paying $25 to $50 a week; correspondence course for out of town students; full course $25; send 2-cent stamp for catalogue. BOSTON AUTO SCHOOL, 509 Tremont st., Boston; 26 Market sq., Providence, R. I.

WANTED—Able-bodied men between ages 18 and 35 for U. S. Marine Corps; must be native born or have first papers; excellent opportunity to see the world; good pay; clothing, rations, quarters, medical attendance free. Apply at 98 Court st., Boston, Mass.

WANTED—Railway mail clerks; March examinations; preparation free. FRANKLIN INSTITUTE, Dept. 450, Rochester, N. Y.

50 MEN WANTED to learn to drive taxicabs and automobiles; must be honest, sober and industrious; send 2-cent stamp for full particulars to MR. LANE, 509 Tremont st., Boston.

AGENTS AND SALESMEN.

INSURANCE MEN.
WANTED—All sections of New England, where not already represented, reliable, pushing men to represent us, to sell our various forms of low cost combined accident and sickness policies, including our popular dollar a month plan; the best sellers of to-day; to men who can produce business and are open to consider a proposition that will bring them large returns, this affords a rare opportunity, and only such need apply. To receive attention, write fully in first letter. EQUITABLE ACCIDENT CO., 161 Devonshire st., Boston, Mass.

EARN WHILE YOU LEARN—We teach you the stock and bond brokerage business by mail during your spare time and start you without capital in your own town as resident broker. Larger returns than from any other business. Interesting booklet and details FREE. THE NORD SCHOOL OF FINANCE, Dept. J, 85 State st., Boston, Mass.

WANTED—Salesmen for specialty, sells to all dealers in cigars; big profits, quick seller. W. P. BOWERS & CO., Chicago, Ill.

SITUATIONS WANTED—Male.

AMERICAN, married man, age 30, wants situation, formerly employed in wholesale house, not afraid of hard work, good driver, references. D. FRANK CEPPI, 76 W. Cedar st., Boston.

A1 ELECTRICIAN, machinist and rep. autos desires change, capable of taking full charge. M 40, Boston American.

BARBER—(American) having many acquaintances in the business section and a thorough knowledge of hotel work seeks steady employment where these capabilities would prove advantageous. Address G 280, Boston American.

BARBERS' UNION member wishes steady employment where first-class work is required, will work for employer's interest at all times, will go any distance on a guarantee. Address R 269, Boston American.

BAKER wants situation, all-round man, 23 years, experienced. Address E. G. BURNHAM, 68 Washington st., Quincy, Mass.

BAKER, all-round, charge small shop or second; temperate; fine references. F. A. KRAUSE, Hingham.

BAKER wants situation, 2d or 3d hand. Address B. C. D., 39 Dwight st., city.

CAPABLE YOUNG MAN, 28 years of age, would like a position in electrical factory or repair shop, thoroughly understands direct current motors and generators, calculating, winding and repairing, references furnished if desired. Address A. A., No. 9 6th av., Lowell, Mass.

CARETAKER—American man would like the care of small place near Boston; more for a home than pay, the best of references given. G 279, Boston American.

CARPENTER wants work of any kind in any business, low wages, good workman and a good hustler, temperate American, age 38. Address E 268, Boston American.

CHAUFFEUR—American and French, wishes a position to run a Winton car; had two years' experience and references. Address D. M., P. O. Box 106, Ballouville, Conn.; R. F. D. No. 1.

CHAUFFEUR—A professional chauffeur and repair man, married, willing to do anything and go anywhere. Address N 277, Boston American.

COOK—A colored man wishes situation as cook in hotel or restaurant or boarding house, or will take place as all-round man. C. J. G., 39 Gorham st., West Somerville, Mass.

CARPENTER, reliable, good workman, wants new work or jobbing, house, store fittings or refrigerators. A., Box 46, South Boston.

CLERK—Young man, several years' country store experience, wants inside position; willing to start low. X. Y., Dover, Mass. R. F. D.

CARPENTER and locksmith wants small jobbing in spare time. Address A. H., 30 Baker park, Rox.

ELEVATOR RUNNER or some good employment. R 238, Boston American.

EVENING WORK—A young colored man (English) would like evening work from 6 o'clock. Call or write THOMAS H., 6 Burbank st.

GENERAL WORK—Wanted by married man, 40 years old, work of some kind; have had 20 years' experience in retail grocery, 15 years as foreman in same. Address 54 Harvard st., Brookline.

GENERAL WORK—A capable, reliable American man wants work, experienced in restaurant, lunch counter service, janitor, stable foreman or general work, any kind. H., Box 46, South Boston.

GENERAL WORK—Competent, all round mechanic, accustomed to power house work, excellent references. E 267, Boston American.

GENERAL MAN—Wanted by a sober, reliable, middle-age man position on a gent's private place as general man, with good references. 106 Monatiquot av., Braintree, Mass., G. S. G.

HOTEL WORK—Colored man, Jamaican, wishes employment in private fam., hotel or restaurant; strictly temperate, willing worker; will go to the country or in city. J. W., 4 Willow pk., suite 5, Roxbury, Mass.

MANAGER—Position as working manager of farm wanted by energetic married American with small family; neat, orderly and obliging, strictly temperate and an all-round, competent, intensive, dairy and general farmer. Box 116, Central Village, Ct.

PORTER—Young colored man would like position as porter or butler. W. M. MARTIN, 92 Sawyer st.

PLUMBER—Situation by lic. plumber and gasfitter, new work or jobbing. Address PLUMBER, 22 Irving st., Boston.

PORTER—Wanted situation as porter by a colored man. Address 21 Harwich st., Boston, Mass.

SMART col. boy wishes work as errand, waiter or door. E. ALBERT ALLEN, 48 Kendall st.

SITUATION wanted by an experienced sorter in a wet-wash laundry, or will do any kind of washing; temperate and reliable. Address J. J. T., 106 Hollingsworth st., Lynn, Mass.

WOULD LIKE some kind of work, am strictly temperate. E. A. LOYD, 8 Rollins court, Roxbury.

FEMALE

"DIFFERENT FROM THE REST."
$1.00 Per Week
IN THE HEART OF THE CITY
Clothing Jewelry
ORDERS ON 25 CASH STORES
PEOPLE'S CREDIT COMPANY
433 Washington St., cor. Winter.

100 Girls Wanted at Once
TO LEARN DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY. SPRING POSITIONS GUARANTEED.
WE TEACH everything in "Dressmaking," including designing, cutting and making of all kinds of waists, skirts, coats, jackets, capes and children's garments. "Everything in Millinery," including straw, chiffon, felt and velvet work and frame making, using "Regular Materials." Both "Day and "Evening" school. "Oldest Dressmaking and Millinery College in Boston." Call or write for circular before deciding. THE LADIES' TAILOR DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY COLLEGE, 241 Tremont st., Boston, Mass.

IMPORTANT TO EVERY LADY READING THIS PAPER.
TAKE NOTICE that you can have the finest suit made of your own goods for $6; my reputation for 18 years will guarantee you a perfect fit and the best tailoring in Boston.
N. ARONSON, 188 Hanover St., Boston
Tel. 1853-2 Richmond. Open Evenings

ANY intelligent person may earn good income corresponding for newspapers; experience unnecessary; no canvassing; send for particulars. PRESS SYNDICATE, Box 797, Lockport, N. Y.

A BOSTON FIRM wishes to communicate with a lady of taste who can devote several hours daily to light artistic work at home. E 55, Boston American.

EXPERIENCED TYLER IRONER wanted. LEWANDOS, Watertown, Mass.

FURS remodelled and repaired. MRS. FRASER, 33 Union park, cor. Tremont st.

LADIES AND GIRLS to stamp novelties; neat, clean, reliable home work. 180 Tremont st., room 3.

LADIES wanted to learn dressmaking and millinery, come now, spring positions guaranteed. Call or write MADAME LITCHFIELD, 65 Berkeley st.

WANTED—Girl in small cigar stand in market district; low wages, long hours; state age and wages wanted. X 46, Boston American.

YOUNG COLORED GIRL for housework, no cooking, go home nights. 22 Alaska st., Roxbury.

SITUATIONS WANTED—Female.

AN AMERICAN lady, 35 yrs. old, would like to get some light employment, 2 or 3 days a week. K 263, Boston American.

CARETAKER—Neat, experienced, col. girl wishes gentlemen's apartment to take care of or doctor's office, go home nights. Answer, A. B., 34 Norway st., suite 1, by letter or call after 6.30 evenings.

CAPABLE business woman wants position of trust, is a good penman and accountant, thoroughly trustworthy; only reliable parties need answer. G 286, Boston American.

COMPANION or care of elderly lady or gentleman; position wanted by a middle aged American woman. Address M. A. B., 19 Sackville st., Charlestown.

COLORED girl wants day work, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 15c hour and car fare, or bachelor apartment to care for. MISS L. G., 71 E. Lenox st., suite 2, city.

COPYIST—An American lady who is a good penman desires position as copyist at home or in office, or other writing. Address A. H. D., 137 Pembroke st., city.

CHAMBER, nursery or light housework by neat colored girl. Address with full particulars as to wages given, etc., H. M. H., 77 Middlesex st., suite 1.

DAY WORK SATURDAY—A colored girl wants work by the day or plain sewing at home. Address MRS. M. MERRITT, 90 Harvard st., Cambridgeport, Mass.

DRESSMAKING—Fancy waist and shirtwaist, dresses, undergarments, silk and nainsook, housemaids' outfits a specialty. 125A Pleasant st.

DAY WORK—Trustworthy German widow wants work three days of the week, good laundress. Please address 1441 Tremont st., Rox. Tel. 1107-3 Rox.

DAY WORK—Colored lady wants work by day and washing to take home. E. FRANKLIN, 30 Bradford st., city.

GENERAL WORK—A colored woman wants work in small family, a good plain cook and laundress, or day work. Address E. THORNE, 30 Harvard st., floor 1, Cambridgeport.

EXP. YOUNG AMERICAN woman would like to go out to work by the hour. Address H. W., 126 Blue Hill av., Roxbury.

GENERAL WORK—A colored girl would like to care for gentleman's apartments. WILSON, 865 Northampton st.

HOTEL WORK—Cook, colored girl, Jamaican, good cook and laundress, wishes employment in Christian family, city or country; please state wages. R. B., 4 Willow pk., suite 5, Roxbury, Mass.

HOUSEKEEPER—Young refined American widow would like position as housekeeper for respectable widower or nurse attendant, references given. Write or call E. JONES, 10 Glenwood rd., Winter Hill, Mass.

HOUSEKEEPER—Middle-aged American woman would like position as housekeeper for widower's small family or to care for invalid; call or write. Address HOUSEKEEPER, 12 Magnolia st., Malden, Mass. MRS. SUKEFORTH.

HOUSEKEEPER—An educated, agreeable Prot. lady, 38, desires position as housekeeper, nurse, dressmaking, any position of tact; particulars and ref. in first letter. G 272, Boston American.

HOUSEKEEPER—Situation as housekeeper for club or for gentleman's small family; competent to take charge, by Prot.-Am. woman. H. B. H., 85 Hancock st., city; near State House.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted by Maine Pro. middle aged woman position as housekeeper widower's family; likes children. N 267 Boston American.

HOUSEKEEPER—A capable young woman would like situation as housekeeper in widower's family. Apply to MISS E. G. LONG, 135 Readville st., Readville, Mass.

HOUSEKEEPER—German and Swedish girl want position as general housework; good cooks, laundresses; best of reference. 92 Vernon st., Tel. 1537-2 Rox.

LAUNDRESS—First-class home laundress wants fancy washing to take home; can do all kinds of fancy shirtwaists, all outdoor drying, and don't use fluid to injure the cloth. Call on or write MRS. J. W. EDWARDS, 219 West Newton st.

LAUNDRESS—A Swede woman would like laundry mending to do at home. MRS. R., 6 Williams ct., off Porter st., Somerville; call or write.

LAUNDRY WORK—Competent col. woman wants laundry work at home. Address E. M., 38 Dover st., suite 3.

LAUNDRESS—Young colored woman wants work of any kind, for Wed., Thur. and Friday; good laundress. Address E 12 Harwich st., city.

NURSE would like some cases, or would do cooking or other work while waiting. Call or address MRS. C. JOHNSTON, 30 Brookline st., city.

NURSE—A lady with experience in practical nursing would like the care of an invalid; when at leisure would assist with household duties or sewing. Address L., 148 Commonwealth ave., Concord Junction, Mass.

OFFICE and store cleaning, or wash by day or hour; best ref. MRS. R., 25 Carver.

POSITION as housekeeper to an elderly couple or companion to lady by a middle-aged lady. M 273, Boston American.

R. E. R., 50 Northfield st.—First-class laundress would like day's work, or the week, in city or out.

STENOGRAPHER—Young lady desires position as stenographer or Fisher billing clerk in Boston, etc. MARION HUNTRESS, 27 School st., Lynn, Mass.

SEAMSTRESS would like engagements understanding cutting, fitting and remodelling, $1 per day and fares. Address SEAMSTRESS, 1,615 Washington st.

SEAMSTRESS—Good fine hand sewer, with dressmaker or family work, also children's dresses. Address 168 Centre st., Roxbury.

SWITCHBOARD operator, experienced operator on private switchboard and office assistant desires position. OPERATOR, 28 Inman st., Cambridge.

SALESGIRL—Wanted, position as office assistant, cashier or salesgirl in store, best references. MISS FLORENCE, 15 Belle av., Rox.

WASHING—Nova Scotia woman wants washing, ironing or cleaning. Camb. pref. MRS. MARY WHITE, 80½ Kinnaird st., Cambridge.

WORKING HOUSEKEEPER—Middle-aged American woman would like position. F. O. G., 65 Dover st., lower bell.

Advertise Your Wants in the Boston American

REAL ESTATE.

Set solid, 12½c. per line; displayed, 20c. per line.

NEW TRACT OF LAND AT HOUGH'S NECK
JUST OPENED UP—Now is the time to get your pick from the best sea lots along the entire south shore; invest your money in land where it is increasing in values every day; over 150 cottages built in the last 12 months; lots 3 to 5 cents a foot; $5 down and $1 a week; trolley cars pass the property; send for circulars. W. A. DUNHAM, 7 Water st., room 710.

A SLICK ONE in Easton, at reduced price; owner in Calif. and orders immediate sale of his 8-acre village farm; a step to all public places; 22 miles south of Boston, choice garden land, with great variety of fruit and best of water; modern 8-room cottage, with furnace heat, large stable to match and several henneries, all in A1 condition; lawn and beautiful shade; only $2,000, two-fifths cash. JOSIAH P. PRESCOTT, 209 Washington st., Boston.

WINCHESTER
FOR SALE—A fine country home of 8 rooms and bath, together with 20,000 ft. of land, with a chance for a fine garden; can be bought now at a very low figure. SEWALL E. NEWMAN, 15 State st., Boston.

IF BOUGHT AT ONCE.
WILL sacrifice this Somerville 2-family house A1 condition, 10,500 ft. land, 3 minutes from trolley, very easy terms. CRESCENT REALTY CO., 328 Old South bldg., Boston.

SNUG COUNTRY HOME; $200 DOWN—8 acres for poultry, no rocks, orchard, attractive cottage house, recently painted, barn, shed, henneries, etc., only $1,000, $200 down; cause 8.43 train to Bridgewater. FRANK WILLIAMS, catalog free. CHAPIN FARM AGENCY, 294 Washington st., Boston.

SHORE LOTS.
22 MINUTES from South Station. CARLSON & NELSON, 700 Tremont Temple, Boston.

ONE AND A HALF story house at Stoughton, Mass.; eight rooms and bath; large poultry house; an elegant place for $2,800; photo at this office. LEE REALTY CO., 27 School st., Boston.

SINGLE HOUSE, 10 rooms, 1 minute to steam and electric cars, hot water heat, all imps.; good location. Price $3,350. BLANCHARD & DRADY, 213A Highland av., Somerville.

EVERETT, 119 Waverly st.—To let or for sale, 8-room house, all modern improvements, large lot of land, small stable. C. E. JENNINGS, 444 Broadway, Everett, 1,028 Old South bldg., Boston.

NEW 8-apt. house, rented for $804, to the best of tenants; to be sold this week, $700 below value, come early Monday morning. HENDERSON & ROSS, 18 Tremont st., Boston.

CAMBRIDGE—5-room house, piazza, 5 minutes to steam and electrics; price $1,400, $100 down, balance $10 a month or would exchange. HOMESTEAD REALTY CO., 202 Washington st., Boston.

ALLSTON—9-room house, modern improvements, 4,000 feet land, new roof, piazza, garden. Price $1,000. PETERS, 10 Tremont st., Boston.

50 HOUSE LOTS, $3 each, high and dry lots. SUBURBAN LAND CO., 89 Court st., room 7.

Thompson's Is the Place
TO BUY for home or investment; if you wish to buy or sell real estate or stores, lodging houses, restaurants, or in fact any business, come and see THOMPSON, 1132 Old South Bldg., Boston.

EVERETT—2-family, 11-room house, all imp., $3,300, part cash. THOMPSON.

EVERETT—6-room cottage, all imp., good yard, price $2,200, part cash. THOMPSON.

7-ROOM COTTAGE, good condition; 3,200 ft. land; $1,300, part cash. THOMPSON.

6-ROOM COTTAGE, hot and cold water, bath, furnace, cemented cellar, piped for gas, all in good condition; price $2,500, part cash. THOMPSON.

7-ROOM COTTAGE, hot and cold water, bath, gas, set tubs, 3,000 ft. land; price $2,300, part cash. THOMPSON.

EVERETT—6-room cottage, all imp., $1,900, part cash. THOMPSON.

ROXBURY—11-room, 2-family house, good condition; rent $30 per month; price $2,500, $500 cash. THOMPSON.

3-FAMILY, 15-room house, all imp., good location; rent $48 per month; price $5,900; part cash. THOMPSON, 1132 Old South Bldg., Boston, or 756 Broadway, Everett.

FRAMINGHAM, MASS.
2-ACRE ESTATE, $1,600, easy terms; 6-room house, stable for 2 cows and horse, henneries for 250 fowl, plenty of fruit, good water supply, bldgs. fine condition, handy to everything. Take Bos. & Wor. elecs. to Framingham St. Ry. Junction; inquire there for C. A. MORRILL. Details HENRY W. SAVAGE, 7 Pemberton Square, Boston.

NEW HOUSE, $4,800
IN DORCHESTER, 8 rooms and bath, h. w. floors, gas, open plumbing, set tubs, laundry, ranges, furnace heat, location excellent, terms very easy. HENRY W. SAVAGE, 7 Pemberton sq.

$600, $300 CASH.
22-ACRE FARM, wood enough fit to cut to pay for it, fair house, 9 miles from Worcester. EDWARD T. HARRINGTON CO., 293 Washington st., Boston.

MELROSE—New house, 7 rooms, hardwood floors, every improvement, fine location. H. E. CHAMBERLIN, 850 Tremont bldg., Boston.

SOMERVILLE—New two-family houses; all improvements; will sell at a bargain or will trade for a single house free and clear. OAKMAN & CO., 18 Tremont st., Boston.

A NICE PLACE for hens or garden, cottage 9 rooms, bath, all imps., splendid condition, nice street, large lot, assessed $3,100, price $2,600, $600 down. HIGGINS, 302 Highland av., Somerville.

$1,800—SINGLE or 2-family house, 9 rooms, $200 down. Inquire at 669 Broadway, W. Somerville. BLANCHARD & GLEASON.

REAL ESTATE business for sale, an extra good one, investigate. B 99, Boston American.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

Set solid, 12½c. per line; displayed, 20c. per line.

$300—CORNER GROCERY, with 4 dandy rooms connected; right among a good class of working people; plenty business for man and wife. E. H. BISHOP & CO., 279 Washington st., Boston.

$250—CIGAR AND VARIETY, full line magazines and periodicals; candy pays rent; 1 room connected. BISHOP & CO.

$300—LODGING HOUSE, 14 rooms, steam heat, nicely furnished, very central, rent $40; sell this week or put in storage; going away; actually worth $500. SIMONDS, 724 Washington st.

$350—LUNCH ROOM, put on market to-day, very natty, rent $25. SIMONDS, 724 Washington st.

$325—GROCERY, bakery, $15 rent, steam heat, splendid chance right party. COLLINS, 122 Shawmut av.

$225—GROCERY, variety, 2 living rooms, sweet and clean, large school trade. COLLINS, 122 Shawmut av., Boston.

$400—LIGHT GROCERY, doing $125 weekly, cor. store, 4 connected rooms. MARCY CO.

$1,600—WET WASH LAUNDRY, only one of its kind in city, clearing $45 weekly. MARCY & CO., 101 Tremont st., Boston.

$1,800 WANTED by corporation for 3 months; excellent security; will pay good rate of interest. Address Box K 260, Boston American.

PICTURE THEATRE, near Boston, doing good business, cheap. B. O. WETMORE, 3 Tremont row.

WANTED—To lease to a young man of good character my fish route, 8 miles from Boston, excellent opportunity for a young man that is working in some retail place to better himself financially; will let at a very low figure; I have another business in another country by the first of March, therefore wish another party to take hold at that time. Inquire for information at ATLAS FISH CO., 80 Commerce st., Boston.

DYEING AND CLEANSING BUSINESS, $100 a week profit to buyers guaranteed. PROCTOR, 35 Court st.

MAN with $150 can have position, $20 week and half interest business; investigate. PROCTOR, 35 Court st., Boston.

$350—GROCERY, packed solid with salable stock, corner store, large room connected, $20 rent, grand location; you must see it, advertising cannot give proper description. HARPER, 230 Washington st., Boston.

$350, PART CASH, buys neatly furnished 10-room lodging house, Warren av.; rent $50. WEBB.

$350, $150 DOWN, buys 14-room lodging house, on best part of Columbus av. WEBB, 23 Appleton st., Boston.

FOR SALE—One of the oldest and best known retail shoe stores in Lowell; owner has been in business since 1887; poor health cause of selling. Address B 265, Boston American.

COLUMBUS AV.—Lodging house clearing $100 monthly; owner going West; house beautifully furnished; excellent location; investigate. BOSTON REAL ESTATE CO., 6 Beacon st., Boston.

TAILORS' CLEARING HOUSE.

DON'T BE A READY-MADE MAN

GEORGE'S, 14 Summer St., BOSTON. GEORGE'S, 259 W. 34th St., NEW YORK. GEORGE'S, 101 S. 15th St., PHILA., PA.

Why We Never Carry Garments From One Season to Another.

FOR 23 years we have never carried garments from one season to another; this has enabled us to always offer entirely new and desirable shades and patterns and to keep 1 year in advance of ready-made houses; this tells why our January Clearing Sale means more than double the values you can obtain at ready-made half-price sales; our garments mean good wear, accurate fit and satisfaction; while we have over 5,000 Suits, Overcoats, Full Dress and Tuxedo Suits, Cravenettes, Prince Alberts, to select from, to economize advertising expenses, and thus give greater values, we name but 2: Sack Suit, the dark shade known as London smoke, tailored in the snappy dip front style; overcoat, dark blue kersey, long and loose, cut back shapely, different from ready made; both garments made to order for $45 by Wells of Broadway; former prices $20; to force sales we offer them at $15 each. GEORGE'S TAILOR PARLORS, 14 Summer st., near Washington; open evenings.

CLOTHING.

LARGEST VARIETY
OF GENTS' slightly worn custom clothing in New England, made by leading tailors; students' clothes, suits from $2.50 up; coats and vests from $1.50 up; Fall and Winter overcoats and a full line of raincoats from $1.75 up; coats from 75c. up; pants from 75c. up. Highest grade dress suits for sale or to let. MARKS & CHESTER, 89 Dudley st., Roxbury; 4 doors below American Express office, near terminal; open evenings until 9; Saturdays until 11.

SLIGHTLY used street, party, ball and stage dresses, to sell or let, $3 up; also a large assortment of opera coats and furs. MADAME DE GROOT, 195 Pleasant st.; 2 minutes' walk from Park square, store facing Shawmut st.

Barter and Exchange

ONE CENT A WORD.

Grocers, Markets, Restaurants,
ALL KINDS of store fixtures and refrigerators, factory headquarters, largest in Boston for second-hand and new fixtures, meat blocks, cutting tables, lunch counters, stools, chairs, tables, computing scales, showcases; everything to fit up your store; second-hand dealers buy of us and sell to you; buy here at our big factory, cash or easy payments, and save dealers' profits; 26 years established. WHITMAN CO., 10 and 12 Durrance st., Sullivan sq.

ALBEE'S BARGAIN LIST in this column every Saturday; stoves and ranges, 99 Blackstone st.; furnaces, steam, water heaters and radiators, furnishings for public halls, lodge rooms, stores, offices and restaurants. 53 Hanover.

DISC and cylinder records exchanged at 3c. each, great variety. NEW ENGLAND RECORD EXCHANGE, 2,012 Washington st.

STEAMSHIPS.

Allan Line Royal Mail Steamers.
Only DIRECT Service between BOSTON AND SCOTLAND.
Only DIRECT Service between BOSTON AND NORTH OF IRELAND.
Only Direct Service from Galway.
Splendid accommodation and food. Latest improvements for comfort and safety. Second cabin, Glasgow, Derry or Galway, $40; third class, $26.50, to Glasgow, Derry, Belfast and Liverpool. Entire rooms reserved for married couples. Children 1-12 years, half fare. H. & A. Allan, 110 State st., Boston.

DRAMATIC.

WANTED—Young ladies who would like to travel with first-class company, board, transportation and everything furnished, no experience necessary, not over five feet five and of nice appearance, long engagement. Address or call 7 Beech st., Reading, Mass. G. M. JACKSON.

HORSES AND CARRIAGES.

$65 BUYS OUTFIT, safe family horse, age 9, 1,100 lbs., all right every way, good worker and driver, harness and top buggy, sold by resp. party, 26 Rockland st., Roxbury, near Dudley st.; phone 1918-4 Roxbury.

MEETINGS.

PAINTERS' UNION NO. 11.
SPECIAL meeting Tuesday, Jan. 12, to take action on amendments to by-laws.

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

AUTOMOBILES.

$135 BUYS
$800 RUNABOUT, hardly used, artillery wheels, Clincher tires, wheel steer, sliding gear transmission. This car is going to be sold this week. Come quick or you lose it. FRANKLIN SQ. AUTO CO., 51 Mystic st., Boston. Tel 475 Trem.

AUTOMOBILES, BARGAINS—Peerless, 4-cyl., $400; Thomas, 4-cyl., $400; Marion, 4-cyl., $300; another, $200; Corbin, 4-cyl., $350; Haynes & Dalson, $1,000; Buick, $300; Ford, $300; another, $150; Columbia, $400; we always have the best bargains in Boston; no trouble to show goods; we lead N. E. on tires; we have all 1908 new goods; we will exchange your automobile for another make, or sell you one on easy payments. EASTERN AUTOMOBILE EXCHANGE, 41 Columbus av., 40-42 Warren st.; phone 1372-2 Tremont, 213 Tremont.

NEARLY NEW 30 h. p. Stanley touring car, model M, full equipment of top, searchlights, presto tank, speedometer, windshield, extra tire complete, etc., $1,500; second-hand model F Stanley, 20 h. p. touring car, full equipment, first-class condition, $550. Address R 266, Boston American.

WE HAVE the largest list of slightly used cars in Boston at low prices; Cadillac, Franklin, Ford, Royal Tourist, Winton, Queen, Orient, Stanley, White, Reo, Oldsmobile, all kinds of cars, from $100 up; we loan money on autos. N. E. AUTO CO., 509 Tremont st., Boston. Tel 1888-2 Trem.

FURNITURE.

PIANOS, furniture, carpets and general merchandise purchased for cash. T. W. WILLIAMS, 32 Bromfield st.

WE PAY the highest cash prices for furniture, store fixtures and mdse. E. M. OLLMAN, 38 Washington st. Tel 2362-2 Haymarket.

CASH PAID for furniture, carpets and household effects generally; write, call or telephone 2738 Oxford. CLOUGH & CO., 42 and 44 Eliot st.

HIGHEST CASH PRICES paid for all kinds of furniture and merchandise. Call at J. SWETT, off N. Washington st. tel. 1862-2 Richmond.

OLD FEATHER beds bought; highest cash paid. AMERICAN FEATHER CO., 226 Dover st., Boston.

TATTOOING.

TATTOOING by PROF. GAVETT; painless, antiseptic treatment; tattooing taken out. Nick. Musee, Washington st.

DEATH NOTICES.

AXE—In Dorchester, Jan. 11, Charles, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Axe, 22 yrs. Funeral from late residence, 339 Beaver st., Dorchester, Tuesday, Jan. 12, at 1 p. m. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

CLEARY—In Hyde Park, Jan. 11, Joseph, eldest son of Timothy and Nora Cleary, 11 yrs. 6 mos. Funeral from parents' residence, 306 Hyde Park av., on Wednesday, at 8 a. m. Services at Church of the Most Precious Blood at 9 o'clock. Interment at Fairview Cemetery.

DALY—In East Boston, Jan. 10, John J., beloved son of Thomas A. and the late Elizabeth Daly (nee Hanley), 25 yrs. 5 mos. 17 ds. Funeral from his late residence, 41 Orleans st., on Wednesday, at 9:15 a. m. High mass of requiem at the Church of the Assumption at 10 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend. St. John, N. B., papers please copy.

DOHERTY—In this city, Jan. 11, James A., son of the late Michael Doherty, 56 yrs. 10 mos. Funeral from his late residence, 21 Union pk., Wednesday, Jan. 13, at 9 a. m. Solemn requiem high mass at Church of the Immaculate Conception at 10 o'clock. Kindly omit flowers.

FAY—In Somerville, Jan. 10, Elizabeth, beloved wife of the late Walter J. Fay, 72 yrs. Funeral from her late residence, 19 Stone av., Wednesday, Jan. 13, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

HUGHES—In Cambridge, Jan. 11, John J., beloved son of William F. and Mary T. Hughes (nee O'Brien). Funeral from parents' residence, 265 Cambridge st., on Wednesday, Jan. 13, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

KELLEY—In Roxbury, Jan. 10, Lucy A. Kelley, widow of the late James Kelley. Funeral from the residence of her niece, Mrs. John T. Leonard, 782 Shawmut av., on Wednesday, Jan. 13, at 8:15 a. m. Requiem high mass at St. Francis de Sales' Church, Vernon st., at 9 o'clock.

MATHEWS—At the City Hospital, Jan. 10, Michael Joseph Mathews, formerly of Woburn. Funeral from his late home, 185 Bowdoin st., Dorchester, Wednesday, Jan. 13, at 8:15 a. m. High mass at St. Peter's Church at 9 o'clock.

McCARTY—In East Boston, Jan. 11, Gertrude G., beloved daughter of James and Catherine F. McCarty (nee Lynch). Funeral from her late residence, 11 Meridian st., on Wednesday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are requested to attend.

McGRATH—In Somerville, Jan. 11, Thomas McGrath, 82 yrs. 11 mos. 11 ds. Funeral from his late residence, 6 Kent st., on Thursday at 8 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem at St. Catherine's Church, Spring Hill, at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

O'CONNELL—In Somerville, Jan. 10, John, beloved husband of Elizabeth O'Connell and father of the Rev. William H. O'Connell of St. Philip's Church, Harrison av., Boston. Funeral from his late residence, 82 Beacon st., Wednesday, Jan. 13, at 9:15. Solemn requiem high mass at St. Joseph's Church, Union square, at 10 o'clock. Relatives and friends kindly invited to attend.

Read the AMERICAN'S Classified Ads.

EDITORIAL
PAGE OF THE
BOSTON AMERICAN
BOSTON
JANUARY 12, 1909

BOSTON AMERICAN

80 AND 82 SUMMER ST., BOSTON, JANUARY 12, 1909

Making Roosevelt More Useful—More Dangerous to Crime

That Is the Present Task of the Senate, the House of Representatives and the Financial Wolves, Who Imagine That They Are Destroying Him

Copyright, 1909, by American-Journal-Examiner

Theodore Roosevelt has been President of the United States almost eight years. He has made mistakes—a good many. We have talked of those mistakes more than once. We are sorry now that we noticed them so vigorously and so frequently. We should have paid more attention to the enemies that he has made, to the truths that he has told, the courage that he has shown from the beginning.

We see the character of Theodore Roosevelt in the fights that are made against him. Every trust jackal is biting at his heels—or coming as near to the heels as he dares—and snarling.

Professional criminals in office are passing resolutions against the President, and the honest, more or less foolish law-making minority is dragged into the performance.

The Senate accuses him of dishonesty, because in the panic, when the nation was frightened and only the big thieves were at their ease, Roosevelt hesitated to make confusion and panic worse at that particular moment, even at the cost of permitting one more piece of trust dishonesty—THE BUYING OF THE TENNESSEE COAL & IRON COMPANY BY THE STEEL TRUST.

While the Senate, notorious for its certificates of deposit from Archbold, notorious as the stronghold of the trusts, fattened by profits of Sugar Trust stealings, eager for more profits from any kind of stealing, calls Roosevelt dishonest, the House of Representatives, that little nest of incompetent mediocrity and trust servility, attacks him from another side.

Roosevelt TOLD THE TRUTH ABOUT THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. He said that they were afraid of the Secret Service spies because they committed crimes that they don't want unearthed. This is TRUE. The people of the United States KNOW that that is true, and no amount of resolutions, not ten thousand votes of "seven to one" against Roosevelt will persuade the people to think that our Congress is an honest, conscientiously representative body, as a whole, or that Roosevelt did anything but his duty when he told the plain, blunt truth about the land thieves, the Archbold check takers, and all the rest of the crew.

Honest men are in Congress, in the upper and lower houses. They do exist, fortunately. You will find a sound apple in a swill barrel occasionally. It would have been better for those honest men to put themselves on record, rebuking the President as individuals if necessary, for his failure to discriminate in that message, but thoroughly upholding him and refusing to make themselves catspaws of the criminals whom Roosevelt honestly attacked.

What we like in the Roosevelt situation is this.

These men who imagine that they are seeing the end of Roosevelt, who hastily and happily kick at him now, are engaged in a work which they little understand. They are taking Roosevelt, the impulsive, erratic, uncertain man, building his character, making him realize that the things which he has said about the big and powerful, under sudden impulse, ARE FUNDAMENTALLY AND PERMANENTLY TRUE. The Wall Street pirates and the Washington tricksters imagine that they are killing Roosevelt off. They think their petty combination, in which thieves use honest men, sufficiently strong to do away with a man of real character. They will learn their mistake.

They will make of Roosevelt a determined, persistently combative individual, convinced that the country really needs reform.

They will build up for themselves a political Frankenstein monster that will give them many a shivery night toward the end of Mr. Taft's term. Four years is not an eternity. They roll by quickly, gentlemen, when your noses are buried in the trough of Wall Street. You will come out of that trough suddenly and realize that your attacks upon Roosevelt have made him stronger with the people, AND MADE HIM INFINITELY STRONGER IN HIS DETERMINATION TO FIND OUT WHETHER EIGHTY MILLIONS OF CITIZENS MUST YIELD TO A HANDFUL IN WASHINGTON AND IN NEW YORK.

It is the education of Mr. Roosevelt that is being pushed on now by men who imagine that they are eliminating him. He finds that those who were supposed to be his friends were only servile hypocrites, using him while they could, deceiving him and fighting him now that his term ends.

WITH THE KNOWLEDGE IN THE MINDS OF THE PEOPLE THAT ROOSEVELT REALLY TRIED TO MAKE THEIR FIGHT, REALLY INTENDED TO DO SOMETHING IN RETURN FOR PUBLIC CONFIDENCE, ROOSEVELT, IF HE CHOOSES, CAN GROW IN INFLUENCE, AND IN FOUR YEARS THERE MAY COME A SAD RECKONING DAY FOR THESE INDIVIDUALS NOW HAVING SUCH A GAY TIME AT HIS EXPENSE. Attacks don't hurt a man strong and honest. They build him up.

LETTERS FROM AMERICAN READERS

CALLS SMOKING AN EVIL

Why don't you use your wide influence to abate the smoke nuisance? Tobacco smoke I mean. It is time the women made a fuss about the terrible waste and nuisance of this mere weakness, or habit—a habit that is born in cowardice and apishness and breeds only selfishness and physical weakness. The only justification for the whole tobacco business is the living it gives farmers, manufacturers and merchants, and they could all make just as much money in something useful—something that does not end in smoke. Think of the permanent comforts this smoke would put into American homes. Think of the hungry thousands it would feed—the generous pension it would give every aged man and woman in the country. But I will not tax your patience longer. This habit and expense are increasing alarmingly, and the only force that can stop it is woman. If she says "I won't stand it!" and lives up to the declaration, something will happen. JOE H. DOLLAY.

SAYS A FAMILY CAN LIVE ON $18 A WEEK.

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

Can a man earning $18 a week support himself and wife in a comfortable manner and at the same time lay a little aside? Most assuredly so. Even in these times of high prices, all that is required is a little prudence and carefulness. They must must not want to keep pace with their neighbors, who may be worth thousands, which is the fault of so many of the present day.

It is useless to give a list of expenses, as no two weeks' accounts are the same in any family. But on $18 a week they can live in a respectable house, enjoying themselves, dress well and save something for a rainy day. My method is be shrewd in buying, take advantage off the ½ cent difference in price, run no bills, pay as you go and you have the secret of saving money.

I am doing it on less money with a family of four, and I am not a "tightwaddo," either. HYDE PARK.

WANTS SHUTTLE TRAIN'S ROUTE EXTENDED

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

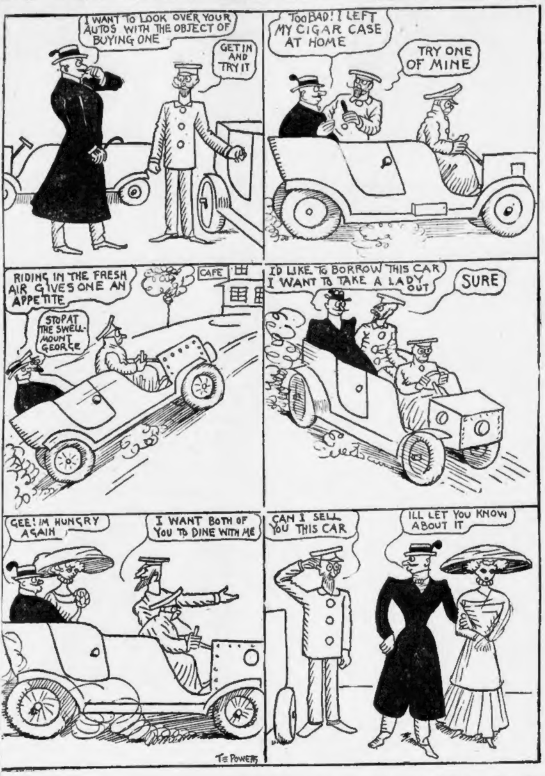
I offer the following food for thought to you and your readers that patronize the Boston Elevated:

Why cannot the shuttle train that now runs from the North Station to Beach street be extended to the Pleasant street entrance of the Subway? A suitable station could be erected there for the convenience of the patrons of the road who enter from the Tremont street lines and who desire to go to the South station. Also one entering the subway from the Public Garden could transfer at Boylston, again at Pleasant, and get to the South Station quicker than by any other route. In the Summer time, when the excursion steamers are running and the beaches open, this would greatly relieve the congestion which is bound to occur under the present arrangement. W. B. S.

DO YOU KNOW THIS MAN

By T. E. Powers

Copyright, 1909, by American-Journal-Examiner



I WANT TO LOOK OVER YOUR AUTOS WITH THE OBJECT OF BUYING ONE
GET IN AND TRY IT
TOO BAD! I LEFT MY CIGAR CASE AT HOME
TRY ONE OF MINE
RIDING IN THE FRESH AIR GIVES ONE AN APPETITE
CAFE
STOP AT THE SWELL-MOUNT GEORGE
I'D LIKE TO BORROW THIS CAR I WANT TO TAKE A LADY OUT
SURE
GEE! I'M HUNGRY AGAIN
I WANT BOTH OF YOU TO DINE WITH ME
CAN I SELL YOU THIS CAR
I'LL LET YOU KNOW ABOUT IT
T.E. POWERS

The Two Glasses

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX

Copyright, 1909, by American-Journal-Examiner

THERE sat two glasses filled to the brim,
On a rich man's table, rim to rim.
One was ruddy and red as blood,
And one was clear as the crystal flood.

SAID the Glass of Wine to his paler brother,
"Let us tell tales of the past to each other;
I can tell of banquet, and revel, and mirth,
Where I was king, for I ruled in might;
For the proudest and grandest souls on earth
Fell under my touch, as though struck with blight.
From the heads of kings I have torn the crown;
From the heights of fame I have hurled men down,
I have blasted many an honored name;
I have taken virtue and given shame;
I have tempted the youth with a sip, a taste,
That has made his future a barren waste.
Far greater than any king am I,
Or than any army beneath the sky.
I have made the arm of the driver fail,
And sent the train from the iron rail.
I have made good ships go down at sea.
And the shrieks of the lost were sweet to me.
Fame, strength, wealth, genius before me fall;
And my might and power are over all!
Ho, Ho! pale brother," said the Wine,
"Can you boast of deeds as great as mine?"

SAID the Water Glass: "I cannot boast
Of a king dethroned, or a murdered host,
But I can tell of hearts that were sad
By my crystal drops made bright and glad;
Of thirsts I have quenched, and brows I have laved;
Of hands I have cooled, and souls I have saved.
I have leaped through the valley, dashed down the mountain,
Slept in the sunshine, and dripped from the fountain.
I have burst my cloud fetters, and dropped from the sky,
And everywhere gladdened the prospect and eye;
I have eased the hot forehead of fever and pain;
I have made the parched meadows grow fertile with grain.
I can tell of the powerful wheel of the mill,
That ground out the flour, and turned at my will.
I can tell of manhood debased by you
That I have uplifted and crowned anew;
I cheer, I help, I strengthen and aid;
I gladden the heart of man and maid;
I set the wine-chained captive free,
And all are better for knowing me."

THESE are the tales they told each other,
The Glass of Wine and its paler brother,
As they sat together, filled to the brim,
On a rich man's table, rim to rim.

—From "Kingdom of Love" and Other Poems.

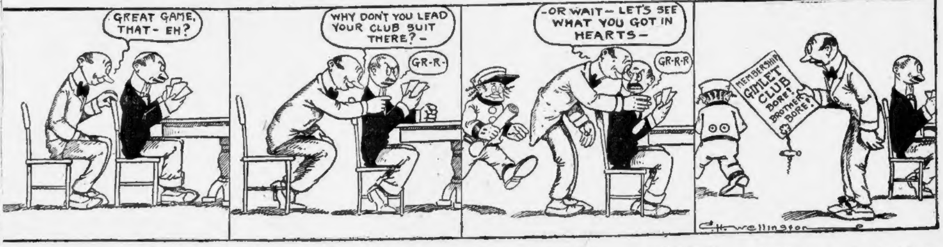
YOU MEET HIM EVERYWHERE

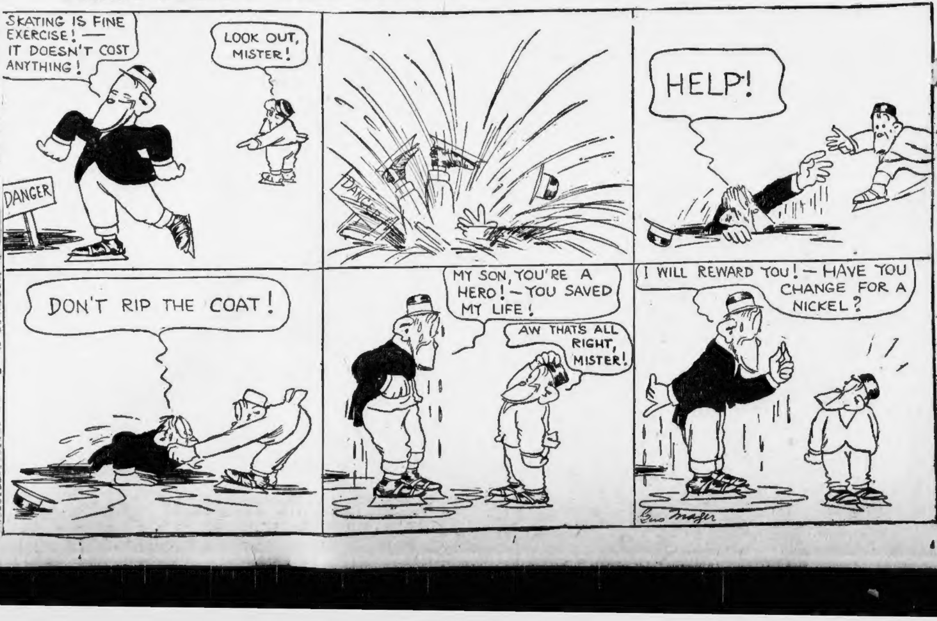
Copyright, 1909, by American-Journal-Examiner



GREAT GAME, THAT—EH?
WHY DON'T YOU LEAD YOUR CLUB SUIT THERE?—
GR-R.
—OR WAIT—LET'S SEE WHAT YOU GOT IN HEARTS—
GR-R-R
MEMBERSHIP GIMLET CLUB BORE! BROTHER BORE!
C.H. Wellington

TIGHTWADDO THE MONK REWARDS A HERO

Copyright, 1909, by American-Journal-Examiner



SKATING IS FINE EXERCISE! — IT DOESN'T COST ANYTHING!
LOOK OUT, MISTER!
DANGER
DANGER
HELP!
DON'T RIP THE COAT!
MY SON, YOU'RE A HERO! — YOU SAVED MY LIFE!
AW THATS ALL RIGHT, MISTER!
I WILL REWARD YOU! — HAVE YOU CHANGE FOR A NICKEL?
Gus Mager